EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS

Price for the Semi-Weekly OBSERVER $3 00 if paid in advance; $3 50 if paid during the year of subscription; or $4 after the year has expired.

For the Weekly OBSERVER $2 00 per annum, if paid in advance; $2 50 if paid during the year of subscription; or $3 00 after the year has expired.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS inserted for 60 cents per square of 16 lines for the first, and 30 cents for each succeeding publication. Yearly advertisements by special contracts, at reasonable rates. Advertisers are requested to state the number of insertions desired, or they will be continued till forbid, and charged accordingly.

Advertisements to be inserted inside, charged 50 per cent extra.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

From and after this date, no name of a new subscriber will be entered without payment in advance, nor will the paper be sent to such subscribers for a longer time than is paid for.

Such of our old subscribers as desire to take the paper on this system will please notify us when making remittances. Jan'y 1, 1858.

☞ TO ADVERTISERS.

Persons out of town who desire advertisements inserted in the Observer, and persons in town with whom we have not regular accounts, will please send with the advertisement as much money as they wish to invest in it, according to our advertising terms on the first page. We do not wish to open any more such accounts.—or indeed any accounts. The process of collection is too difficult, and we have to pay cash for every thing we use or sell in these times.

Oct. 2, 1861.

OBITUARY NOTICES.—We have heretofore given notice, repeatedly, that we charge for obituary notices of unreasonable length, and for resolutions of respect; because that kind of reading, we have much occasion to know, is not often more agreeable to readers than to editors of papers. As it generally happens, however, that after charging and paying postage on the account forwarded, we never get paid, we now give notice that we will insert nothing of the sort hereafter unless accompanied by the cash. (Always excepting in the case of deceased volunteers, when we require no pay.) Bear in mind, therefore, that we will insert obituary notices and resolutions, not exceeding 70 words, gratis. For all over 70 words, one cent a word, which must be paid before the notice will be put in type.

A DISH FROM THE LONDON PUNCH.

We have seen a copy of the London Punch for December, which is decidedly rich on American affairs, especially in its cuts and caricatures of Washington notabilities. For the entertainment of our readers we dish up a few specimens of its flavour.

English and American Bulls.—

An English Bull's run calls aloud to beware
Of his horns, ever prompt to assail,
But a Yankee Bull's Run is another affair;
And creates most alarm by his tail.

A Contrast.—English character personified is John Bull. That of America is embodied in Jonathan Bully.

The American Exhibition.—Mr. Punch has great pleasure in announcing, in the most officious manner, that the directors of the International Exhibition have not forgotten the possibility of the absence of voluntary contributions from the Northern States of America. The subject has been taken into grave consideration, and negotiations have been entered into with the Lords of the Admiralty and the Commander-in-Chief, in order to the adoption of means for supplying this deficiency, should it unfortunately occur. Without entering into details (as the whole arrangement may be rendered unnecessary by the arrival of Messrs. Mason and Slidell about the 28th December) Mr. Punch begs to say that, in the event of the Federals declining to send contributions to the exhibition, the space now appropriated to such articles will be supplied through the exertions of gentlemen connected with our military and naval service, and that among the involuntary contributions from the North will be the following articles:

1. The Niagara Falls (American portion,) by the kind permission of the Canadian authorities, and to be returned when done with.
2. The American Eagle.—The interesting animal will be provided with a large supply of its natural food, namely, Bunkum, to be obtained from the offices of the New York newspapers.
3. Several bottles of Hail of Columbia.
4. Curious assortment of Stumps, on which patriotic oratory has been delivered for some years, with the happy consequences now before the world.
5. Several Platforms, forming a further portion of the Stump machinery.
6. The White House—name of "Lincoln" on the brass plate.
7. The coat in which Mr. James Gordon Bennett, editor of the New York Herald, was whipped by Eleazer P. Growky.
8. The coat in which Mr. James Gordon Bennett, editor of the New York Herald, was cowhided by Phineas X. Blazer.
9. The coat in which Mr. James Gordon Bennett, editor of the New York Herald, was thrashed by Ebenezer V. Whopple.
10. A collection of nineteen whips with which Mr. James Gordon Bennett, editor of the New York Herald, was at various times flogged by nineteen slandered citizens.
11. The boots with which Mr. James Gordon Bennett, editor of the New York Herald, was kicked by Epaminondas P. Buffer.
12. Six pairs of highlows, and five pairs of shoes with which eleven other slandered citizens have, at various times, annotated the editorial labors of Mr. James Gordon Bennett, editor of the New York Herald.
13. Remains of the brandy-smash in which Mr. Seward pledged himself to insult England on the earliest opportunity, and the glasses from which his sixteen previous brandy-smashes had been imbibed by that statesman.
14. Flags of the Southern Confederacy, captured by the Armies of the North. (Promised conditionally only, in the event of such flags being discoverable.)
15. The Declaration of Independence.—To be reverently preserved, and returned to the North when a statesman, worthy to fill the place of George Washington, shall demand it.
16. Specimens of Jerusalem Snakes, Ringtailed Roarers, Regular Opossums, and other curiosities of American natural history.
17. A B'hoy.—It will be interesting to compare this animal with his superior, but a member of the same genus, the Gorilla.
18. Specimens of American Editorial Writings. (Disinfecting fluid will be found in the same case and labelled "Common Sense.")
18. Secret Treaty for the Partition of England between the Emperor of Russia, Mr. Seward, and the King of the Cannibal Islands.
20. Mr. Brigham Young, the latest ally of the North, and model of his Seraglio.
21. The original Book of Mormon, as about the only original work which America has produced since Knickerbocker's History.
22. Specimens of American Apes, and Naturalized Irishmen, stuffed.

THE AMERICAN DILEMMA.

Your passion and arrogance, Jonathan, bridle.
And let me know what you call Mason and Slidell.
Are they rebels? What right, if you take that position
Had you, boarding the Trent, to demand extradition?
Had Mitchell and Meagher been Slidell and Mason,
We you, and you we, would you think no disgrace on
Your flag had been cast, its protection from under
If we those two traitors had taken, I wonder?
Belligerents call you the men you laid hand on,
And the charge of high treason against them abandon?
Were we fighting the French, then you'd have no objection
To our seizing French envoys beneath your protection.
Moreover, as prisoners of war if you take them,
And therefore their country's ambassadors make them,
You put yourselves then into this situation;
You are first to acknowledge the Confederation.

Northern Finances.—The Philadelphia Ledger says:

"The truth is, our financial difficulties are daily more and more complicated. Congress is by no means a unit on the scheme reported by the committee of ways and means, and there is even more diversity of opinion as to the tax bills. Thinking men are beginning to stand aghast at the monstrous proportions of the debt that is accumulating, and the financiers are at their wits ends to devise ways and means to meet the interest, some forty or fifty millions of which will soon be due, saying nothing about the legitimate demands that are rolling up in huge volume against the government. With an almost total cessation of emigration, with agriculture and every other branch of industry in the country diminishing, commerce languishing, trade broken up on our frontiers, the loss of the Southern markets, no chance of extending our industry and commerce with Mexico, or any other part of the world in fact, it may well tax the financial ability of the country to manage a debt which will soon exceed $1,000,000,000.
