A PROCLAMATION

By Z. B. VANCE, Governor of North Carolina. THE undersigned, a private in the Army of the Confederate States, respectfully announces himself a WHEREAS, information has reached me that certain persons, annindful of the calls of patriotism, and persons, namindful of the calls of patriotism, and andidate for Chief Clerk of the House of Commons of he next Legislature. Having passed two Winters in influence to prevent obedience to the law of Congress known as the Conscript Law, and that others are at tempting to organize an open resistance to its execution and whereas, such conduct being not only in direct vio gree, to the cause of our country, it becomes my sacred duty to prevent and repress the same by all the means

Now, therefore, I, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor of North Carolina, do issue this my proclamation, warn ing all such persons to desist from such unpatriotic and criminal conduct; earnestly hoping that all who are disinclined to defend their homes themselves, either by reason of age, infirmity or cowardice, will cease to dissuade those who are willing; and notifying positively all persons contemplating an armed resistance to the law if there really be any such misguided and evil-disposed persons in our midst, that they will commit the crime of treason, according to the Constitution, and must not expect to escape its penalties. Whilst thousands upon thousands of our best and bravest have cheerfully obey ed the law, and by their patriotic valor have driven the enemy back to the Potomac, it would be an intolerable outrage upon them to permit others to evade the law, or worse still, to resist it by open violence. Let no one therefore, be deceived, the law will be enforced; and appeal to all loyal and patriotic citizens to sustain those who are charged with its execution. Given under my hand, and attested by the Great Seal of the State. Done at the City of Raleigh, the 18th day of September 1862.
