EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS

Price for the Semi-Weekly OBSERVER $3 00 if paid in advance; $3 50 if paid during the year of subscription; or $4 after the year has expired.

For the Weekly OBSERVER $2 00 per annum, if paid in advance; $2 50 if paid during the year of subscription; or $3 00 after the year has expired.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS inserted for 60 cents per square of 16 lines for the first, and 30 cents for each succeeding publication. Yearly advertisements by special contracts, at reasonable rates. Advertisers are requested to state the number of insertions desired, or they will be continued till forbid, and charged accordingly.

Advertisements to be inserted inside, charged 50 per cent extra.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

From and after this date, no name of a new subscriber will be entered without payment in advance, nor will the paper be sent to such subscribers for a longer time than is paid for.

Such of our old subscribers as desire to take the paper on this system will please notify us when making remittances. Jan'y 1, 1858.

☞TO ADVERTISERS.

Persons out of town who desire advertisements inserted in the Observer, and persons in town with whom we have not regular accounts will please send with the advertisement as much more money they wish to invest in it, according to our advertising terms on the first page. We do not wish to open any more such accounts,—or indeed any accounts. The process of collection is too difficult, and we have to pay cash for every thing we use or sell in these times.

Oct. 2, 1861.

OBITUARY NOTICES.—We have heretofore given notice, repeatedly, that we charge for obituary notices of unreasonable length, and for resolutions of respect, because that kind of reading, we have much occasion to know, is not often more agreeable to readers than to editors of papers. As it generally happens, however, that after charging and paying postage on the account forwarded, we never get paid, we now give notice that we will insert nothing of the sort hereafter unless accompanied by the cash. (Always excepting in the case of deceased volunteers, when we require no pay.) Bear in mind, therefore, that we will insert obituary notices and resolutions, not exceeding 70 words, gratis. For all over 70 words, one cent a word, which must be paid before the notice will be put in type.

The Northern Government as portrayed by its Tory Friends.—The people of the Confederate States have but to take the testimony of the Southern men who have unnaturally remained in association with the Washington government, to form an idea of that oppression which the yoke of Northern dominion would impose. It will be remembered that Lincoln lately recommended, and Congress adopted, a resolution looking to emancipation in the border States. The Louisville Journal, edited by the notorious Prentice, thus exclaimed against the measure, but exclaimed in vain:

"When we consider that it utterly repudiates the solemn and oft-repeated pledges of every branch of the Government as well as the organic principle of the Government itself; when we consider that it does this for the sake of abolishing the slave institutions, and destroying the municipal freedom of the States which have rebelled under the apprehension of this very result, and which the nation is seeking to win back to their allegiance; when we consider, that if carried out, its inevitable effect would be the permanent destruction of the Government; when, in short, we consider that it combines in itself conspicuously, all the arbitrariness, and all the wickedness, and all the woes of secession and abolitionism, we confess that we feel that it is too monstrous and too flagrant in its monstrousness, to require serious discussion. The project, in our judgment, is the most atrocious one ever proposed in the legislature of a free nation; but its very atrocity makes argument unnecessary. It cannot be necessary to argue against a proposition which, under the circumstances, every enlightened patriot must regard as branding its authors as public enemies and as entitling them to the dungeon or gallows."

The Largest Hewn Stones in the World.—Extracts from Lamartine's "Pilgrimage to the Holy Land" in 1832 and 1833.

It is certain that some of the stones at Balbec, which are sixty-two feet long, twenty broad, and fifteen thick, are the most prodigious masses which have ever been moved by human power. The largest stones in the pyramids of Egypt do not exceed eighteen feet.

At length we reached the first blocks of marble, which had been cast by earthquakes to the distance of more than a mile from the monuments.

One of these Balbec blocks measured sixty-two feet in length, twenty-four in breadth, and sixteen in thickness.

It would require the united strength of sixty thousand men of our time to raise this single stone. But the quarries of Balbec contain others of still greater dimensions, standing twenty-five to thirty feet above the ground.
