LAND FOR SALE.
I OFFER for sale 640 Acres of LAND, lying on the West side of Cape Fear River, two miles below Fayetteville, and extending from the river into the sand-hills. This tract is about equally divided into river-ridge, swamp and sand-hill Land. About 80 acres, adjoining the river, are under cultivation and are well suited to the growth of Corn and Grass; none of the Swamp has been cleared. There are several good sites for a dwelling house on the sand-hills. Any person wishing to purchase will do well to make early application, as I have determined to sell.
The above Land, if not previously sold, will be offered at AUCTION, at the Market House in Fayetteville, on the 8th day of May, 1860. If desired, it will be divided into Two Tracts, each containing the advantage of River, Swamp and Sand-hill. From the report of an Engineer, who was employed to find the difference of level of the Swamp, it is established that drainage may be effected at moderate expense. For additional information apply to Mr. Sam'l. W. Tilgham, or to the subscriber.

JOHN H. COOK, Auctioneer.
VALUABLE FARMING LAND FOR SALE.
THE Plantation on Cape Fear River, known as the Col. Ashe place. These lands are without doubt the most valuable on the Cape Fear. The lands are divided into two tracts, one on the East side of the Cape Fear, contain 792 acres, most admirably adapted to the cultivation of cotton, corn, oats and wheat. Men of acknowledged judgment say it will average 30 to 50 burlis of corn to the acre, about 200 acres are cleared and it will produce 100 bales of cotton, besides provisions for the force.
The uncleared land cannot be surpassed any where, and will yield 50 to 80 bushels of corn to the acre, and will also produce 100 bales of cotton, with good dwelling houses of the best material in the State, with Steamboat navigation to either Fayetteville or Wilmington; with richness of soil equalled—never surpassed, makes the most VALUABLE and DESIRABLE FARM in the State.
In connection with the above, I offer 208 acres of LAND on West side of Cape Fear, known as the "White Lands," just opposite the above. I will sell the above lands on the most favorable terms. Being immediately adjacent to the most fertile of soil, they will be sold at AUCTION, at the Market House in Fayetteville, on May 8th, 1860. As to quality of Land, I refer to Col. Waddill, Messrs John Waddill, A. McKethan, David Murphy and Thomas S. Lutterloh.

LAND FOR SALE.
THE subscriber having removed West, offers for sale his LANDS in Harnett County, lying immediately on each side of Cape Fear River, containing 1200 acres in each tract. These Lands are situated in a healthy country, pleasant neighborhood, and within a half a mile of the village of Summerville, with good dwelling on each place and all necessary Out-Houses, and cleared Land enough to work 25 or 30 hands to advantage. There are on these lands some six hundred acres of the Bottom, most of which is uncleared, and well set with white oak and other fine Timber. A large portion of the balance is oak and hickory. Ridge Lands; the balance is pine Land of a good quality, having been worked in Turpentine three years. These Lands will be sold low for Cash or Young Negroes, or on time to suit purchasers, with approved bonds.

The death of Henry Clay.—He appeared in his place at the next session; but all saw that the glorious light was fading from his noble brow. He died as he doubtless wished to die—in the public service, in sight of the theatre of his great nation, almost under the flag of his country. Once again his body was in that Capitol—not as before, erect with lofty crest and glittering eye; but prone and pallid in death. Words of earnest and truthful eulogy were poured forth, and then commenced that great national funeral march—the more than Aurelian triumph. Through Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York—and solemn silence rested on those great cities, and the crowds that once came forth to hail the living form, were there in sadness to honor his passing bier. His remains were finely placed, the first night in the old Hall of Independence, afterwards under guards of honor in the City Halls and State Houses; by the Hudson, every vessel with its flag at half mast and cannon booming from every town and village; along the railroads, with multitudes assembled at every station to manifest their share in the general grief; across the lakes he loved so well; another pageant at Cleveland; wreaths of oak, of immortelles, of cypress, of ivy, of laurel, old men bursting into tears as they gazed upon his coffin; maidens pressing their lips upon it in agony of heart; young men bowed down by the crushing sense that
