FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., APRIL 21, 1862.

[NO. 1118.]

PRINTED MONDAYS AND THURSDAYS.

EDWARD J. HALE & SONS.
EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS

The Semi-Weekly Observer $3 00 if paid in advance; $3 50 if paid during the year of subscription; or $4 after the year has expired. For the Weekly Observer $2 00 per annum, if paid in advance; $2 50 if paid during the year of subscription; or $3 00 after the year has expired.

ADVERTISEMENTS inserted for 60 cents per square of 16 lines for the first, and 30 cents for each succeeding publication. Yearly advertisements by special contracts, at reasonable rates. Advertisers are requested to state the number of insertions desired, or they will be continued till forbid, and charged accordingly. Advertisements to be inserted inside, charged 50 per cent extra.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

From and after this date, no name of a new subscriber will be entered without payment in advance, nor will the paper be sent to such subscribers for a longer time than is paid for. Such of our old subscribers as desire to take the paper on this system will please notify us when making remittances. Jan'y 1, 1858.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

Persons out of town who desire advertisements inserted in the Observer, and persons in town with whom we have no regular accounts, will please send with the advertisement as much more as they wish to invest in it, according to our advertising rates on the first page. We do not wish to open any more such accounts, or indeed any accounts. The process of collection is too difficult, and we have to pay cash for every thing we use or sell in these times. Oct. 2, 1851.

OBITUARY NOTICES.—We have heretofore given notices, repeatedly, that we charge for obituary notices of unreasonable length, and for resolutions of respect; because that kind of reading, we have much occasion to know, is not often more agreeable to readers than the editors of papers. As it generally happens, however, that after charging and paying postage on the account forwarded, we never get paid, we now give notice that we will insert nothing of the sort hereafter unless accompanied by the cash. (Always excepting in the case of deceased volunteers, when we require no pay.) Bear in mind, therefore, that we will insert obituary notices and resolutions, not exceeding 70 words, gratis. For all over 70 words, one cent a word, which must be paid before the notice will be put in type.

Can We Arm our Men.—The Charleston Mercury replies:

Yes, with weapons of some sort. A bullet sent from a shot gun will kill a yankee, a pike will cut his soul if he has any. But we will not be left to shot guns and pikes alone. The last of the Gladiator's cargo reached a Confederate port yesterday. You know her cargo was broken into portions at Nassau and imported into the country by the enterprise of Southern merchants in small vessels. In this way the entire cargo has at last reached us in safety.

The Demand for Negroes.—Notwithstanding the operations of the yankees, the people of the South seem to have great confidence in the "institution," and the demand is as good as ever. A few weeks ago, we advertised two negroes for sale for a gentleman in this county, and those wishing to purchase were directed to inquire at this office. We have received at least fifty calls and numerous letters from persons desirous of purchasing. We suppose the gentleman who advertised the negroes could have sold a hundred by this time if he had them for sale. Charlotte Democrat.

Naughty.—Adjutant General Wayne in a letter recently written to a lady, in answer to an inquiry made by her about copper and brass (for gun metal) concludes by saying: "I mention this that we may not have our wives stripped to no purpose." An official announcement of the fact was uncalculated for.—Commonwealth.

The Commonwealth perpetrates the foregoing. Our neighbor must have forgotten, we presume, when he penned the naughty paragraph, what gave rise to the celebrated "Order of the Garter" in England, and the motto of that order. "Honi soit qui mal y pense"—"Evil be to him that evil thinks." But we wish no evil to our neighbor, and only notice the paragraph to set Gen. Wayne right. It seems, from a copy of a letter, which appears in the Savannah "News" of Tuesday last, that the gallant general wrote: "I mention this that we may not have our roofs stripped to no purpose." The word "roofs" was unfortunately printed "wives." With this explanation, we trust that all the good wives of the country will be satisfied, and pardon that printer's blunder who mistook the covering of a house for those, without whom the house itself would be lonely, dreary and cold.—Atlanta Intelligencer.

Plant large crops of corn, and plant successively, (says the Southern Cultivator,) that you may have the advantage of the "early and the latter rains."
