FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

[VOL. XI.] FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., MAY 15, 1862. [NO. 1125.]

PRINTED MONDAYS AND THURSDAYS.

EDWARD J. HALE & SONS,
EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS

Price for the Semi-Weekly Observer $3 00 if paid in advance; $3 50 if paid during the year of subscription; or $4 after the year has expired.

For the Weekly Observer $2 00 per annum, if paid in advance; $2 50 if paid during the year of subscription; or $3 00 after the year has expired.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS inserted for 60 cents per square of 16 lines for the first, and 30 cents for each succeeding publication. Yearly advertisements by special contracts, at reasonable rates. Advertisers are requested to state the number of insertions desired, or they will be continued till forbid, and charged accordingly.

Advertisements to be inserted inside, charged 50 per cent extra.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

From and after this date, no name of a new subscriber will be entered without payment in advance, nor will the paper be sent to such subscribers for a longer time than is paid for.

Such of our old subscribers as desire to take the paper on this system will please notify us when making remittances. Jan'y 1, 1858.

☞ TO ADVERTISERS.

Persons out of town who desire advertisements inserted in the Observer, and persons in town with whom we have not regular accounts will please send with the advertisement as much money as they wish to invest in it, according to our advertising terms on the first page. We do not wish to open any more such accounts,—or indeed any accounts. The process of collection is too difficult, and we have to pay cash for every thing we use or sell in these times.

Oct. 2, 1861.

Obituary Notices.—We have heretofore given notice, repeatedly, that we charge for obituary notices of unreasonable length, and for resolutions of respect; because that kind of reading, we have much occasion to know, is not often more agreeable to readers than to editors of papers. As it generally happens, however, that after charging and paying postage on the account forwarded, we never get paid, we now give notice that we will insert nothing of the sort hereafter unless accompanied by the cash. (Always excepting in the case of deceased volunteers, when we require no pay.) Bear in mind, therefore, that we will insert obituary notices and resolutions, not exceeding 70 words, gratis. For all over 70 words, one cent a word, which must be paid before the notice will be put in type.

Yankee Morals.—We have been furnished, says the Mobile Register, with the following extract of a letter from a young man in the cavalry service at Corinth, to his father in this city. It will enable our reader to form a faint idea of the moral degradation of our would-be conquerors:

"Having some leisure at times, I amuse myself reading the letters to and from our Yankee foes, which were picked up on the battle field of Shiloh and from the various postoffices in their camps. I was astonished and disgusted at their indecency. Not only some were disgusting, but the majority were so. It is the only opportunity we have ever had of obtaining a complete insight into the morals of the Northern people. Southerners will never know their depravity as exhibited in these letters, because they are expressed in language so filthy as to forbid their publication. There were many letters found written by Yankee soldiers to their own families, so obscene that our roughest soldiers refused to read them aloud to their comrades; and just of such characters, too, were their letters from home.

Going into Slavery.—On Friday last in the Circuit Court of Bedford, Daniel ——, a free negro, emancipated by the will of the late Timothy Rogers, for whose removal from the Commonwealth ample provision was made, came before the Court, Judge Wingfield presiding, and selected Ro. C. Mitchell, Esq., as his master. He was asked if he did this knowing that it made him a slave for life—if he was aware that hereafter he could be sold as a slave—if he acted with a knowledge that he now had the privilege of choosing slavery or remaining free as he was. All of these and many other questions he answered with an intelligence which seemed to say, "I know my real friends—save me from those who pretend to be so." Hundreds of instances of this sort occur throughout the State. And if Lincoln and his co-workers, the Sumners and Trumbulls, could, on Friday night last, have seen Daniel —— as he went to his decent and well appointed cabin, and have there witnessed the happy meeting between himself and his fellow servants, even they would have unconsciously clasped both hands to the sides of their heads to ascertain if their ears had not become like those of Midas.
