LOCAL ITEMS.

Emancipation Day passed off very quietly.

Among the beaux no hues in a cravat are admissible but blue and black.

The new year opened gloomily as far as the weather was concerned.

Yesterday was moving day, and a disagreeable time the unfortunates had of it.

Chicken and turkey thieves are committing depredations nightly in Western Ward.

A house containing six rooms conveniently located, can be rented of Alured Upchurch. See notice.

A good house can be rented of W. S. Mason, located on corner of Salisbury and Martin streets. See the notice.

A little white boy, living in Eastern Ward, while playing with a companion yesterday, fell and dislocated his left shoulder.

We heard that some mischievous urchins yesterday blew the horns of the William Goat of Sheriff Lee with fire crackers.

The National Hotel re-opened yesterday, as per advertisement, under favorable auspices, and gave its guests a fine dinner.

The new year callers, had a merry time yesterday. All day they were dispersing themselves on the streets with fast teams.

The Board of County Commissioners meet to-morrow. We hope they will fix up Walnut Creek bridge on the Fayetteville road.

An editor says: "We are living at this moment under an absolute despotism."

We suspect he married the wrong woman.

A comfortable dwelling, on the corner of Person and Davis streets, near Person street Methodist church, is for rent. See notice elsewhere.

The four horse carriage that conveyed four of our young married men on their New Year's calls, came to an anchor at 7 o'clock precisely.

The Raleigh National Bank has declared a dividend of 6 per cent. on the total stock, in the last six months, payable on the 6th inst. See advertisement.

Of News Editor, Mr. Syme, was escorted home the other night by a squad of cops. The only remarkable thing about the occurrence was the rapid time made.

Ramsay & Co., clothiers, announce a heavy sale of goods, caused by the great reduction in their prices. As will be seen, they claim the largest sales made in the city.

Backfall, the whole-souled landlord of the well known Yarbrough, gave the News office a New Year's treat yesterday, in the shape of fine wine and delicacies.

On the corner of Hillsboro and McDowell streets is a large bank of dirt thrown up on the side walk, and pedestrians who are compelled to pass this locality have either to take the mud in the middle of the street, or to wade by going over the bank.

"Stop! stop! stop!" that engine's stop the Chocky-ay-ay! Capt. Stone, the engineer, who was moving out with the local freight yesterday morning, thinking the Raleigh and Gaston road office, warehouse, workshops, or other dwellings, out-houses, &c., were all on fire, put on breaks, dismounted from his engine, and anxiously inquired of Major Vass, "What is the matter?" "Our baby has a tooth," said the excited Major. Capt. Stone is not a cussing man, but from the emphatic manner in which he blew his horn, and his abrupt and hurried departure from the scene, he thought what the Dutchman whipped his son for.

INAUGURATION OF STATE OFFICERS.—

BRIEF REMARKS BY GOV. CALDWELL.—

Yesterday, at 12 m., pursuant to the requirements of law, the recently elected State Officers, with two exceptions, were a qualified and inducted into office.

The ceremony took place in the Hall of the House of Representatives.

Just before the oath of office was administered to the Governor elect, Hon. Tod R. Caldwell, he made the following brief Inaugural Address:

"May it please Your Honor and fellow citizens of the State of North Carolina: In obedience to the will of the people of North Carolina, I appear before you to-day to assume the office of Chief Magistrate of the State of North Carolina for the next four years. It has been customary, fellow citizens, and almost universally so, that the Governor of the State of North Carolina should be inaugurated before the General Assembly of North Carolina. On this occasion, however, there is a departure from the general rule, for the reason that the General Assembly is not in session, and the Constitution provides that in that event I shall take my oath before one of the Justices of the Supreme Court.

Gentlemen, I accept this honor, chiefly upon the solicitation of friends, and am sorry that I did not prepare myself with a little speech for them on this occasion. In assuming this high and responsible office, believe me, I will ever make it a point of duty to take care of the interest of the people of North Carolina. I do not mean to act the part of the partisan in this office. Of course, where I have patronage to bestow, other things being equal, I shall give such patronage to party friends judiciously and in a manner consistent with the privileges of my office. I shall endeavor to discharge my duties to the best of my ability. When I cannot fill the office from my own party, acceptably to myself, I shall consider it my duty to select a good man from the opposite party, and I know that every good and true Republican in the State of North Carolina will approve my determination in this respect. I hope, however, that I will be able to find in our own party intelligent, well educated and honest men enough to fill these offices. I desire in conclusion to tender to you, and through you, to the people of North Carolina, my most sincere thanks for the generous manner in which you bestowed your suffrages upon me for the highest office within the gift of the people, and to give the assurance that in the discharge of my duties, I shall have an eye single to the interests of my beloved State and to all her citizens without regard to party, and while I claim no immunity from just criticism, I bespeak in advance a fair hearing and honest judgment from the public—I am now, may it please your Honor, ready to take the oath of office."

At the conclusion of the address, Hon. Thomas Settle, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, proceeded to formally qualify the following officials: T. R. Caldwell, Governor; D. A. Jenkins, State Treasurer; T. L. Hargrove, Attorney General. Subsequently Hon. S. W. Watts, Judge of the Supreme Court, qualified W. H. Howerton, Secretary of State, and Silas Burns, Superintendent of Public Works.

The Lieutenant Governor, Curtis H. Brogden, and John Riley, Auditor, did not put in an appearance, for reasons we know not.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction elect, Rev. James Reid, having died, the office will be filled by appointment by the Governor.

The Treasurer is the only officer of the outgoing Administration who retains his office, if we may except the Governor, who was elected Lt. Governor in 1868 and succeeded the gubernatorial chair by reason of the impeachment and deposit of Gov. Holden.

Gov. Caldwell has, we learn, re-appointed J. B. Neathery, Private Secretary. S. M. Parish, of this city, holds the appointment as Chief Clerk of the Secretary of State's office. We understand that no change will be made in the clerkships of the Treasury Department.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE.—We have received from the faculty the Catalogue of Wake Forest College, for 1871-'72, from which we are pleased to learn that the College is now in a healthy and prosperous condition. This College is situated within fifteen miles of this city, on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, and separate and apart from the advantages of accessibility, it is presided over by a most able faculty, who, as will be seen from the Catalogue, have inaugurated a thoroughness of instruction, second in extent to no College, either North or South.

The Spring Session of this College will open February 1st. Good board can be secured on College Hill, at from $7 to $10 per month.

BLOW-UP.—Intelligence was received here yesterday morning, by the train on the North Carolina Railroad, that the engine in Guion's Spoke and Handle Factory in Charlotte burst its boiler on Tuesday afternoon, causing a good deal of damage to the building, and wounding some four or five persons. It is said that some of the wounded are fatally injured. Our information in regard to the matter is meagre, and we must await further reliable intelligence before we can lay definite particulars of this unfortunate occurrence before our readers.

WILMINGTON STREET.—This thoroughfare is in a wretched condition. The sidewalks are not one whit better than the middle of the street, particularly the western sidewalk. Upon this street a large amount of business is done, and it bids fair to become the business street of the city. We trust the Board of City Commissioners will give this matter their attention at the next meeting.

SMALL-POX IN WAKE COUNTY.—We regret to announce that this malady has appeared in this county. Mr. Henry H. Hester is sick with it at his father's, Shilby H. Hester, E. g., some ten miles Northeast of this city, in Wake Forest township. We suppose that measures have been taken to prevent its spread.

THE ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION.—

In accordance with the published programme, the freedmen of the City met at Metropolitan Hall yesterday at 10 o'clock, and commenced exercises of the Anniversary celebration of the emancipation proclamation of President Lincoln.

The exercises were opened with an appropriate song by the choir, the daughter of Geo. W. Brodie, the cashier of the Freedmen's Savings Bank, operating at the organ. Both the instrumental and vocal music was capitally rendered.

W. Rufus Davis read the emancipation proclamation. The Orator, Chas. N. Otey, was then introduced by the President of the day, Chas. N. Hunter.

Before the commencement of the oration quite a number of white gentlemen, of both political parties, entered the hall, who listened attentively to the long address.

Otey is one of the best colored orators ever listened to; the speech was an able and well written document, abounding in good advice to his race—advice, which, if followed, would greatly tend to the cultivation of kindly relations between the races. We regret that we have not sufficient space to give this excellent effort a more extended notice. We really think that the colored people of the city should have it published for general circulation.

At the conclusion of Otey's speech, the town clock sounded two, when we were strikingly reminded of our New Year's turkey, and left the hall.

STALL RENTING IN METROPOLITAN MARKET.—Yesterday the annual renting of stalls took place under the supervision of J. C. King, Chief of Police and Clerk of the Market. The following is a complete statement:

Butcher's Stalls.—No. 1, Talbot Smith, $325 per annum; No. 2, William Yealey, $175; No. 3, Alvin Nowell, $216.50; No. 4, John Stills, $420; No. 5, R. W. Smith, $300; No. 6, S. Cooper, $300; No. 7, C. Moss, $341; No. 8, Talbot Smith, $470.

Huckster's Stalls.—W. D. Smith, No. 9, $218; No. 10, Wm Green, $280; No. 11, Wm Hicks, $235; No. 12, Nick Alfred, $300; No. 13, Wilson Donaldson, $110; No. 14, Atlas Cole, $131; No. 15, Benj. Hiller, $155; No. 16, Francis Jordan, $140; No. 17, Charles Hunter, $165; No. 18, Spencer Hackney, $150; No. 19, Virgil Bix, $155; No. 20, Thomas Donaldson, $200; No. 21, Paul Alfred, $129; No. 22, Wm. B. Hill, $160; No. 23, W. R. Davis, $162; No. 24, Friday Jones, $141; No. 25, Nick Alfred, $195.50; No. 26, Alexis Lusk, $175.

The sum total of these rents foot up nearly six thousand dollars, and this exclusive of the two basements, which rent for about $600 per year. These rents exceed greatly those of last year.

We offer, free gratis, and for nothing the following advice to a friend that lives on our path home: If you have occasion to use a wheelbarrow, leave it, when you are through with it, in front of the house with the handles towards the door. A wheelbarrow is the most complicated thing to fall over on the face of the earth. A man will fall over one when he never would, if he never knows where he has got through falling over it either, for it will tangle his legs and arms, turn over with him, and rear up in front of him, and just as he pauses in his profanity to congratulate himself, it takes a new turn and scoops more skin off of him, and he commences to evolve anew, and bump himself on the fresh places. A man never ceases to fall over a wheelbarrow until its turns completely over on its back, or brings up against something it cannot upset. It is the most offensive looking object in life, but it is more dangerous than a locomotive, and no man is secure with one unless he has a tight hold of its handles and is sitting down on something. A wheelbarrow has its uses, without doubt, but in its leisure moments it is the great blighting curse on true dignity.

THE SMALL-POX IN FRANKLIN.—Mr Rogers and son, have died with the small-pox in Franklin county since our last report. Dr. W. M. Crenshaw, a leading physician of Louisville, is domiciled with this distressed family, having left his own family, home and patients to render all the aid and relief in his power to the poor unfortunates. It is believed that through the efforts of Dr. Crenshaw the disease will not spread from its present locality. We really think that the County Commissioners should reward the self-sacrificed devotion which this good man has exhibited for the welfare of his fellow-citizens, in a substantial manner.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.—Hon. Thomas Settle is at the National.

James E. Graham, Nova Scotia, D. R. Goodloe, of Warren and J. H. Tucker, of Mississippi, are at the Yarbrough.

Douglas Bell, Esq., the State Agent for the Globe Life Insurance Company, returned to the city yesterday.

Capt. John W. Blount, General Agent of the Life Association of America, left for New York city yesterday, on business connected with his agency.

GEN. A. M. SCALES.—We learn that this gentleman has moved his residence from Wentworth, Rockingham County, to Greensboro, where he will continue to practice law. The General is well known and popular throughout the whole State, and we trust that success will attend him wherever he may go within its borders.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the North Carolina Home Insurance Company, will be held at their office in this city, on Tuesday, the 11th day of January, 1873, at 11 o'clock.
