The Reign of Anarchy.—The reign of anarchy destined to be inaugurated by such irregular and revolutionary proceedings as are now invoked in the name of "the people" of the South, has received its appropriate denomination and classification in the following weighty words of Daniel Webster:

"Is it not obvious enough that men cannot get together and count themselves and say they are so many hundreds and so many thousands, and judge of their own qualifications, and call themselves the people, and set up a government? Why another set of men, forty miles off on the same day, with the same property, with as good qualifications, and in as large numbers, may meet and set up another government, and both may call themselves 'the people.' What is this but anarchy? What liberty is there here but a tumultuary, tempestuous, violent, stormy liberty—a sort of South American liberty, without power except in its spasms—a liberty supported by arms to-day, crushed by arms to-morrow."

That is a graphic and startling picture of the direful results of anarchy, as drawn by a great statesman and patriot. Let the people look at and meditate upon it.

United States troops and munitions of war for Fort Caswell.—State Journal Extra, Jan. 9.

Where are the troops for Fort Caswell? Echo answers where? The above falsehood was started for effect, like a score of others before and since. The object is to inflame the Legislature and hurry the State out of the Union. On Tuesday last another rumor was current on our streets, to the effect that Mr. Crittenden's propositions had been voted down in the Senate on Monday. The papers received Tuesday evening show that no vote of any kind was had on Mr. Crittenden's propositions on Monday.

It seems that in the Senate, on Monday, Mr. Bigler advocated Mr. Crittenden's propositions, and that Mr. Cameron, black Republican, followed Mr. Bigler and said that he "endorsed his remarks, and would go even farther than Mr. Bigler had gone to save the Union." This fact was not reported as telegraphed on Monday. The fire-eaters have no use for such facts. They tend to arrest, instead of hastening disunion and civil war.—Raleigh Standard.

Madison County.—The people of this county, we understand, are almost a unit in opposition to secession.

The same spirit of loyalty to the Constitution and the Union pervades all parties in Yancey county. The masses in every county, we believe, in this part of the State, are for the Union, if it can be preserved without compromising the integrity of the South.—
