Fire Insurance.

E refer our readers to the annual statement of the Ætna Insurance Company, of Hartford, which will be found in another column. This success-institution was incorporated by the Legislature of punecticut in 1819, with a perpetual charter. Its spitul is $500.0 m, and its accumulations exceed 3 0.000 more, making its entire assets ever $300.

These results indicate that during the period of nearly forty years since its organization, (without a single change of its chief officer,) its business has been con ay's delay in any instance. It has had but little lit possible in such a business as insurance, it has been he practice of the Company, for several years, a great labor, carefully to classify and arrange their
