UNPARALLELED ENORMITY. We have before us copies of two depositions, which detail the circumstances of one of the most fiendish outrages which our truly diabolical foe has as yet perpetrated. These depositions have been forwarded to the War Department through our generals in North Carolina, where the crime Craven. Mr. Woods is certified to by Gen. Evans, as being "a respectable citizen and loyal to our cause, which, with his being a poor man, seem to be the only causes of the fiendish outrages by the hellish savages.' that he is class-leader in the Methodist Church. It is due to the civilized world and to outraged humanity, that the facts stated in these deposi sitions should be known, and yet they are too infamously obscene to be fully described in a newspaper. The house of these quiet and aged citizens was visited on the night of the 2d of October, by two Yankee troopers, armed with pistols and sabres. One of them (the younger,) who was addressed by the other as "Captain" and some-times as John, rode into the piazza, burst open sometimes as Charlie, sometimes as George, and to the Estates of W. S. Jessup, J. Johnson, and others.

Mr. Woods had retired to bed. We copy from the front door, and then rode into the house.

The other, who was addressed by the "captain"

his deposition: "I came down stairs in a hurry, in my night clothes, and the one on the horse said to me, "you were you day before yesterday;" and when I told him I was home, he said, "you lie, for you shot at me." Upon this pretence, they cut out the cord from a bed in the room, said they would hang him, but finally tied him, took him out of threat of instant death if he made any outcry or attempted to get loose. They returned to the house and locked the door after them, and the old man had the inexpressible agony of listening for the rest of the night to the screams and dole-ful lamentations of his wife and daughter. The statement made by Mrs. Woods in her deposition of what passed inside is truly heart-rending. The unparalleled villains made the poor find, after three trisls, eight grains of Protoxide in twenty-five of the Mass. In drying, I should remark that a small portion of the Oxide was reduced. I am satisfied, however, that your Blue Pill Mass contains one-third Protoxide of Mercury, and must have been an out-third Protoxide of Mercury, and must have been as the most devilish even among the most devilish even among the most deviles of the mos abandoned of villains. Commencing by cursing Jesus Christ, with pistol in hand and with threat Orders for any quantity can be filled, and it can be of instant death, the deponent was required by one of the beasts to divest herself of every particle of clothing. But this was almost Christian treatment compared with other acts which may not be related. While such were her own sufferings, the shrieks of her daughter in another room told that hers was a similar fate. About sunrise the next morning the human devils departed, leaving a horrible disease with those whom they had otherwise so terribly outraged!

It is with pain that such a sketch as the above friends, and the public generally, in the sale of Dry is admitted into the columns of the "Enquirer;" Goods, Groceries, Manufactured Tobacco, Real and but it is due to our own people and to the world that the villainies of our enemies should be known. The depositions have been laid before us with AN, BALDWIN & CO., the suggestion endorsed thereon by the Adjutant 58 Sycamore Street. Petersburg, Va. General, "that so much of this account as is not P. S. -Particular attention paid to the sale of Ne- too foul for publication should be given to the public, through the press, in order that the rightteous indignation of our people, our Generals and our armies, may, under the Providence of God, visit a just retribution upon an enemy so fiendlike." Concurring in the propriety of the suggestion, we have acted accordingly. We are happy to say that Gen. Gustavus W Smith has directed every effort to be made to ascertain the names of the parties, and to "demand their delivery for trial and punishment." We hope copies of the depositions have been forwarded to the authorities of the enemy. Surely there are some, even among them, who would be horrified by such conduct. The vengeance of Heaven must light upon them and their cause!
