SPECIAL NOTICE

Such of our old subscribers as desire to take the paper on this system will please notify us when making remittances.
J. H. HALE & SONS, Proprietors.

TO ADVERTISERS

Persons out of town who desire advertisements inserted in the Observer, and persons in town with whom we have no regular connection, please send with the advertisement as much more. Lay wish to invest in it, according to our advertisement, on the first page. We do not wish to open any such accounts, or indeed any accounts. The process of collection is too difficult, and we have to pay cash for every thing we use or sell in these times.

OBITUARY NOTICES.—We have heretofore given notice, repeatedly, that we charge for obituary notices of unreasonable length, and for resolutions of respect; because that kind of reading, we have much occasion to know, is not often more agreeable to readers than to editors of papers. As it generally happens, however, that after charging and paying postage on the account forwarded, we never get paid, we now give notice that we will insert nothing of the sort hereafter unless accompanied by the cash. (Always excepting in the case of deceased volunteers, when we require no pay.) Bear in mind, therefore, that we will insert obituary notices and resolutions, not exceeding 70 words, gratis. For all over 70 words, one cent a word, which must be paid before the notice will be put in type.
