A. J. WOODWARD,

Phat Polish! How it Shines. Many of you recollect nine years ago that I travelled through North Carolina and a portion of South Carolina for the pur-pose of introducing this Polish. As time clapsed I found hat it would mould. I have succeeded in making it perfect and will warrant it to give satisfaction. It can be had at retail for 10 cents per box or at wholesale for sixty cents per dozen. Dealers will forward their orers two weeks previous to the time they wish them filled.

DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, and why? because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one will alone will convince you that what we way is of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the suffer-ings of your shild, instead of by deadening its sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for Children Teething, Diarrhous, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Cold in the Head, and tories in New York and Boston, warranted as good as Croup, also, for softening the guess, reducing inflammation, any made in the country, and will be sold at New York -being an anti-spasmodic it is used with unfalling success in all cases of Convulsion or other Fits. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are eartain to result from the use of narcotics of which all other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but Dr. Eaton's Infantile Cordial; this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant. Price, 25 cents. Full directions

At the request of many | Poverty not so Great a Curse .- If there is friends, I again announce myself a anything in the world that a young man should candidate for the Office of Sheriff of be more thankful for than another, it is the povfor the very liberal support heretofore given me, should erty which necessitates his starting in life under very great disadvantages. Poverty is one of the best tests of human quality in existence. At riumph over it is like graduating with honor from West Point. It demonstrates stuff and stamina. It is a certificate of worthy labor creditably performed. A young man who cannot stand the test is not worth anything. He can never rise above a drudge or a pauper. A young man who cannot feel his will harden as the yoke of poverty presses upon him, and his pluck rise with every difficulty poverty throws in his way, may as well retire into some corner and hide himself. Poverty saves a thousand times more men than it ruins; for it only ruins those who are not particularly worth saving, while it saves multitudes of those whom wealth would have ruined. If any young man who reads this is so unfortunate as to BOOKS AND STATIONERY. be rich, I give him pity. I pity you, my rich youg friend, because you are in danger. You lack one stimulus to effort and excellence, which your poor companion possesses. You will be very apt. if you have a soft spot in your head, to think yourself above him, and that sort of thing makes you mean, and injures you. With ful pockets and full stomach, and fine linen and broadcloth on your back; your heart and soul plethoric, in the race of life you will find yourself surpassed by all the poor boys around you before you know

> No, my boy, if you are poor, thank God and take courage; for He intends to give you a chance to make something of yourself. If you had plenty of money, ten chances to one it would spoil you for all useful purposes. Do you lack education? Have you been cut short in the text book? Remember that education, like some other things, does not consist in the multitude of things a man possesses. What can you do? That is the question that settles the business. Do you know men and how to deal with them? Has your mind, by any means whatsoever, received that discipline which gives to it action, power and facility? If so, then you are more of a man and a thousand times better educated than the fellow who gradutes from college with his brains full of stuff that he cannot apply to the practical business of life -stuff, the acquisition of which has been in no sense a disciplinary process as far as he he is concerned. There are very few men in this world less than thirty years of age, and unmarried, who can afford to be rich. One of the greatest benefits to be reaped from great financial disasters, is the saving a large crop of young men.

Timothy Titcomb.

Children "Fashionably" Dressed .- The absurd fashion of exposing children of tender years to the keen out-door air, with but half the necessary protection which their little arms and legs require, is still so prevalent as to require a word of comment. It is true, fond mother, that your chubby, three-year old boy is as finely modeled as the Cupid of Canova, is but the pleasure you derive in knowing that other people admire the graceful round-ness of those limbs will never compensate you for the anguish and watchings which you will experience when he is attacked with croup or the terrific scarlet fever. Strong men find it impossible to spend half their time in the heated houses of civilized society, and then go out of doors with the Congressional plates, an edition of the Report cramps that flesh is heir to. And they have the advantage of us in this respect. The slender thread of silk or cotton keeps them united with the small, familiar, gentle interests of life, the continually operating influences of which do much for the health of the character, and carry off what would otherwise be a dangerous accumulation of morbid sensibility. A vast deal of human sympathy runs along this electric line, stretching from the throne to the wicker chair of the humblest seamstress, and keeping high and low in a species of communion with their kindred beings. Methinks it is a token of healthy and R. gentle characteristics, when women of accomplish ments and high thoughts love to sew, especially as they are never more at home with their own hearts than when so occupied."

> Mr. Wm. B. Astor's Estate .- Mr. William B. Astor is worth at least $25,000,000, and every cent of the income, over and above expense and charities, is immediately re-invested. Mr. A. is still a hale and hearty looking man and will probably live to be as old as his father. He has an office where he works harder than a dry goods 168,050 00 clerk.
