A TREATISE
ON THE
LAW OF EVIDENCE,

TENTH ENGLISH EDITION,
WITH CONSIDERABLE ALTERATIONS AND ADDITIONS
By the Right Hon. S. MARCH PHILLIPS and THOS. JAMES ARNOLD, Esq., one of the Police Magistrates for the Metropolitan.
FOURTH AMERICAN EDITION,
BY ISAAC EDWARDS,
COUNSELLOR AT LAW.

In three large volumes.
With COWEN & HILL'S Notes, and with additional Notes and References to the English and American cases to the present time, including those added to the last edition by J. Marsden Van Cott.
The unequalled work of Mr. Phillips on the Law of Evidence has long been acknowledged.
This edition has undergone a thorough revision by Mr. Edwards, and has received an immense amount of labor, and is now as nearly perfect as can be made.
The American labor and talent bestowed upon the work are not less than that derived from the English source. The immortal notes of Messrs. Cowen & Hill, together with those of Mr. Van Cott, have been carefully preserved; and instead of being put in a volume by themselves, as formerly, they are now placed before the text—a disposition of them which will very much facilitate reference. The entire notes and text are arranged in three compact volumes, with a table of cases, and an extremely full index to each. Mr. Edwards has carefully noted any distinctions that may exist between the English and American law, and has added all the late American decisions.
Several copies of this valuable work just received and for sale by E. J. HALE & SON, Fayetteville.

North Carolina Readers.
NUMBERS 1 AND 2.
PREPARED WITH SPECIAL REFERENCE TO THE WANTS AND INTERESTS OF North Carolina.

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF COMMON SCHOOLS, BY
F. M. Hubbard,
PROFESSOR OF THE LATIN LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE IN THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

NUMBER 3,
CONTAINING A FAMILIAR HISTORY AND DESCRIPTION OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Selections in Prose and Verse; many of them by eminent citizens of the State.
HISTORICAL AND CHRONOLOGICAL TABLES.
And a variety of Miscellaneous Information and Statistics.

By
C. H. WILEY.

NUMBER 3 is a new and revised edition of the North Carolina Reader, first published in 1851. Numbers 1 and 2 just issued, complete the series, which is, as a whole, cheaper than any other series of Readers in the United States, and as complete.

The Editor (Prof. Hubbard) in his Preface to Number 1 deems it proper to allude to a few of the peculiar advantages aimed at by the Superintendent of Common Schools while making efforts to have this work completed.

1. The encouragement of a feeling of self-dependence, and the enlistment of popular sentiment in behalf of the State and its institutions. It was not thought important, however, to have more than one number of the Reader of purely a local interest.

2. To remedy the evil everywhere complained of in common schools, of a perpetual change in text books; an expensive habit, and one which injures the Schools by preventing the children from being classified. A series of local Readers, it was supposed, would be certainly used, and this great evil thus avoided.

3. Economy, the popular system of Readers being too long and being made so often merely to add to the profits of authors and publishers.

This series is to consist of fewer numbers than those generally used, and it is believed that these numbers are sufficient, while if the system were universally used, the State, the sum saved to parents and children would amount to several thousand dollars annually.

4. To put in the hands of children learning to read compositions sufficiently familiar but not of the character called childish compositions, containing, in lessons easy enough for all ages, correct specimens of style, interesting in matter, and inculcating proper morals, and religious instruction.

The prices are, for No. 1, 25 cents; No. 2, 25 cents and No. 3, 75 cents. A liberal deduction from these prices to Merchants and School Teachers.
