LOCAL MATTERS.

MASTRO TO-NIGHT. A troupe performed here last evening.

SHOOTING IS "THE THING" WITH US JUST NOW.

THE WEATHER IS DISAGREEABLY COOL FOR THE SEASON.

IT IS THAT IT REQUIRES MORE THAN AN HOUR TO OPEN THE NORTHERN MAIL.

IT REQUIRES EIGHT DAYS TO TRANSPORT BUSHELS OF CORN FROM NEWBORN TO RALEIGH BY THE NEAREST AND MOST ACCURATE RAILROAD ROUTE.

WE WERE AT AN ADJOURNED MEETING OF THE CITY COMMISSIONERS THIS EVENING AT SEVEN O'CLOCK, TO INVESTIGATE THE CHARGES BROUGHT AGAINST CHIEF OF POLICE, W. C. STRONACH.

WE HAVE BEEN INVESTIGATING THE WHY'S AND WHEREFORS OF THOSE RUSTY HORSES SHIPPED OVER THE DOORS OF SEVERAL OF OUR LARGE BUSINESS HOUSES ON FAYETTEVILLE STREET. WE AT FIRST THOUGHT THE PROPRIETORS OF THESE HOUSES AFORESAID, WERE TEMPERANCE COUNCIL MEN, AND PLACED THEM THERE TO KEEP OUT SPIRITS, BUT FINDING TWO OVER THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS' COURT ROOM DOOR, WE ARE COMPELLED TO HUNT UP ANOTHER REASON.

THE WAKE COUNTY BIBLE SOCIETY. The meeting of this Society will occur at 11 o'clock, A. M., Thursday, instead of 7 1/2 P. M., as stated in our yesterday's issue.

WE WILL STATE FURTHER, THAT THE REV. P. M. STROBEL, General Agent of the American Bible Society for N. C., will be present, and will doubtless prove a valuable auxiliary to its deliberations. Mr. Strobel has established his Headquarters in this city, and desires us to say that he would be pleased to correspond with all the Auxiliary Societies in the State, the Pastors of churches, and all interested in the distribution of the Bible, with a view to mutual counsel and co-operation.

HE WILL, AS SOON AS ARRANGEMENTS CAN BE MADE, VISIT THE DIFFERENT AUXILIARIES IN THE STATE. HE IS COMMANDED BY THE CONFIDENCE AND SYMPATHY OF ALL THE FRIENDS OF THE BIBLE IN THE STATE, BY THE PRESIDENT, SECRETARY AND TREASURER OF THE WAKE COUNTY BIBLE SOCIETY, AND BY THE REVS. MESSRS. ATKINSON, LACY, PRITCHARD AND MANGUM.

HE WILL FIRST VISIT EASTERN CAROLINA, AND EXPECTS TO COMMENCE HIS LABORS IN THAT SECTION NEXT WEEK. A LIST OF APPOINTMENTS WILL APPEAR IN OUR ISSUE TOMORROW.

FOR CHATHAM.—There will be an excursion from this city to Merry Oaks, Chatham county, on to-morrow. This party will also convey to the scene of the following great Radical fight from this city: Col. Thomas B. Lewis, Gen. W. D. Jones, Col. W. F. Henderson, Maj. J. H. Foote and Col. I. Young, who, it is expected will brightly illumine this dark and benighted region. Chatham, what have you done to merit such affliction?

Some writing the above, we learn that the Hon. John Manning, of Pittsboro, and Capt. John Q. DeCarteret, will meet the above named gentlemen at Merry Oaks, to see it possible what is meant by this heavy attack against old Chatham. Now we say, let all turn out and hear the discussion. We regard the Hon. Wiley D. Jones as the only man of the Radical side of this party capable of making a speech, and do not regard him as the equal of either of the prominent gentlemen with whom he will contend.

A MAN KILLED.—WHISKEY THE ANGE.—John Geringer, a citizen of Alamance county, was run over and killed by the Western bound train of the R. C. R. R., between Company Shops and Haw River, on Thursday evening last. He was last seen about midnight of the evening of the occurrence, going in the direction of Haw River in company with a woman of that neighborhood, that sustained a bad character.

HE WAS FOUND NEXT MORNING BY THE SECTION MASTER, LYING NEAR THE ROAD, TERRIBLY Mangled, with a bottle of whiskey resting by his head. A Coroner's jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts. The deceased, though an imberberate, was generally a man of good character. He leaves a wife and twelve children.

BROKE JAIL.—A letter from the Sheriff of Cherokee county to Gov. Caldwell announces the escape of Patton Shope from the jail of said county on the 14th ult.

SHOPE IS CHARGED WITH THE MURDER OF A. W. Lorraine in Cherokee county, on the 17th of August, 1871. He was arrested and the Sheriff wrote to Gov. Caldwell asking that a reward be offered for him. The reward was offered and claimed immediately, but when the Governor learned that Shope was safely in jail when the proclamation was issued, he refused to pay the reward. Now Shope has broken jail and the Sheriff again asks that a reward be offered for his apprehension. It is believed that Shope made his way to Georgia.

AN EARLY DAY, THE ENTIRE REGION, IN AND AROUND ABOUT THE CENTRAL DEPT, WAS MACADAMISED. ROCK IS NOW BROUGHT FROM SOME POINT ON THE R. C. R. R., FOR THIS PURPOSE.

THE DAILY NEWS.

ONWARD—STILL ONWARD.—At a meeting of the Board of Directors for the new Masonic Temple on yesterday to be built in this city, a resolution was passed, ordering the removal at once of the residence, and out houses on the 'Gales lot' which has been purchased for the purpose, that operations may commence with early spring weather. The Temple when finished will not only be an ornament to our city, but the entire State. Now that the movement has culminated in a grand success, we propose at an early day to furnish our readers with a full description of this proposed building, which will doubtless eclipse in size, style, and architecture, any private building in the State.

WHY EVANS?—The Hillsboro Recorder states that during the delivery of a sermon a short time since, Dr. Pritchard, of this city, fell through the pulpit into the basement of the Church. The facts are as follows: Services were being held in the Lecture room (basement) of the Church. Dr. Hatcher, of Petersburg, was preaching, and Dr. P. was seated on the pulpit platform, which is raised about a foot above the main floor. In attempting to move his chair, it tilted off on the floor. Only this and nothing more.

ARRESTED.—George Thomas, alias Thomas Abner, an escaped convict from the State Penitentiary, was arrested by James A. Temple, Esq., in this county on yesterday and committed to the jail of Wake. Thomas escaped some two weeks ago. He was sentenced from Davie county for five years for assault with intent to commit rape. Mr. Temple deserves the thanks of the community for the promptness with which he has acted in this matter.

DE CASTRO.—This world renowned Ventriloquist and Magician opens this evening at Tucker Hall, and provided he gets his head on again, after cutting off, will continue for three nights. The suspension act, in which his wife by some aid or influence unknown to us is made to suspend in mid air, without props or support, is said to be one of the most wonderful tricks known in the magic art. He will doubtless make a heavy draft on our citizens this evening.

WE WERE SHOWN AT THE NORTH CAROLINA Land Agency yesterday, several photographic sketches of farm residences, mills, mill sites, and other property for which this Company are Agents. Among the sketches, we noticed the old and familiar (to us) views of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, Warrenton, and "Elgin," the old Mitchell county seat, in Warren county. These sketches were taken by Morgan, of Warrenton, said to be one of the best landscape photographers in N. C.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Tuesday, March 5th, 1872.—Mayor W. H. Harrison, presiding.—Anthony Pape, col., a few days since, appropriated to his own use and benefit, certain articles of clothing, said to belong to one Monroe Vass, also a gentleman of color. A warrant was issued by his Honor, the Mayor, but owing to the sickness of the defendant, the officer could not serve it. A portion of the clothing has been recovered.

SKATING RINK.—This evening is the regular semi-weekly festival of the rolling "Skatriats" at Oak City Hall. All lovers of this pleasant, harmless and delightful amusement, should not fail to attend. The exercise is said to be beneficial, not only to the young, but to all; it expands and develops the muscles, exhilarates the mind, and is attended with no danger or risk of limbs. Let all attend that can.

MARSHAL'S SALE.—Fifteen barrels and about seven kegs of assorted wines and liquors captured from different parties in this city by Deputy U. S. Revenue Collector Upchurch for a violation of the Revenue laws in its alteration, were sold yesterday by U. S. Marshal Carrow, at his office on Hillsborough street.

NO MORGANTOWN, AT ALL.—The citizens of San Domingo, which we think is decidedly a more appropriate name, is highly incited against this "local," for calling their village Morgantown. We meant no harm and never heard of you before we were informed, and had you not mentioned it, would never have thought of you again.

FARMING OUT THE CONVICTS.—We invite the special attention of Railroad Companies and public corporations to the notice of the President of the Directors of the Penitentiary, inviting proposals for the farming out of two hundred penitentiary convicts. This strikes us as an excellent opportunity to procure cheap labor.

CHARLOTTE MINT.—We are pleased to see that the amendment offered by the Committee on Appropriations proposing to abolish the United States Mint at Charlotte was voted down in the Senate on Friday last. Now that the attention of capitalists is being directed to the rich mines in our State, the mint is indispensable as an assay office.

THE BUILDING LOTS, upon which fifteen residences are now in process of erection on the Rhamkatte road, were laid off by Mr. Kingsland, the Land Agent, who sold the same for Mrs. Haywood, the original owner of the property. It was never purchased by a capitalist, as stated by us a few days ago.

THE MAN THAT MYSTERIOUSLY disappeared from Henderson an account of which appeared in our columns yesterday, has turned up in Weldon.

A Banquet has been tendered Lord Northbrook, to take place on the eve of his departure to assume the Vicereignty of India.

Queen Victoria will remain two weeks in Germany.

The Lord Mayor of London, Mr. Gibbons, has been made a baronet.

Examination of O'Connor, the Would-be Assassin of Queen Victoria.

A London telegram to the New York Herald, dated March 1st, gives the following account of the attempted assassination of the Queen and of the examination and commitment of O'Connor, the guilty party.

The fact of the personal assault which was made upon Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, yesterday, by the hand of the man Arthur O'Connor, with the subsequent incidents of his arrest and temporary commitment for examination before a magistrate, constitute a theme for universal comment and public condemnation in the columns of the city journals to-day. The newspaper writers draw a comparison between the act of this one individual and the intense demonstration of loyalty made by the entire populace of London, as well as other demonstrations throughout the United Kingdom on Tuesday last.

Immediately before his attack upon Her Majesty, O'Connor sealed the iron railing, ten feet in height, which surrounds the court yard of Buckingham Palace.

When he approached the royal carriage, he first saw Lady Churchill, Lady in waiting on the Queen—who was riding with Her Majesty—and was about to assault her; but he soon discovered his mistake and turned his attack upon the Queen.

Her Majesty's groom, John Brown, who was riding behind her carriage, upon witnessing the action of O'Connor, leaped from his horse, and arrested and detained the assailant.

O'Connor, the prisoner, was immediately handed over to the police authorities.

He will be brought to Bow Street Police Court Station this morning, or about the hour of noon, where a preliminary examination will be held.

At the hour of noon all the streets and side lanes approaches to the Bow Street Police Station were jammed by an immense concourse of people, who gathered in hope of catching a glimpse of O'Connor during his conveyance to or from the Magistrate's Court.

The assault on the Queen, O'Connor, was brought before the Police Magistrate at Bow street at noon to-day for examination.

The court room and all its approaches were densely crowded. The prisoner presented a very boyish and not unpleasing appearance, and to-day was at the moment quiet and unassuming in manner. He made no attempt at bravado, and listened quietly to the testimony, without seeking to interrupt or contradict the witnesses.

On being interrogated by the Magistrate he stated that his full name was Arthur O'Connor; that he was born in England, but that his father was a native of Ireland. It was subsequently elicited that his grandfather was the well known Feargus O'Connor, one of the leaders of the English Chartist movement.

John Brown, Her Majesty's groom, Colonel Hardinge, Egery to the Queen, and Prince Leopold, testified to the circumstances of the assault, of which they were eyewitnesses. Their statements do not differ materially from the accounts telegraphed to the New York Herald.

One of the policemen into whose custody O'Connor was delivered swore that the prisoner said the reason he had loaded the pistol was because it was rotten; that he repeatedly exclaimed, "I wish to God I had succeeded, that he avowed he had intended to present the petition for a Fenian amnesty to the Queen in St. Paul's Cathedral, Tuesday, when she was surrounded by her Ministers; that he then had pealed link ready for her to sign the document with; that he would have made the attempt, but the crowd was so great that he could not get near her Majesty.

Two papers found on the prisoner when he was seized, were produced in Court and read, and pardoning all the Fenian convicts, in substance as follows:

I, VICTORIA, Queen, grace of God, make the following declaration: Whereas there are now confined in various prisons throughout the kingdom a number of Irishmen, known as celebrated Fenians; whereas they were imprisoned with my sanction, having rebelled and conspired against the Crown and to weaken and destroy my power; whereas sympathizers with these men have petitioned for their pardon, and notwithstanding they are all unliberated; now, I, Victoria, Queen, do grant full pardon to each and every Fenian prisoner unconditionally, and notwithstanding this my agreement is made under fear of my life, and will not depart therefrom.

This is dated February 22, 1872.

The other document is a commutation in advance of the punishment of the prisoner for his present act from hanging to shooting, and is dated February 27.

At the conclusion of the examination the prisoner was committed for trial at the assizes, and taken back to jail under a strong escort.

TROUBLES.—Some people are so careful of their troubles as mothers are of their babies; they cuddle them, and rock them, and hug them, and cry over them; and fly into a passion with you if you try to take them away from them; they want you to fret with them, and to help them to believe that they have been worse treated than anybody else. If they could, they would have a picture of their grief in a gold frame hung over the mantel shelf for everybody to look at. And their griefs make them ordinarily selfish—they think more of their dear little grief in the basket and in the cradle than they do of all the world besides; and they say you are hard-hearted if you say "don't fret." "Ah! you don't understand me—you don't know me—you can't enter into my trials."
