FAYETTEVILLE OBSERVER.

SEMI-WEEKLY.

[VOL. XII.] FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., JULY 28, 1862. [NO. 1146.]

PRINTED MONDAYS AND THURSDAYS.

EDWARD J. HALE & SONS,
EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

Price for the Semi-Weekly Observer $3 00 if paid in advance; $2 50 if paid during the year of subscription; or $4 after the year has expired.

For the Weekly Observer $2 00 per annum, if paid in advance; $2 50 if paid during the year of subscription; or $3 00 after the year has expired.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS inserted for 60 cents per square of 16 lines for the first, and 30 cents for each succeeding publication. Yearly advertisements by special contracts, at reasonable rates. Advertisers are requested to state the number of insertions desired, or they will be continued till forbid, and charged accordingly.

Advertisements to be inserted inside, charged 50 per cent extra.

SPECIAL NOTICE

From and after this date, no name of a new subscriber will be entered without payment in advance, nor will the paper be sent to such subscribers for a longer time than is paid for.

Such of our old subscribers as desire to take the paper on this system will please notify us when making remittances. Jan'y 1, 1858

☞ TO ADVERTISERS.

Persons out of town who desire advertisements inserted in the Observer, and persons in town with whom we have not regular accounts will please send with the advertisement as much money as they wish to invest in it, according to our advertising rates on the first page. We do not wish to open any more such accounts,—or indeed any accounts. The process of collection is too difficult, and we have to pay cash for every thing we use or sell in these times.

Oct. 2, 1861.

OBITUARY NOTICES.—We have heretofore given notice, repeatedly, that we charge for obituary notices of unreasonable length, and for resolutions of respect; because that kind of reading, we have much occasion to know, is not often more agreeable to readers than to editors of papers. As it generally happens, however, that after charging and paying postage on the account forwarded, we never get paid, we now give notice that we will insert nothing of the sort hereafter unless accompanied by the cash. (Always excepting in the case of deceased volunteers, when we require no pay.) Bear in mind, therefore, that we will insert obituary notices and resolutions, not exceeding 70 words, gratis. For all over 70 words, one cent a word, which must be paid before the notice will be put in type.

☞ To Capt. CONDARY GODWIN, 31st Regiment, N. C. T.: Knowing that the state of your health, broken down by exposure in the Camp, compels you to leave the service of your country, at least temporarily, we invite you to become a candidate for the office of Sheriff in the County of Robeson, pledging to you, in case you should consent to run, our entire support. We have nothing to say in regard to the other candidates who are now in the field, either of whom we have no right to doubt, would discharge the duties of the office of Sheriff faithfully. But we do think that those who have perilled their lives and broken down their constitutions in serving their country, have higher claims upon the people than those who have remained at home. We have not forgotten that, like the gallant Vance, scorning to besiege the Executive chambers at Raleigh for office, you entered the service as a Private. And while the esteem and confidence of your fellow-soldiers raised you to the command of your Company, the same ostracism which has been practiced against original Union men everywhere in the State has been used against you, even to the extent of destroying the efficiency of your men by withholding from your command arms and equipments, while Regiments and Companies organized subsequent to yours were at once supplied with everything necessary to make them efficient in the field. You have been nearly a whole year in the service of your Country, and strange to say, your Company is not yet armed. Whether this is owing to the fact that up to the publication of Lincoln's proclamation you were known as a staunch Union man, we know not, but we do know that your conduct as a citizen and a soldier since this war commenced, has secured our confidence. The wives and children of our brave volunteers will not soon forget your exertions in their behalf, with your time and means, to furnish them with food, while their husbands and fathers were absent in the field.

$20 REWARD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, on the evening of the 18th inst., a mulatto woman by the name of LUCY. Said woman is about 23 years old, slender frame, but now quite corpulent, of ordinary height, and will probably weigh 120 to 140 lbs.; short hair, with rather a bony face, and is quite intelligent.

Said woman is probably harbored by her mother, owned by J. A. Worth, and Bill Brunton, a free negro, with whom she has been very intimate. I will pay the above reward of $20 if she is delivered to me or lodged in the Jail of this County, or I will pay $50 if she is taken in any other county and confined in the Jail of the same. JNO. D. WILLIAMS.

MAKE HAY WHILE THE SUN SHINES.

We have heard a fanciful man declare that the Confederate arms never achieved a complete triumph, except on a clear day. We knew an intelligent gentleman who predicted, last summer, that the Yankees would turn the tables on us as soon as the weather became cold. His prediction was based upon actual observations of the variable capacity for labor of the Irish and Dutch, of which the Yankee armies are mainly composed, during hot and cold weather. Beginning with the battle of Bethel, which occurred on the 10th of June—a beautiful day—our arms met with a succession of triumphs throughout the summer and until the battle of Dranesville, which happened in cold weather. After Dranesville, there was nothing but a succession of reverses through the winter months, until Shiloh, which was fought on a warm, clear Sunday. The next day—a miserable rainy Monday—we were compelled to abandon most of our captures of the day before. Since Shiloh and the setting in of warm weather, our arms have been again and again victorious, almost without a reverse of any consequence.

Without drawing any general principle from these facts, it may be well for us to inquire whether the natives of the South are not better able to bear its heats than foreigners accustomed to a less enervating climate. Any railroad contractor will tell you that the Dutch and Irish work harder and to more purpose in winter than in summer. On the other hand, in the summer, when the Irish are making all manner of excuses to escape labor, and are falling sick and dying, the Southern negro is in his element, working day after day in the burning sunshine, and enjoying the heartiest health. If we look to Egypt and Hindostan, we find the coolies and porters of those countries trotting cheerfully, the live long day, under enormous burthens, unmindful of the torrid heat which withers the energies of Europeans. It is but reasonable to suppose that people accustomed to heat should bear it better than those who are not accustomed—that the Southerner should fight better under his native sun than the Yankee.

We have more to hope for from the heat than the malaria of our climate. The Irishman, reared in bogs—the Dutchman, cradled in a canal and nurtured on a dyke—and the Yankee, grisly and cartilaginous beast that he is, accustomed to the east winds and eternal damps of New England—are not so much affected by the miasm of our swamps as many suppose. But under the fervent vertical rays of a Southern sun, the brawn of the Irishman, the lymph of the Dutchman, and the cartilage of the Yankee begin to melt, and all three hasten to throw off their garments of flesh, as Æsop's traveller did his cloak, when the sun and wind were trying their respective powers upon him.

The conclusion we draw from these observations, is the same drawn by the press of the country generally, on other grounds, viz: to push the war with vigor, to make hay while the sun shines. July, at least half of it, August, September and October—months of sunshine and warmth—remain to us. During these months, it is fair to presume that the Southern soldier can fight his best—far better than when the blasts of Autumn and Winter have chilled his blood and numbed his muscles. Shall these months pass idly by? We believe not. Our authorities will make glad the hearts of the people, and make sure our independence, by ordering every General in the field to press with vigor on, to strike while the iron is hot, to make hay while the sun shines, and cease not till fire and sword are carried beyond the Ohio and Potomac.

Richmond Whig.

Ex-Governor Seymour, of Connecticut, Opposed to a War of Subjugation.—Ex Governor Seymour, of Connecticut, has written a remarkable letter to the Hartford Times, condemning the use of his name as a Vice-President of a war meeting in that city. He goes on to say that—"If it is necessary to be more explicit I beg leave to state that, knowing what the meeting would be beforehand, I could not have been induced to attend it, or take a part in its doings—and that having glanced at the speeches and the proceedings generally of that meeting, I particularly desire to clear myself from any participation, directly or indirectly, in what took place there. The meeting, if I have not misunderstood its general bearing, is one which ignores peaceful remedies of any sort as a means of restoring the Union, and calls loudly for men and means to aid in the subjugation of the South. I follow, gentlemen, in no such crusade, neither will I contribute, in any way, to the accomplishment of such a bloody purpose. The monstrous fallacy of the present day, that the Union can be re-established by destroying any part of the South, is one which which will burst with the shells that are thrown into its defenceless cities, and leave the condition of this country, after its treasures are exhausted, and its brave men on both sides consigned to hospitals and graves, a spectacle for reproach or commiseration of the civilized world."

The Frog Trade.—The Auburn (N. Y.) Advertiser says the catching of frogs at Montezuma has become quite a considerable trade. It adds: "For three or four seasons past two men have made the impaling of frogs their business. Every other day they ship from Auburn a barrel of frogs for the New York or Buffalo market. They make very handsome wages. The method of securing these bisso profundos of the marshes is very similar to the spearing of fish. The men paddle off through the marshes in the night with a dark lantern. They approach the haunt of the frog very quietly, and when near enough throw their dart with a certainty acquired by practice, always hitting them back of the head, killing them instantly. The hind quarters are then carefully skinned and cut off, placed in barrels and sent to their destination. They generally secure two or three hundred in a night, and are paid $6, a hundred.

CAPT. WILKES'S REPORT ON THE DEEP RIVER MINERAL REGION.

THE undersigned have caused to be published from the Congressional plates, an edition of the Report of Capt. Wilkes, U. S. Navy, and his Associates on the Board appointed by the Secretary of the Navy to examine the Deep River Region of North Carolina. This is the most important and scientific statement of the great wealth of that section of the State, and the Maps the most perfect and valuable, of any yet published. The Maps are worth the price of the work, which is 50 cents, neatly bound in cloth. Copies sent by mail, free of postage, on the receipt of 50 cents. A liberal discount to wholesale buyers. Orders solicited.
