

THE CONFEDERATE PRISONERS AT ELMIRA.

A correspondent of the New York Evening Post, who visited the Camp of Confederate prisoners at Elmira, gives some interesting details...

The camp, which is situated on a plain, is admirably adapted, not only for the confinement of prisoners...

The success of this skillful performance, though seemingly complete, was not of long duration...

Among the amusements of the rebels is music. They have obtained some Gramophones and other instruments...

The prisoners sing the hymns read by the clergymen during the Sabbath services. For instance, a hymn is read and sung to the tune of 'Old Hundred'...

Many separate circles for prayer are formed at the same time. The persons attending number thousands from one hundred to five hundred or a thousand.

The demand of the prisoners for religious and other books is constant. The officers say there are more calls for books and prayer books than for all other kinds of reading material.

The stories about the alleged revolt of the rebels in Elmira are nearly all wide of the truth. Colonel Eastman, the commandant of the post, learned that there was a conspiracy among the rebels to escape...

From Eastern North Carolina.—Extract of a letter from Camden county, N. C., dated Aug. 24th, 1864.

GAULONETS IN N. C. TROOPS.

FOR THE OBSERVER. 40th N. C. Regt.—The 15th July 21st August...

FOR THE OBSERVER. 40th N. C. Regt.—The 15th July 21st August...

FOR THE OBSERVER. 40th N. C. Regt.—The 15th July 21st August...

FOR THE OBSERVER. 40th N. C. Regt.—The 15th July 21st August...

FOR THE OBSERVER. 40th N. C. Regt.—The 15th July 21st August...

FOR THE OBSERVER. 40th N. C. Regt.—The 15th July 21st August...

FOR THE OBSERVER. 40th N. C. Regt.—The 15th July 21st August...

FOR THE OBSERVER. 40th N. C. Regt.—The 15th July 21st August...

FOR THE OBSERVER. 40th N. C. Regt.—The 15th July 21st August...

THE CAVALRY AT REAMS' STATION.

A correspondent furnishes the Richmond Enquirer with the following account of the battle near Reams' Station:

CAVALRY OPERATIONS NEAR REAMS' STATION, VA. August 26th, 1864.

A brief statement of the facts of the battle near Reams' Station, Va., on August 26th, 1864.

The position was a most advantageous one, occupying a gently elevated ground, approximately 100 feet above the level of the river...

On the 25th of August, the Cavalry of the Army of the Potomac, under the command of Gen. B. H. Loring, moved on to Reams' Station, Va., to meet the Cavalry of the Army of the Confederacy, under the command of Gen. J. E. B. Stuart.

Gen. A. P. Hill's Report.—The following is Gen. Hill's official report of the last battle at Reams' Station.

Gen. A. P. Hill's Report.—The following is Gen. Hill's official report of the last battle at Reams' Station.

Retaliation.—A piece of retaliation was visited upon the Yankees on our lines day before yesterday. It seems that on a considerable portion of our lines in front of Petersburg there had existed a tacit truce for several days...

Retaliation.—A piece of retaliation was visited upon the Yankees on our lines day before yesterday. It seems that on a considerable portion of our lines in front of Petersburg there had existed a tacit truce for several days...

HUNTER'S ATROCITIES.

August 27, 1864. To the Editor of the Examiner:

A brief note from a correspondent, published a short time since in your paper, mentioned the destruction by Hunter of several private residences in Jefferson county.

Gen. Hunter's atrocities. A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer, published a short time since in your paper, mentioned the destruction by Hunter of several private residences in Jefferson county.

Gen. Hunter's atrocities. A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer, published a short time since in your paper, mentioned the destruction by Hunter of several private residences in Jefferson county.

Gen. Hunter's atrocities. A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer, published a short time since in your paper, mentioned the destruction by Hunter of several private residences in Jefferson county.

Gen. Hunter's atrocities. A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer, published a short time since in your paper, mentioned the destruction by Hunter of several private residences in Jefferson county.

Gen. Hunter's atrocities. A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer, published a short time since in your paper, mentioned the destruction by Hunter of several private residences in Jefferson county.

Gen. Hunter's atrocities. A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer, published a short time since in your paper, mentioned the destruction by Hunter of several private residences in Jefferson county.

Gen. Hunter's atrocities. A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer, published a short time since in your paper, mentioned the destruction by Hunter of several private residences in Jefferson county.

HOW TO INVEST.

Property is dearer and money cheaper in any country than they ever were before in any country, at any period.

The idea of repudiation is a bugaboo in this very commercial age. It is a notion, however, which is not only established in reputation, but which is a public debt without placing itself under the ban of national infamy.

The idea of repudiation is a bugaboo in this very commercial age. It is a notion, however, which is not only established in reputation, but which is a public debt without placing itself under the ban of national infamy.

The idea of repudiation is a bugaboo in this very commercial age. It is a notion, however, which is not only established in reputation, but which is a public debt without placing itself under the ban of national infamy.

The idea of repudiation is a bugaboo in this very commercial age. It is a notion, however, which is not only established in reputation, but which is a public debt without placing itself under the ban of national infamy.

The idea of repudiation is a bugaboo in this very commercial age. It is a notion, however, which is not only established in reputation, but which is a public debt without placing itself under the ban of national infamy.

The idea of repudiation is a bugaboo in this very commercial age. It is a notion, however, which is not only established in reputation, but which is a public debt without placing itself under the ban of national infamy.

The idea of repudiation is a bugaboo in this very commercial age. It is a notion, however, which is not only established in reputation, but which is a public debt without placing itself under the ban of national infamy.

The idea of repudiation is a bugaboo in this very commercial age. It is a notion, however, which is not only established in reputation, but which is a public debt without placing itself under the ban of national infamy.

THE ORPHAN FUND.

We learn from Dr. Dooms, who has just returned from Moore and Montgomery Counties, that he was very successful in those Counties in his efforts for the Orphan Fund.

The Orphan Fund.—We learn from Dr. Dooms, who has just returned from Moore and Montgomery Counties, that he was very successful in those Counties in his efforts for the Orphan Fund.

The Orphan Fund.—We learn from Dr. Dooms, who has just returned from Moore and Montgomery Counties, that he was very successful in those Counties in his efforts for the Orphan Fund.

The Orphan Fund.—We learn from Dr. Dooms, who has just returned from Moore and Montgomery Counties, that he was very successful in those Counties in his efforts for the Orphan Fund.

The Orphan Fund.—We learn from Dr. Dooms, who has just returned from Moore and Montgomery Counties, that he was very successful in those Counties in his efforts for the Orphan Fund.

The Orphan Fund.—We learn from Dr. Dooms, who has just returned from Moore and Montgomery Counties, that he was very successful in those Counties in his efforts for the Orphan Fund.

The Orphan Fund.—We learn from Dr. Dooms, who has just returned from Moore and Montgomery Counties, that he was very successful in those Counties in his efforts for the Orphan Fund.

The Orphan Fund.—We learn from Dr. Dooms, who has just returned from Moore and Montgomery Counties, that he was very successful in those Counties in his efforts for the Orphan Fund.

The Orphan Fund.—We learn from Dr. Dooms, who has just returned from Moore and Montgomery Counties, that he was very successful in those Counties in his efforts for the Orphan Fund.

Ask the poor, and they will tell you that the most beautiful in the world is the hand that gives!

Blue Stone! Blue Stone! LBS BEST ENGLISH BLUE STONE, for sale by WORTH & CO., Wilmington, N. C. Aug. 26. 92-161d