Statesville Intelligence. THE Asheville Citizen contains the account of a sad accident that befell Mr. R. W. Porter, a young gentleman of high standing in that community, who fell from the stage about five miles from the town en route to Old Fort, and from the effects of which he died on Tuesday last. He was buried with Masonic honors on Wednesday. THE Wilmington Journal says that an old colored woman, by the name of Jane Wright, dropped dead in the yard of her residence, on Brunswick, between Second and Third streets, about daylight yesterday morning. Coroner Howlett was notified and a jury of inquest was empanneled, when the verdict was returned that she came to her death from heart disease. THE Statesville Intelligencer tells how a certain bashful young man from Statesville in attendance at the Charlotte Fair got things a little mixed. He was one day standing in Floral Hall conversing with a lady of his acquaintance, when another young gentleman and lady walked up. The lady first mentioned introduced our friend to them, when he made a low bow to the gentleman and grasped the lady warmly by the hand.

THE WELDON FAIR .- Our Managing Editor, the Secretary of the Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Association, returned home yesterday evening, and we are pleased to learn from him that the Fair was in every respect a success, the whole attendance during the four days numbering from 15 to 20,000. The number of entries were some 300 larger than on any former year, and the re-ccipts will be sufficient, it is thought, to pay all the expenses of the present year and to meet a large indebtedness incurred by extensive improvements made upon the grounds within the last two months. The grounds are now unsurpassed in their general arrangements by any in the State, and in many respects surpass any other, and it is universally considered that the success of the Society for the future is established beyond question.

The annually large number of pretty ladies in attendance occasioned general remark, but where so much beauty was to be seen, it was impossible to speak of it except in general terms.

The Warrenton Gazette thus concludes an article in reference to the Fair :

"The Fairs at Weldon are better conducted than any in the State, and deserves the great success which they receive. - Their officers are practical farmers and educated gentlemen, and conduct the proceedings with energy, abili'y and fidelity. The premiums are awarded fairly and paid promptly.

"Owing to its geographical position, Weldon is one of the best places in the State for holding Fairs, and the counties adjoining Halifax should determine to make the Fairs held there a greater success if possible in the future than in the past."

-----TheLondon Press and the American Election. LONDON, NOV. 6.

The result of the Preidential election in America is published in London this morning. The London Telegraph believes that Grant deserved re election and the fact that he has been again chosen, disproves the assertion that the Republics are ungrateful. The Standard makes a violent attack upon the Republican party, which it says, "has done nationally what Tammany and Fick did locally. Grant and Greeley are both unfit for the position of President of the United States, but it says of the two evils it believes the people have made the best choice." ----

SPEAKING of the horse malady, the Charlotte Observer says a new tirade of names has been thrown into our-language by the appearance of the strange horse malady which is spreading so swiftly and with such destruction over the land. Hipporhinnorrhea, hippozymosis, epizeotis, hippo malaria, epihippic, typhoide-laryngite, equine influenza, and a number of other equally classieal and jaw-breaking names are now in vogue. "Blind Staggers" is about the plain English of it all.

THE Wilmington Star of Saturday says: "We were shown yesterday a very handsome pulpit, with circular steps to correspond, just completed for the Baptist church in Fayetteville. The pulpit is made f our native curley pine. trimmed with black walnut. It is of Octagon style, with double pannels of Gothic architecture. All the work was done by hand except the base and caps of the columns. Mr. John Sholar, of this city, executed the work with his own hands, and we congratulate our Baptist friends in Fayetteville on the fact that their church will be adorned by as handsome a pulpit as can be found anywhere."

THE Wilmington Star says that "n white man by the name of John Graves, well known about the oyster sal-on of this city, where he was free quently employed in the capacity of an "ovster butcher," died on yesterday in a house on Chesnut, between Front and Water streets, in rather indigent circumstances. and after a very brit illerss, his death being superinduced by intemperance and exposure. We learn that deceased served through the war in a company from New Orleans, known as the "Lou siana Tigers," with whom he came to this State. He is said to have come from a good family in New Orleans and it may be a source or melancholy satisfaction to them to know where he "sleeps his last sleep."
