If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency, Cough, Cold, Head-ache, Palpitation of the Mechanics, S1 50. Heart, Loss of Appetite or Pain in the Side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the "BLOOD FOOD." If you are suffering from Nervous Debility, or your sleep is broken and disturbed, if your Spirits are Depressed. or your Organs Relaxed, you will find in this an unfailing remedy, by commencing with ten drops. If your Liver is torpid or diseased in any manner whatever, one or two bottles will be sure to invigorate, and bring it into lively and healthy action. In the most invelerate cases of Dyspepsia, the patient can here find the most efficient and grateful relief. A benefit is al-ways experienced after taking only one bottle. In Male or Female Complaints and Weaknesses, the sufferer, after trying other remedies in vain, may rest assured, that a certain cure will result from the use of two or three bottles. The "BLOOD FOOD" is effectual in all cases of Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Scrofula and other like complaints. Pale and emaciated children and adults are immediately benefitted by its use. It gives strength to the body, and color and beauty to the skin. Pify-sicians of all schools are using it with wonderful success. For full directions, see circulars. Price $1 per bottle.

Savoy.-In the extreme northwestern corner of the Kingdom of Sardinia lies the province of Savoy, by nature a barren mountainous region of a hundred miles by sixty, and containing about a half million of inhabitants, poor in the extreme, though hardy and industrious, independent in character, and able to subsist upon a very little. Receiving the largest and most desirable stock of Boots Indeed, they eke out a subsistence upon chestnuts when all other sources of living fail; or packing up a few simple wares on their backs, scale the Alps and become travelling merchants and peddlers of the humblest kind, chiefly in France. The loftiest peaks of the Alps rise in their midst, and what little wealth they have is brought chiefly by travellers, who from the Lake of Geneva are tempted over by the scenes of natural grandeur with which the country abounds. These mountains have for ages sheltered an independ-Trunks; Oak & Hemlock Sole Leather; Calf, Goat, ent people, zealous for personal liberty. This district was, in point of fact, the original nucleus of the Kingdom of Sardinia, and as far back as the year A. D. 1000 it was governed by its own rulers, who annexed Piedmont in the beginning of the fifteenth century, as they had Nice in the fourteenth. This Province was by Napoleon I. governed as the district of Mont Blanc, and some of the inhabitants, remembering the glories of the Empire, would have no objection to return and again become an integral part of France. The question of this re-annexation is now, indeed being freely agitated in the French papers. Wrested from France by the treaties of 1814 and 1815, there is nothing for which Naro'eon III so anxiously longs as to regain at least some of the territory which was despoiled from his nation by the reverses of his uncle. He would, therefore, not unwillingly allow the King of Sardinia, it seems, to help himself to Central Italy, and extend his dominions to the south and east, giving up in return the provinces of Nice and of Savoy to the north and west. This would most effectually of
