NORTH CAROLINA READERS NUMBERS 1 AND 2.

PREPARED WITH SPECIAL REFERENCE TO THE WANTS AND INTERESTS OF North Carolina.

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF COM-MON SCHOOLS, BY Rev. F. M. Hubbard,

NUMBER 3, CONTAINING A FAMILIAR HISTORY AND DESCRIP TION OF NORTH CAROLINA. Selections in Prose and Verse; many of them by eminent citizens of the State. HISTORICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL TABLES, And a variety of Miscellaneous Information and Statistics, by C. H. WILEY

Number 3 is a new and revised edition of the North Carolina Reader, first published in 1851. Numbers 1 and 2 just issued, complete the series, which is, as a whole, cheaper than any other series of Readers in the United States, and as complete.

The Editor (Prof. Hubbard) in his Preface to Number I deems it proper to allude to a few of the peculiar advantages aimed at by the Superintendent of Common Schools while making efforts to have this work completed. These are, 1. The encouragement of a feeling of self-dependence, and the enlistment of popular sentiment in behalf of the State and its institutions. It was not thought important, however, to have more than one number of the Readers of merely a local interest.

2. To remedy the wil everywhere complained of in common schools, of a perpetual change in text books; an expensive habit, and one which injures the Schools by preventing the children from being classified. A series of home Readers, it was supposed, would be certainly used, and this great evil thus avoided. 3, Economy, the popular system of Readers being too long and being made so often merely to add to

This series is to consist of fewer numbers than those generally used, and it is believed that these numbers are sufficient, while if the system were universally used in the State, the sam saved to parents and children would amount to several thousand dellars annually. 4. To put in the kands of children learning to read compositions sufficiently familiar but not of the character called childish compositions, containing, in lessons easy enough for all ages, correct specimens of style, interesting in matter, and inculcating proper morals, and religious prices to Merchants and School Teachers.
