BRITISH PERIODICALS. SCOTT & CO., NEW YORK, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY (Conservative.) THE EDINBURGH REVIEW (Whig.)

THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Free Church.) THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal.)

BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory.)

These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory and Radical,—but politics forms only one feature of their character.

As Organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality and Religion, they stand, as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indigeneousle to the subplace and the profound. considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

The receipt of ADVANCE SHEETS from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, in-asmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of sub-scribers about as soon as the original editions.

A. A. McKETHAN

DESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public, that he has built up large substantial Brick Buildings at his Old Stand, expressly for manufacturing Carriages. Thankful for the very liberal patronage he has received for the last 21 years, he hopes by strict attention to business, with a desire to give satisfaction, to merit a continuance of the same. He warrants his work to be made of the best material and by experienced workmen in each branch of the business. His work will compare favorably with any made in the United States for neatness and durability. He is determined to sell and do any work in his line on as good terms as any work done elsewhere that is as well done. He now has on hand, finished, THE LARGEST STOCK OF YUMBER 3 is a new and revised edition of the North Carolina Reader, first published in 1851. Numbers and 2 just issued, complete the series, which is, as a shole, cheaper than any other series of Readers in the ber I deems it proper to allude to a few of the peculiar advantages aimed at by the Superintendent of Common

Schools while making efforts to have this work com pleted. These are. 1. The encouragement of a feeling of self-dependence, and the enlistment of popular sentiment in behalf of the State and its institutions. It was not thought important, however, to have more than one number of the Reader of nerely a local interest. A Ll. those indebted to me by Note or Account will please call at my old Stand, Northeast corner Mar-ket Square, and settle up. In my absence Mr. T. B.

2. To remedy the evil everywhere complained of in com mon schools, of a perpetual change in text books; an expensive habit, and one which injures the Schools by preventing the children from being classified. A series of home Readers, it was supposed, would be certainly used. and this great evil thus avoided.

3. Economy, the popular system of Readers being too long and being made so often merely to add to the profits of authors and publishers.

This series is to consist of fewer numbers than those generally used, and it is believed that these numbers ar ifficient, while if the system were universally used in the State, the sum saved to parents and children would amount to several thousand dollars annually. 4. To put in the hands of children learning to read-positions sufficiently familiar but not of the character talls for all ages, correct specimens of style interesting i

A TREATISE LAW OF EVIDENCE,

TENTH ENGLISH EDITION, WITH CONSIDERABLE ALTERATIONS AND ADDITIONS.
By the Right Hon. S. MARCH PHILLIPS and THOS. JAMES ARNOLD, Esq., one of the Police Magistrates for the Metropolis. FOURTH AMERICAN EDITION,

With COWEN & HILL'S Notes, and with additional Notes and References to the English and American eases to the present time, including those added to the Aust edition by J. Marsden Van Cott. BY ISAAC EDWARDS, COUNSELLOR AT LAW.

In three large volumes.

The unequalled work of Mr. Phillips on the Law of Evidence has long been acknowledged.

This edition has undergone a thorough revision by Mr. Edwards, and has received an immense amount of labor, and is now as nearly perfect as can be made.

The American labor and talent bestowed upon the work are not less than that derived from the English ource. The immortal notes of Messrs. Cowen & Hill, ogether with those of Mr. Van Cott, have been carefully preserved; and instead of being put in a volume by themselves, as formerly, they are now placed below the text-a disposition of them which will very much faci itate reference. The entire note and text are arranged in three compact volumes, with a table of cases, and an extremely full index to each. Mr. Edwards has carefully noted any distinctions that may exist between the English and American law, and has added all the late American decisions. Several copies of this valuable work just received and for sale by E. J. HALE & SON, Fayetteville.
