North Carolina Readers. NUMBERS 1 AND 2.

PREPARED WITH SPECIAL REFERENCE TO THE WANTS AND INTERESTS OF North Carolina.

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF COM-Rev. F. M. Hubbard,

PROFESSOR OF THE LATIN LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE IN THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

CONTAINING A FAMILIAR HISTORY AND DESCRIP-TION OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Selections in Prose and Verse; many of them by eminent citizens of the State. HISTORICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL TABLES. And a variety of Miscellaneous Information and Statistics, by

C. H. WILEY.

NUMBER 3 is a new and revised edition of the North Carolina Reader, first published in 1851. Numbers 1 and 2 just issued, complete the series, which is, as a whole, cheaper than any other series of Readers in the United States, and as complete. The Editor (Prof. Hubbard) in his Preface to Number I deems it proper to allude to a few of the peculiar advantages aimed at by the Superintendent of Common Schools while making efforts to have this work completed.

pleted. These are, 1. The encouragement of a feeling of self-dependence, and the enlistment of popular sentiment in behalf of the State and its institutions. It was not thought important, however, to have more than one number of the Reader of meaning a level integer.

2. To remedy the evil everywhere complained of in com mon schools, of a perpetual change in text books; an expensive habit, and one which injures the Schools by preventing the children from being classified. A series of home Readers, it was supposed, would be certainly used and this great evil thus avoided.

3. Economy, the popular system of Readers being too long and being made so often merely to add to the profits f authors and publishers.
This series is to consist of fewer numbers than thos generally used, and it is believed that these numbers are ifficient, while if the system were universally used in the State, the sum saved to parents and children would amount to several thousand dollars annually.

4. To put in the hands of children learning to read com-positions sufficiently familiar but not of the character caller childish compositions, containing, in lessons easy enoug matter, and inculcating proper morals, and religious i The prices are, for No. 1, 25 cents; No. 2, 37½ cent
