During the exhibition, by some dexterous double-quick movement, only known among militia offi-cers, the Captain, much to his surprise and chagrin, found the Company in a "fix" best described, I reckon, as a "solid circle." In stentorophonic tones he called to them to "halt!" The General The Assessors for Cumberland County will attend at | became interested, and drew near, in order to see tain, in his confusion, turned his head to one side, like a duck when she sees the shadow of a hawk flit past, and seemed to be in the deepest thought. At last an idea seemed to strike him; a ray of intelligence mantled his face, and straightening up, he turned to the Company, and cried out, "Com pany, disentangle, to the front, MARCH!"

The Company was "straightened," and the General gave it as his opinion that it was the best command he had ever heard given .- Richmond

Surgeon Rat .- Our neighbor of the Petersburg "Express," is responsible for the following:

We have heard and read a great many stories about the rat, but in all our experience, we never before had one brought before us in the character of a Surgeon. We learn that at one of our large hospitals a night or two since, an operation was successfully performed upon an invalid soldier by a common rat, which the Surgeon in charge had frontal bone of the skull-a piece of which projected outwards to some length, and the healing of the fleshy parts depended upon its removal. The bone was so firmly fixed, however, as, in the opinion of the Surgeon, would cause unnecessary pain in its forcible removal, and such remedies WOTICE is hereby given, that there is a regular Drill were applied as would assist nature in eventually every Saturday evening, at Military Green, at 4 ejecting it. A soothing poultice was placed upon cielozh, P. M., of my Company, and all the members are required to be there to drill, otherwise the law will be through the application for the insertion of the projecting bone. The patient was soon asleep in his bed; but during the night was aroused by the sting of pain, and awoke to discover a rat making off with the piece of bone in his mouth. He
