Advertisers are requested to state the number of insertions desired, or they will be continued till forbid, and charged accordingly. Advertisements to be inserted inside, charged 50 per cent extra.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

From and after this date, no name of a new subscriber will be entered without payment in advance, nor will the paper be sent to such subscribers for a longer time than is paid for.

Such of our old subscribers as desire to take the paper on this system will please notify us when making remittances. July 1, 1858.

TO ADVERTISERS.

Persons out of town who desire advertisements inserted in the Observer, and persons in town with whom we have no regular accounts, will please send with the advertisement as much money as they wish to invest in it, according to our advertisement, on the first page. We do not wish to open any more such accounts, or indeed any accounts. The process of collection is too difficult, and we have to pay cash for every thing we use or sell in these times.

Oct. 2, 1851.

OBITUARY NOTICES.—We have heretofore given notice, repeatedly, that we charge for obituary notices of unreasonable length, and for resolutions of respect; because that kind of reading, we have much occasion to know, is not often more agreeable to readers than to editors of papers. As it generally happens, however, that after charging and paying postage on the account forwarded, we never get paid, we now give notice that we will insert nothing of the sort, heretofore unless accompanied by the cash. (Always excepting in the case of deceased relatives, when we require no pay.) Bear in mind, therefore, that we will insert obituary notices and resolutions, not exceeding 70 words, gratis. For all over 70 words, one cent a word, which must be paid before the notice will be put in type.

A LETTER FROM YANKEE LAND.—Captain

McLaughlin, of the Cumberland Company in the 38th Regiment, sends us a letter found on the field of the late Battle near Richmond. It is written from Boston by an Irishman, or one of Irish descent, to his brother, and contains more common sense on the subject of our present troubles than we had supposed could be found in "the hub of the Universe," as Bostonians call their town. The superiority of Southern Soldiers, he says, was shown at Bull Run; and he very plainly says that in advancing towards Richmond McClellan has but "gone further to fare worse."

We extract:—

"If they are inferior in point of numbers to the Federal troops they have one great advantage, and that is they are fighting on their own soil, defending their own firesides. And where is the people animated with such feelings of life, liberty, and all that is dear to man, that has ever been subjugated, except Poland, which was overrun by three of the most powerful nations on the globe? Already they have experienced in Maryland, Kentucky and Missouri, a little of the vengeance that awaits them should they suffer themselves to be subdued."

He, perhaps unintentionally, gives a clever name to the people who brought on this war:—

"John, you know as well as I do, upon what platform and what principles President Lincoln was elected; and it was his election that brought on this unlucky war. I have no doubt but they would have eventually separated, but it would have been deferred for years had there been more love for the Union and the Constitution, and less talk about slavery,—that hated and baneful subject, made so not by slaveholders, but by those bigoted enthusiasts, such as Sumner, Wilson & Co., who wrought the people of the North (who swallowed every word they said,) to such a high state of excitement as ended in his election and final dissolution of the Union."

Rightful Destruction by Earthquakes.—In the Dutch territories on the west coast of Sumatra, and in the islands lying off it, earthquakes of excessive strength took place in February and March, accompanied by violent commotions in the sea, the waters retiring to a great distance, and then rushing back with frightful force, sweeping everything before them. Great destruction was everywhere caused, and many lives lost. In the islands, however, the effect of these natural phenomena were most marked. On the island of Nias a military post was completely swept away by the sea, and several of the garrisons destroyed. A guboot lying in the harbour was torn from her anchors and thrown high upon the shore. On the island of Siao almost the whole of the houses were destroyed, and out of a population of about eleven hundred, nearly eight hundred perished. Unusually heavy rains also prevailed in other parts of the dependencies. In Banda the nutmeg crops suffered much injury from this cause. A fearful eruption of the volcano on the island of Makian, about thirty-five English miles from Ternate, had caused the loss of many hundreds of lives and destroyed the whole vegetation.

Plague in Colorado Territory.—One of the terrible plagues of Egypt now threatens Colorado. The grasshoppers are making their appearance in innumerable numbers. Last year they were a source of great annoyance to our farmers, but this season there are grounds for serious apprehension. Already they have commenced their devastating attacks on vegetation. Although now not larger than grains of wheat, they have generated in such vast numbers that they sweep from gardens and fields the tender vegetation like scouring flame. Colorado Republican.

A Rich Mormon Lady.—One of the women belonging to the last company of Mormon Saints, who passed through here yesterday, bound for Salt Lake, had ninety-seven thousand solid reasons why she ought not to have gone thither. In other words, she had, in a little iron-bound chest, ninety-seven thousand dollars in gold. Which she should not have expected to find in a Saint, but which showed that she had learned the necessity of being as wise as a serpent and harmless as a dove, she entrusted the money to the Express Company, who transferred it for her. Only think of it—ninety-seven thousand dollars and a woman going to some Mormon hamlet! St. Joseph (Mo.) Journal.

The Way they do It.—Among the Northern papers we have received is the Washington Star. The following is the way the defeat is smoothed up:— Last night the town was considerably excited by a mischievous rumor to the effect that there had been heavy fighting on the Peninsula, and that McClellan had met with a bad reverse. Such rumors have usually been put in circulation by Seesh, but the present one was traced to an employee at the Capitol, who stated it on authority of members of Congress. There was not a word of truth in the story, and it seems to have been set afloat in a spirit of revenge by some of the junketing war-plots who were so deservedly set to the right about by Gen. McClellan, on their endeavor to penetrate to his front, on their late visit to the Peninsula.

New Religious Movements.—Efforts are making in England to abolish sermons, or to make it understood that the congregation assemble on Sunday for prayer and singing only, and that, this part of the service completed, there shall be a pause, during which those who do not wish to hear the sermon may retire.

In prospect of the superabundant crop in Southwestern Georgia, the question is already asked—what is to be done with the corn? A correspondent of the Savannah News aptly replies—put it into bags, cattle and sheep.

A French paper reports that the Emperor of China recently washed himself, thereby occasioning the greatest consternation among all classes of his subjects. At first it was thought that so daring an innovation would be visited with serious consequences; but as soon as it was ascertained that the experiment was only performed as an act of humiliation and personal mortification before the Chinese deity, with the hope of averting the political calamities of the nation, public tranquility was restored.
