To the Sherffs of the several Counties of North Carolina:

I is deemed not only desirable but an imperative du-ty, that early measures be taken to accumulate a ly of winter clothing for the North Carolina troops now in the field. The scarcity of material for sale in e State, and the uncertainty of procuring supplies an abroad, force us to rely on our domestic resources. It is thought that every family can spare one or more Mankets without personal inconvenience, or a pair of Woolen Socks, and it is believed that for such a pur ose a call would te responded to with alacrity.

It has therefore been concluded that an appeal for his purpose he made to the great body of the people. at d with that view I have to request the Sheriffs of the eral Counties to act as agents of the State, to solicit centribution of this kind. To this end they are requested to circulate this no-ice, and employ agents in every district of their county o further the matter. All contributions of this kind may be boxed and forwarded to the nearest Railroad Depot, and due informa-tion thereof sent to the Governor. The Sheriffs are further requested to furnish to the A FEW DOORS NORTH OF THE MARKET HOUSE.

EAGLE HOTEL, ASHEVILLE, N. C., APRIL, 1861.

Dec'r 8, 1860.

DEAR SIR: Permit me to call your attention to the EAGLE HOTEL. I have it re-painted; all the rooms are neatly carpeted, and the Hotel is in better order than any other House in the mountains of North Caro-lina. I am also better supplied with good and atten-tive servants than any Hotel in this part of the State. I would say to the first class visitors that I are pre-pared to entertain you, in a style superior to any house in Asheville. Having had several years experience in the business, I flatter myself that I can make your stay at the EAGLE, both pleasant and agreeable. In connection with this large Hotel, I have a number of new and beautiful HACKS, CABRINGES, BUGGIES, AND SADDLE HORSES. That my guests can get at a minute's notice. I will keep a Carriage in readiness for persons that may be desirous of taking morning or evening rides. I assure the travelling public that they will find everything they may desire at the Eagle to make them comfortable. This Hotel has superior advantages over any other iouse in Asheville, as the Stage Office is kept here for all the Stages that arrive at and depart from this place. I would say to families that intend visiting our beau-tiful town, and export to remain several weeks, it will be well for them to write and engage rooms, as the Eagle is generally pretty much crowded by the middle of July. As regards charges, I will make them sufficiently moderate to suit the present times.

Hoping to have the pleasure of seeing you at the Eagle, I am yours respectfully, J. M. BLAIR, Proprietor. May 1, 1861. 19-tf

A TARTAR.

We copy the following from the Raleigh Spirit of the Age. It cannot be denied that the gentle creature who thus pitches into the "lords of creation," has much of truth and justice on her side. But, we pity the poor fellow who has her for a wife:---

THE LADIES, AND THEIR DELINQUENCIES. The ladies have brought about this war. They must have their finery, comfort and luxuries from the North. Ed. Church Intelligencer. It was with indignant eyes that we perused those lines. Had any one but a Minister dared to have written that article, we would have indulged in the abusive just far enough to relieve our bosoms of some of its choler. We would, at the very least, have called it a cowardly way of exonerating one's self from blame, which they justly shared with others. We would have denounced it as being 'little;' mean!-big stout boy striking pale little boy, when no one was near to take sides or tell. But as circumstances alter cases, we will make a few remarks-propound a few queries:

Wonder if the pen, ink, and the paper on which that attack was mostered, did not come from the north? Wonder if the arm that supported the pen was not enveloped out and out in northern cloth? Wonder if the author of that great effusion was not clad in yankee truck from head to foot? If not, we wonder where it did come from? Wonder if his young idea was not taught how to shoot by a yankee "school marm," or master? (ours was not,) wonder if, with other wise and noble things, he was taught to blame the ladies for every national calamity? The Editors, considerate souls, have been quite busy, lately, harping on the same old string: "Ladies, ladies, Economise;"-as if we could not, would not and did not "Save," without their everlasting, tedious, annoying advice to that effect?

Now listen to us; (we've listened to your song, till our ears have ached,) Gentlemen, gentlemen, economise. Quit smoking, it injures your nerves and cebilitates your purse; quit chewing, it ruins your breath, your teeth and your wife's temper; no lady can abide the abominable practice. Quit wearing cravats! of what earthly use is a piece of cloth doubled about your neck? Show your good sense by despising fashion, and fatten your purses by saving that much money. "What's the use of coat tails?" (we quote from a lady friend.) Have them cut off forthwith; they're nothing but superfluous danglers in the air;-it won't take near so much cloth to make a coat minus the tail. We insist on your doing it, for it's just as easy for you to bob tail, as it is for us to curtail our expenses; and we just as reasonably demand it of you. Boots are another useless expense and waste of leather. There ought not to be any more made. Get you some good Brogans and coarse home-knit socks to keep your feet warm and dry, then wear your pants short enough to DARTIES having seasoned WHITE OAK TIMBER keep the hems from being trayed against the tops of your shoes, and from being spattered with from six to twenty inches in width, and wishing to dis-pose of the same, can find a purchaser by applying in mud-as for appearances, you're too sensible to care for that.

The question is-do you really know what economy is? We opine not. Would you ever think of dipping your old rusty black silk cravat into potato water to make it look bright and new? Do you darn your socks as long as they'll hold the thread and then cut them down and with another old pair make them "a'most" as good as new? Do you trim up your old hat and wear it three seasons longer? Do you trim down the hem of your pants to hide of the train from Wilmington, on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and arrive at Rockingham to supper. Returning will leave Rockingham on Monday. Well may you hang down your head and blush, for it is a crying shame. # 820 REWARD.

RANAWAY, a few days ago, from the subscribers, our Boy HENRY, a dark mulatto, 28 years of age, weighing about 145 lbs. We bought said boy of George Holmes, near Fayetteville. The above reward will be paid for his confinement or delivery to us in Fayetteville. J. & N. A. CAMERON. 48-itf Aug. 14.

Do you leave the home of your boyhood, your indulgent parents and kind familiar friends, to follow the lady you love into a strange land; to be set down to daily cares and responsibilitiesto be stinted, to have your house-keeping complained of, your mistakes and failures frowned at -to find yourself reduced from a fine, dashing CARPETING, BAGGING, ROPE, TWINE, IRON, young man, to a dowdy household drudge, and if in addition to your other vexations you were forced daily to hear, from compressed lips beneath a contracted brow, the depressing refrain-. George, be sewing; you must be sewing,' would you like it? Yes, sir; about as well as women of mind and spirit like it. Wonder if you'd bear it half as well as the most spirited of them do?

Once for all, gentlemen, let us assure you that you waste time and materials, when you get upon the subject of Ladies' affairs. The only effect, so far, has been to excite contempt in the minds of the fair sex, which is inevitable when a man descends from this high position'in which nature and necessity places him, to dabble in matters which do not belong to the "Lords" of creation AURIECHAUSKA.

The Iowa State Journal says that the Northwest is being ruined by the war. Wheat of good merchantable quality will not bring twenty cents a bushel in the markets of that State, and corn has been delivered on the Mississippi at seven cents a bushel, with a continued downward tendency.

The New York Tribune of Saturday last is constrained to confess that the Stock Market

"did not respond as was anticipated to the successful negotiation of the Government yesterday."

The fact is, that the "brilliant" financial negotiation of the Government is pretty well understood in the New York money market, and the opinion seems to be dawning on the financial mind of Wall street that the loan is simply no loan at all, but merely an arrangement to get out paper issues by usurious bribes to the banks. leaving not them, but the people, upon whom the paper currency is foisted, to suffer. - Rich. Examiner.
