BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION.

THIRD DAY. Reports from Home Missionaries.

(Reported especially for the DAILY NEWS by its own Reporter.)

FAYETTEVILLE, Nov. 8th, 1872.

The most of today has been spent in hearing reports from the various missionaries, and devising plans for increase of church extension.

The reports from the various missionary fields were very encouraging to the denomination, there having been about seven thousand additions to the church, and a large gain over any previous year of contributions to the objects of the Convention, making in the aggregate over fifteen thousand dollars.

There are now left but very few Baptist Associations in the State that are not co-operating with the Convention. This has been accomplished by the Corresponding Secretary, Rev. Jas. D. Hatham, and Mr. J. H. Mills, Editor of the Biblical Recorder, both of whom have traveled in every section of the State during the past year, assisting and directing in the conducting of Associations, and laying the objects of the Convention before the people.

There have been several new houses of worship erected, and it is thought, under the direction of the Church Extension Board many more will be completed during the coming year.

Shaw Collegiate Institute, for the education of colored ministers, located at Raleigh, was very highly complimented in remarks by Rev. W. A. Weaver to-day.

The subject of endowment of Wake Forest College has been taken up and will be determined upon to-morrow.

LAST DAY OF THE SESSION. FAYETTEVILLE, Nov. 10.

The churches to-day are all pretty well filled. Dr. Wingate, preached at the Baptist, Dr. Pritchard at the Methodist, and Rev. Levi Thorne, of Newbern, at the Presbyterian church this morning.

Dr. McDowell, of Watahoro Female Seminary, preached the closing sermon of the Convention to a very large audience.

After the sermon, Dr. Brooks, President of the Convention, delivered a few very touching remarks, and the delegates laid each other "farewell," singing "All hail the power of Jesus' name." The scene was very touching as one after another joined in warm embrace and wept.

This session of the Convention is said to be in many respects the best of them all. The kind-heartedness of this people will never be forgotten.

THE EPIHIPPIC.

The Malady Becoming General.

DISEASED ANIMALS RECOVERING.

Yesterday morning the Epizootic made its appearance in nearly two-thirds of the private stables of the city, and we may safely say that over two-thirds of the horses in the city are attacked. Those that have careful treatment and are properly attended to, seem to suffer but little, and owners have no apprehension of fatality or even injury to their animals.

Notwithstanding the unfounded fears of our country friends, many horses came into the city yesterday, with the Hipporinorrhoea on them.

We learn that the malady is fast spreading in the country, and many horses are down with it. Ten miles have been attacked at Wynn, Yancy & Co's, stables.

The weather is clear and mild. The horses that have been several days attacked are rapidly recovering. It is believed that in ten days the crisis will have passed. No further fatal cases.

PROPOSALS FOR WOOD.—The Secretary of State advertises in another column that proposals for furnishing fifty cords of pine wood will be received at his office until Monday next at 12 o'clock.

THE J. BRINTON SMITH MYSTERY.

Verdict of the Coroner's Jury.

MRS. SMITH AND DAUGHTER COMMITTED TO JAIL.

Application to be made for a Writ of Habeas Corpus to Secure Bail.

The decision of the Coroner's Jury in the case of the Rev. Dr. J. Brinton Smith published in yesterday's issue of the News, though unofficial, was in the main correct. The verdict (official) reads as follows:

"That the deceased, J. Brinton Smith, came to his death the morning of the 1st day of October, 1872, from the effects of strychnine mixed in a dose of seidlitz powder, administered by Francis L. Mann, and that Mary E. Smith was the custodian of a key of a closet in which was found a vial of said poisonous drug."

As many that read this article may be unacquainted with the case as previously stated, we will state that on the morning of the 1st of October, Rev. Dr. J. Brinton Smith, President of St. Augustine College of this city, and an Episcopal clergyman of high standing, died suddenly at his residence in this city. From information obtained from his attending physician, Dr. E. Burke Haywood, in regard to the manner of his death, a coroner's jury was summoned to investigate the matter. After deliberating nearly a day, in which many witnesses were summoned and examined, it was shown that Dr. Smith drank a Seidlitz powder, prepared by his daughter, Mrs. Francis L. Mann, and the sugar used in sweetening the draught was taken from a closet by Mrs. Smith.

His wife; that a few minutes after drinking the powder, Dr. Smith was taken with convulsions and died in 17 minutes. Whereupon the jury ordered that the stomach and brains of Dr. Smith be taken by the Coroner to Philadelphia and examined by Dr. Genth, of that city, and the jury adjourn until his report is received.

On Monday the Coroner called the jury together and submitted the report and professional opinion. The jury were in secret session for several hours, and at 7 1/2 o'clock Monday night agreed upon the verdict as above.

The Coroner yesterday issued his warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Francis L. Mann and Mrs. Mary E. Smith, and at 5 o'clock, p. m., they were arrested by Sheriff Lee and committed to the common jail of Wake county. The ladies were brought to the jail in a close carriage, attended only by Sheriff Lee and Hon. K. P. Battle, their counsel.

The Sheriff, after being admitted to the parlor, informed the ladies of the unpleasant duty the law required him to perform, but instead of the scene that he anticipated, the prisoners expressed their willingness to submit to the majesty of the law, exhibiting no unusual feelings of horror or distress, but only asked an hour for preparation, which was of course granted by the Sheriff.

We learn that application will be made by defendants counsel for a writ of Habeas Corpus for the release of the prisoners.

We would be glad to publish the examination before the Coroner in full, and also the report of Dr. Genth in extenso, but owing to its great length we cannot conveniently do so, and moreover it does not contain more than the facts herein briefly stated.

While the entire community deeply sympathize with the unfortunate ladies, charged with the commission of this terrible crime, yet the general sentiment in regard to the guilt of the parties is divided, the affair being the only topic of street conversation yesterday.

The high social position of Dr. Smith and family in the community, and the unfortunate sequel of his sudden death, necessarily creates a great deal of excitement in the city.

THE STATUS OF LEADING INSURANCE COMPANIES SINCE THE BOSTON FIRE.—The "Underwriters Agency" of New York lost over one million of dollars by the Boston fire. They telegraph to their agent in this city, John G. Williams, that their assets remain undisturbed, and the loss will be paid promptly.

The following companies represented by P. F. Pescud & Son, in this city, lose as follows, but still remain in tact with their assets undisturbed: Home Insurance of New York, one million; Phoenix, of Hartford, half million; Liverpool and London and Globe, one million six hundred thousand; Alps, thirty-four thousand.

DESTRUCTIVE FLIES IN GRANVILLE.—We learn that the tobacco factory of J. D. C. Pools, Esq., near Kittrells Springs, was destroyed by fire a few days since. The property was insured for some $20,000.

The fire residence near Williamsboro, Granville county, known as the Nine Oaks, and the former residence of the Hamiltons, was also destroyed by fire a few days since. This property was recently purchased by an English family, and their loss is great.

THE COLORED BUCKET FIRE COMPANY.—The Colored Bucket (Fire) Company of this city, propose having a feast, fair and tableaux the latter part of this month for the benefit of this Company. The proceeds to be applied to the purchase of a neat uniform. We believe that our citizens both white and colored will cordially support the movement, and extend to it a liberal patronage.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Nancy Price, col., a dozen of Hell's-Acre and a half, arrested by officer Farris for disorderly conduct on the street, sent to the station house for 6 hours. The said Nancy is a two hundred and fifty pounder and was taken to her new quarters by six policemen, all of whom groined under the heavy dead (drunk) weight.

MEETING OF SYMPATHY WITH BOSTON.

Last evening at 7 1/2 o'clock a highly respectable assemblage of our citizens took place at Metropolitan Hall, to offer sympathy and aid to the sufferers by the Boston disaster.

Many of Raleigh's best people were present, among whom were three of our city clergymen—to wit: Rev. Dr. Smedes, Rev. Dr. Mason and Rev. Father McNamara. On the stand with the Chairman, Dr. Blackall, were Governor Caldwell and Mayor Whitaker. The meeting being called to order, a series of resolutions were read and adopted, of which the following is a copy:

"We citizens of Raleigh, N. C., having heard of the great calamity which has befallen the city of Boston, by the destruction by fire of many of its principal buildings, embracing a space of eighty acres, and property amounting to two hundred millions of dollars, do resolve, That we offer to the citizens of Boston our hearty sympathies in their time of affliction.

"That we sympathize with those persons of Boston, who by this sad calamity have been rendered destitute of the comforts of home, and many of the necessities of life.

Resolved, That a Committee of five be appointed by the Chairman of this meeting to solicit donations from our citizens, which donations, when collected, shall be sent to the Mayor of Boston, to be applied to objects of suffering, as an offering of friendship from the city of Raleigh.

Resolved, That our Mayor be requested to transmit to the Mayor of Boston a copy of these resolutions, and that our city papers publish the same.

Several gentlemen made speeches expressive of sympathy with the sufferers. Sheriff Lee gave a view of what the losses and sufferings of those must be who are thrown out of employment, and out of their homes, and Mr. Lee was so long an inhabitant of Boston, none could more faithfully portray the condition of these poor people. Col. S. T. Carrow gave reasons why we should sympathize with Boston, and said that in 1866, that city sent to Raleigh the sum of $7,000 to aid our citizens in the sufferings of that year. The record of this munificent donation can be seen at the Raleigh National Bank.

Hereupon Dr. Blackall, the Chairman, called on Rev. Father McNamara, as one who lived long in Boston, to give the meeting some sentiments in connection with this occasion. This Rev. gentleman rose and delivered a speech which was well received by all present.

Rev. Dr. Smedes was next called, and made some very kind and touching remarks, wherein he expressed a hope that our citizens would come generously forward at this call of charity.

A committee was then appointed to solicit donations among our people. The following gentlemen compose this committee:—

Rev. Dr. Mason, Col. S. T. Carrow, W. C. Stronach, Esq., R. H. Battle, Jr., and the City Clerk, Mr. M. Gramsman.

It is sincerely hoped that the citizens of Raleigh who know when true charity calls, and who have hearts capable of feeling for sufferers under every circumstance, will contribute generously to this subscription. The Committee will call on those who can afford to contribute, and let the open hand of generosity be extended. If the Committee overlook any persons in their rounds, we trust such will hand in their donations at the Yarborough House to Dr. Blackall, and their names will be appended to the complete list of contributors, which shall be printed in a day or two and sent on to Boston as a memorial of the sympathy and generosity of our people.

J. V. McNAMARA, Secretary.

THE BOSTON DISASTER!

LATER AND FULLER PARTICULARS.

Attempt to Set Fire to other Portions of the City met with the Lynch Law.

Boston, Nov. 11—Midnight.

The steam engines are busy to-night playing on the debris. All the streets leading thereto are strictly guarded.— Although the city is dark and gloomy, there being no gas, large crowds hover in the vicinity of the ruins.

Boston, Nov. 12—4 A. M.

The streets now are perfectly quiet. Two hundred and fifty mounted soldiers patrol the street, and no one not having official authority from the commandant is permitted to pass the lines of infantry.

One man who attempted to enter a store on Winter street, and who refused to leave after being repeatedly ordered away, started to run when about to be arrested, and was shot by the guard.

Extensive lines of hose are stretched all over the ruins, and engines are stationed at almost every hydrant ready at a moment's notice to be worked if occasion should require. Points where persons are known to be buried in the ruins are being cooled with water preparatory to digging out the corpses of the victims. Immense piles of coal at the Russia wharf, about 500 tons, are still on fire. The city has granted the dry goods merchants the privilege of using the Commons for the repository of such of their property as have been saved and to erect shanties and other structures for temporary use.

Three men were discovered attempting to break into a room in the Parker House, but made their escape.

It is rumored that a drunken wretch late yesterday evening attempted to set fire to the gas-house near Charlestown bridge, but was seized by the infuriated crowd and unceremoniously hung to a lamp post.

Three men were buried under the falling walls on Washington street, leaving their heads only visible. Efforts to rescue them from their horrible position proved unavailing, and in a few minutes afterwards the remainder of the walls fell, crushing and burying them from sight.

It is estimated that nearly ten thousand girls are thrown out of employment by the fire.

It is known that thirty lives have been lost. Detachments of the 1st and 2nd regiments are quartered in the old South church. This building has not been thus used since the British officers quartered there in the Revolution one hundred years ago.

Six men were arrested this morning in the Northern part of the city caught in the act of firing bonfires by kindling bonfires in the rear of the buildings. The streets are patrolled by the military.

THE GENERAL EFFECTS OF THE BOSTON DISASTER.

No Panic will Follow and the General Trade will not be materially affected.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 12.

The Boston fire has had a marked effect on business. All cotton orders were countermanded.

CHICAGO, Nov. 12.

A hundred thousand dollars unexpended from the charity of the world has been directed to be sent to Boston.

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 12.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.

The papers here take a more cheerful view as to the results, financially and otherwise, of the Boston fire. In the shoe and leather trade there is a prevailing impression that no harmful results to the trade can follow, as the prices were at a very low point before the fire. Several Boston men are already here, and have bought a new stock and will return immediately. In the wool trade it is stated that none of the New York houses are disastrously affected. The actual sufferers will be the public at large, as all kinds of woolen goods will be advanced in price, it is expected, from 30 to 40 per cent. Several New York firms are congratulating themselves upon the necessary deflection of the wool trade from Boston to New York. Several New York detectives have gone to Boston to aid the authorities there in arresting New York thieves.

The Bulletin says of the wool market that dealers here recently sold heavily to Boston merchants, but the wool is still mostly held here or is in transit, thus escaping destruction. Only a small amount of Boston paper, on account of wool transactions is held here, and no fears are entertained here that other than an extension of time will be necessary on the maturing bills. A partial suspension of the wool trade for the week is expected, until the insurance backlog is perfected, when the market will be more active, than before the fire. In the dry goods trade the same paper says there is much confusion and uncertainty, owing to the reception of letters from Boston, but no great uneasiness is manifested.

In the hide and leather trade there is an entire absence of any panic feeling, and the general impression is that the market will simply remain steady. In the boot and shoe trade no crisis is anticipated, the sentiment being that all the Boston dealers are still in good standing, and only an extension of time will be necessary.

Boston buyers who arrived here yesterday were cheerfully allowed all the credit they asked for.

HEAVY ROBBERY IN NEW YORK.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Marine Disasters.

LONDON, Nov. 12.

The steamship Helvetia, which sailed from New York October 23d for London, encountered severe weather when near the English coast. On Friday last while off Portland her machinery broke, and she succeeded however in reaching Isle of Wight when she became unmanageable and drifted rapidly towards the French coast. As Cherbourg came in sight, the anxiety of the officers became very great, and they were unable to regain control over the steamer's movements, and were in danger of being driven on shore. When within ten miles of Cherbourg they threw up rockets and made other signals of distress, but they were not noticed on the shore.

Fortunately the wind changed and the steamer began to run before it down the channel. The steamer Ethel came to her assistance, and while trying to give her a tow ran into the boat which had been launched by Helvetia. The boat was crushed to pieces, and one man killed and two injured. The Helvetia was finally towed into Falmouth and remaining there to-day.

The Norwegian Bark Damar which sailed from New York for Greenstown for orders October 19th, was abandoned at sea on the 8th inst, is in a sinking condition. The crew was rescued by the officers, and the crew of the steamship Idaho after much difficulty by means of life boats, and landed at Greenstown last evening. A despatch from Hong Kong says the telegraphic Cable between that city and Shanghai has ceased to work. The cause of interruption is unknown.

The Boston Fire in London.

LONDON, Nov. 12.

All the London morning papers express the deepest sympathy for the sufferers by the conflagration in Boston.— They attribute great disaster to bad management of the fire department, police and municipal authorities of that city. The Standard says the Boston fire is a scandalous outrage on civilization and an evidence of most inefficient city Government. By way of showing superiority in cases like that of the Boston fire of small and well organized fire department over a large, but badly managed one, it compares the small London fire brigade and the narrow crooked streets and alleys of this city, where fire seldom gets beyond the buildings wherein they originate to the thousands of undisciplined firemen, to the huge granite structures and open places in Boston. It says the best portion of the city was destroyed for want of good management to prevent the progress of the flames, which were finally stopped by gun powder, and this wretched business was entrusted to volunteer citizens, instead of skilled operators. It is believed here that the amount of insurance in London companies upon the property in the burnt district of Boston is two millions and five hundred thousand dollars. A Commissioner is to be sent to Boston by the London companies, to make an investigation of the facts in relation to the origin and progress of the conflagration, as a matter of general importance to the Insurance interest.

Important Development of Virginia Metals.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.

The presence of auriferous metals in Virginia in the neighborhood of the Potomac, Rappahannock and other streams, as well as in the foothills of the Blue Ridge, has long been known, but the location of a permanent quartz mine or reef has not been thoroughly demonstrated until lately. For a year past, parties of explorers have been at work in developing a mine near Kelly's Ford, four miles from Rappahannock station, in the neighborhood of well known places of deposits. They have found a series of well defined gold-bearing veins, located in about three-fourths of a mile from the river. The surface rock of decomposed quartz bears a strict resemblance to the one taken out in the richest districts of California. A shaft 80 feet deep cuts three veins at a depth of fifteen, forty-five and seventy-five feet, yielding rock worth from sixty to one hundred dollars per ton. The deposit to be a basin of veins showing free gold with carbonates and no sulphates. Three tunnels are now being worked through rich rock, and everything gives promise of permanency.

Internal Revenue Receipts.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue estimates the receipts of the bureau for the present fiscal year, at one hundred and five millions, or thirty millions less than last year, with a natural increase annually of three per cent; the receipts of the first quarter were larger than those subsequently collected, being accumulations on account of the past indebtedness and other causes. So far as the bureau is aware, both the tobacco and the spirit interests are satisfied with the late law of Congress, and therefore there is no reason to believe that any modification of it will be recommended, unless in the manner of administrative and re-organization of the districts in order to render the system more compact, and to reduce the expenses, nor is it probable the tariff act will undergo any material changes.

Weather Report.
