GAS FITTINGS AND FIXTURES.

THE subscribers will be prepared by the middle of August, to supply every description of Buildings,-Dwellings, Stores, Factories, &c.-with all the necessary FIXTURES, for the introduction of GAS. As we are constantly engaged in the business of building Gas Works in this and other States, we of course can afford to bring on a large stock and sell on more reasonable terms than others. Our stock will include Chandeliers, Pendents, Brackets, Glass, &c.

As we have leased the works for five years, it will be to the advantage of those requiring such fixtures to get them of us, since upon us will fall the care of them, keeping them in repair, &c. For this purpose it is both our interest and pleasure to emply none but the best Gas Fitters.

In our absence for a few weeks, all who wish to have the Pipes introduced into their buildings, will please leave their names with Mr. W. N. Tillinghast, who will give all necessary information on the subject. It is desirable to know as early as possible, so that the Fixtures may be introduced at the same time with the con-

LARGE TRUSTEE'S SALE Of Valuable Real and Personal Property at High Point, Guilford Co., N. C., on the 11th and 12th days of November next.

DY virtue and in pursuance of two Deeds of Trust B executed to us by Jeremiah Piggott, to secure the payment of certain debts therein named and set forth, we shall expose to public sale, at High Point, on Fri-day and Saturday the 11th and 12th days of November 1859, Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, Farming Utensils, Blacksmith Tools, Wagons and Gears, a Buggy and Harness, a large number of Beds and Furniture, and a quantity of household, tavern and kitchen Furniture, and various other articles of personal property, conveyed in said Deeds of Trust. Also, a very valuable FARM AND PLANTATION of United States, and as complete. The Editor (Prof. Hubbard) in his Preface to Num ber 1 deems it proper to allude to a few of the peculiar advantages aimed at by the Superintendent of Common a valuable two-story dwelling house thereon, a good large frame barn, a good store house, blacksmith shop. Schools while making efforts to have this work comand other convenient buildings. Much of the land is well timbered, very productive, and the land is generally pleted. These are.

1. The encouragement of a feeling of self-dependence, and the enlistment of popular sentiment in behalf of the State and its institutions. It was not thought important, how-ever, to have more than one number of the Reader of merely a local interest. 2. To remedy the evil everywhere complained of in com-mon schools, of a perpetual change in text books; an expen-sive habit, and one which injures the Schools by pre-venting the children from being classified. A series of home Readers, it was supposed, would be certainly used of good quality. Also, the lot and large BRICK HOTEL near the N.C. Railroad station, at High Point, 15 miles west of Greens-borough, and 18 miles south east from Salem, lately ochome Readers, it was supposed, would be certainly used, a Fenale Seminary of about one hundred pupils. Also, TWO ACRES OF LAND in about one mile of and this great evil thus avoided.

Also, TWO ACRES OF LAND in about one mile of High Point, adjoining the lands of Samuel Edwards and long and being made so often merely to add to the profits

It may be proper to state that this BRICK HOTEL is It may be proper to state that this BRICK HOTEL is among the largest and best finished buildings in the State, with a good tin roof, four stories high, and con-tains forty-four large confortable rooms. For the purpose of giving persons desiring to pur-chase, a full chance to examine the farm and the hotel, and buildings on the lot and on the land, it is proposed to call the real state on Surveyer the 12th of Nerconder and buildings on the lot and on the land, it is proposed to sell the real estate on Saturday the 12th of November 1859. The titles will be made good to the purchaser. Terms made known on day of sale. SEWEL FARLOW, Trustee.
