REVISED AND CORRECTED, WITH NOTES AND REFERENCES, BY HON. WILLIAM H. BATTLE,
JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT OF NORTH CAROLINA.
The price of the new edition is not greater than that of the old, though, as it is scarcely necessary to say to the Profession in North Carolina, its value has been greatly increased by Judge Battle's Notes, References and Corrections.
The volume has been long out of print, and we shall be glad to supply the many Lawyers whose sets of Reports are incomplete without it, as well as those who have the old edition but would like to have the new one for the sake of its notes.

Fire Insurance.

WE refer our readers to the annual statement of the Etina Insurance Company, of Hartford, which will be found in another column. This successful institution was incorporated by the Legislature of Connecticut in 1819, with a perpetual charter. Its capital is $500,000, and its accumulations exceed $800,000 more, making its entire assets over $1,300,000, invested as detailed in the statement referred to. These results indicate that during the period of nearly forty years since its organization, (without a single change of its chief officers,) its business has been conducted with judgment and prudence. It has been thus far successful in an eminent degree, discharging, as we are informed, all its obligations by the payment of about ten million dollars for losses, without asking a day's delay in any instance. It has had but little litigation, notwithstanding the immense number of transactions made. In order to attain as much certainty as possible in such a business as insurance, it has been the practice of the Company, for several years, to employ a lawyer, carefully to classify and arrange their risks into about fifty distinct classes, so as to ascertain the amount insured on each class, the amount of premiums received thereon, and the amount of losses upon each. This classification, extending over a long period, covering property to a very large amount, affords a basis of reliable experience, upon which to conduct its business. Insurance is not a matter of luck or chance, as many suppose; its hazards are ascertainable, and its principles capable of being reduced to a system, of practical working and management, and as certain as that of any other business. The Etina Company, by adhering rigidly to its system, and placing its business upon a healthy basis, has obtained the confidence of the community to an extent surpassed by no other company in the State, and has increased its business and its income from year to year with a steady growth. One great source of its security is the wide distribution of its risks—a policy which it pursues with great strictness—limiting the amount to be covered in each locality. By this course it has passed, with comparative unity, through some of the most sweeping and destructive fires, which have swallowed up other companies less cautious in their business. It is a system like this, based upon experience, which gives stability and soundness to a company, and to the assured confidence and security of the community.

NORTH CAROLINA REAPERS

NUMBERS 1 AND 2.
PREPARED WITH SPECIAL REFERENCE TO THE WANTS AND INTERESTS OF North Carolina.
UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF COMMON SCHOOLS, BY Rev. F. M. Hubbard,
PROFESSOR OF THE LATIN LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE IN THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

NUMBER 3,
CONTAINING A FAMILIAR HISTORY AND DESCRIPTION OF NORTH CAROLINA.
Selections in Prose and Verse; many of them by eminent citizens of the State.
HISTORICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL TABLES, And a variety of Miscellaneous Information and Statistics.
NUMBER 3 is a new and revised edition of the North Carolina Reader, first published in 1851. Numbers 1 and 2 just issued, complete the series, which is, as a whole, cheaper than any other series of Readers in the United States, and as complete.
The Editor (Prof. Hubbard) in his Preface to Number 1 deems it proper to allude to a few of the peculiar advantages aimed at by the Superintendent of Common Schools while making efforts to have this work completed. These are:
1. The encouragement of a feeling of self-dependence, and the enlistment of popular sentiment in behalf of the State and its institutions. It was not thought important, however, to have more than one number of the Readers, merely a local interest.
2. To remedy the evil everywhere complained of in common schools, of a perpetual change in text books; an expensive habit, and one which injures the Schools by preventing the children from being classified. A series of home Readers, it was supposed, would be certainly used, and it is believed that these numbers are sufficient, while if the system were universally used in the State, the sum saved to parents and children would amount to several thousand dollars annually.

3. To supply the wants of children learning to read common subjects sufficiently familiar, but not of the character called children's compositions, containing, in lessons easy enough for all ages, correct specimens of style, interesting in matter, and inculcating proper morals, and religious instruction.
The prices are, for No. 1, 25 cents; No. 2, 37 1/2 cents; and No. 3, 75 cents. A liberal deduction from these prices to Merchants and School Teachers.
E. J. HALE & SON.
Oct. 26, 1857.

Dr. Hawks's History OF NORTH CAROLINA.

THE Subscribers are now prepared to furnish the 1st volume of this valuable work, which has received the highest commendation wherever it has been read, not only for its literary execution but for its topographical getting up. It may be obtained, either from us or from our General Agent for the State, H. W. Horne of this place, or any of his Assistant Agents. The price varies according to style of binding: in handsome cloth $1 25; in Library Sheep $1 50; in half calf $1 75. IT IS SOLD ONLY FOR CASH. None will be charged, either by ourselves or our Agents. A liberal discount will be made where quantities are taken to sell again. It will be sent by mail to any part of the country, on receipt of the price and 24 cents for postage.
The 2d volume is in course of preparation. There will probably be four or five volumes in all. The succeeding volumes will probably contain about 500 pages each, and will be sold at a proportionally higher price, viz: half a cent a page for the cloth binding; 25 cents additional for sheep and 50 cents additional for the half calf binding.
E. J. HALE & SON.
Fayetteville, April 29, 1857.

P. S. The Agent and his Assistants design to visit every county in the State, with the book, as soon as convenient. In the mean time, orders to him or to us, accompanied by the cash, will receive prompt attention.
