OBITCARY NOTICES. - We have heretofore given notice. repeatedly, that we charge for obituary notices of unreasonable length, and for resolutions of respect; because that kind of reading, we have much occasion to know, is not often more agreeable to readers than to editors of papers. As it generally happens, however, that after charging and paying postage on the account forwarded, we never get paid, we now give notice that we will insert nothing of the sort hereafter unless accompanied by the cash. (Always excepting in the case of deceased volunteers, when we require no pay.) Bear in mind, therefore, that we will insert obituary notices and resolutions, not exceeding 70 words, gratis. For all over 70 words, one cent a word, which must be paid before the notice will be put in type.

A Baby in the Camp .- A correspondent writing from Gen. Price's army, says:

[NO. 1116.]

One of those episodes so familiar in every well regulated household occurred in a tent a few evenings since, under the medical auspices of that prince of medical directors and good fellows. Dr. France. A baby was born to the army-a stout, healthy male baby opened its eyes for the first time upon this tumultuous world, in a tent, surrounded by rough-featured, but kind-hearted men. The Doctor claimed the privilege of naming it, which was readily accorded, and in a bumper of new rye (for the article don't last long enough here to attain any respectable age) it was christened Sterling Price McGee. It is proper to append the usual note, that the mother and infant are doing as well as could be expected. Now, a baby is a matter in itself of no very great importance, and your correspondent being a patencior, is not supposed to warm to them very intensety, but then, notwithstanding their laces have no more expression than a bowl of milk, and the additional fact that they have a knack of swallowing their fists, there is a heap of outcome in the fittle creatures, especially boy-babies, and we have hopes that this army-born boy will prove worthy the illustrious patronymic he bears. Dr. France requests us to say, that now his hand is in, he offers his professional services to all the families in Arkansas, and the adjacent States and erritories. The present revolution requires crops of this kind, even though they are several years maturing.

Lincoln Morality .- A Northern paper informs us that the Lincolnites have arrested the Chaplain of the Maine 3d Regiment for reproving an officer for profane swearing. This incident presents the moral sensibility of Lincolndom in striking contrast with that of Washington, who, after rebuk ing an officer for a similar offence, kindly remarked. "Our country, my dear sir, is engaged in an arduous struggle for the rights of freemen. In numbers and the munitions of war, our enemies have greatly the advantage of us. Our hope in the perilous conflict rests on the arm of Jehovah -let us not provoke His wrath by using the dialect of devils in the camp or the field, but endeavor to secure his protection by that moral dignity which should ever characterize the soldier and the patriot."

"I have a fresh cold," said a gentleman to bie acquaintance. "Why do you have a fresh one: why don't you have it cured?"

Mr. Kennedy, of Maryland, has been superseded in the Federal Senate by Reverdy Johnson.
