LOCAL BRIEFS. Get vaccinated. Happy New Year's.

The days begun to lengthen now. Shovels have been trumps the past week.

New Year's turkeys were in demand yesterday. Bad weather for moving, and yet it must be done to-day.

The merry bells are still rung. It is past the time for fretting at a hard winter, it comes in earnest.

There is not enough snow to warrant the anticipation of a New Year's sleigh ride. Make good resolutions as to your conduct during the new year and stick to them.

The dearest object to a married man should be his wife, but it is not unfrequently her clothes. A new song is headed "Hark, how the birds sing." Well, they can't be expected to sing very well this winter.

One style of bonnet is called the "Mansard," because it takes a great deal of "man's-hard" earnings to pay for one of 'em.

If some of the poets in this section don't quit sending us poems we will write some poetry ourselves-and publish it.

Don't hitch your horses under the eaves of a roof covered with snow, unless you desire a smash-up of your team.

See the advertisement in another column of the North Carolina Almanac by J. H. Ennis. Now is the time to buy.

The statutes of limitation expired yesterday. Business at the various J. P.'s offices was as a matter of consequence brisk and lively.

Prof. C. B. Fairchild-wants 1000 bushels of wood ashes instead of 100, as published by mistake in his advertisement yesterday morning.

Those who wish to rent a comfortable residence for the ensuing year will find it to their interest to read the advertisement of W. H. Dodd, in to-day's issue.

See the announcement of the re-opening of the popular National Hotel. It is in hands now that will run the machine according to Heyle. Read the advertisement.

Thomas Harrison, one of the best bar tenders in North Carolina, will take charge of the National Hotel Bar from and after this date. Tommy is not only expert as a mixer, but is clever and polite with it.

We were in error in stating in our yesterday's issue that the convicts brought down from Randolph county on Monday were colored people. They are all white.

The only business at the Mayor's office yesterday was the linking together of "two souls with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one." A bad day's business—that is, we mean it a dull—as the bridegroom forgot to leave the discretionary fee.

The Superintendent and teachers of St. Augustine (colored) Sabbath School will give the pupils a Christmas Tree this evening (New Year's) at St. Augustine Chapel. All the friends of the school are respectfully invited to attend and witness the enjoyment of the children.

The ridiculous error which appeared in our last issue, in the local brief in reference to the swearing in of State officers elect, was the fault of the compositor, the proof having been properly corrected. A more explicit apology would neither mend matters nor be grateful.

OUR NEW YEAR'S TURKEY.—"Tis better to be born lucky than rich" said some one, whose name we do not now recollect, neither do we care, so long as we have enjoyed the privilege of the saying.

After some racial pilfered from our coop our Christmas turkey, we got mad and fell back on our relations in Petersburg, where more than one turkey went the way of all (turkey) flesh.

Having made this much, on our return home we felt able to invest in a turkey for a New Year's dinner, and accordingly transferred from Paul Lincke's stall in the market, a fifteen pound gobler to our coop at home. Tuesday night, while all in the house was still, likewise the turkey in the coop; probably while we were dreaming of the second choice of our New Year's dish, (we are a married man.) some rascal, without the least of our dog Jack before his eyes, invaded the premises and stole thencefrom our New Year's turkey. Sadly we gazed upon the vacant roost the next morning, and with a heavy heart came to our office where we recited our misfortune to a few condescending friends.

The large-hearted Dr. Blacknall of the Yarrowburgh House was one of the number; brushing a tear from his eye as we ended our sad tale, he hurriedly left the office and in a few minutes returned with a dressed gobler that weighed just one and a quarter pounds more than the one we lost, adding a few remarks that we did not hear, (after we got our hand on the turkey) something about poor local Editors, happy new year, &c. We got the turkey, and will eat him to-day, smile and think of the big-hearted doctor.

PERSONAL.—Maj. R. W. York, of Chatham, is in the city, stopping at the Yarrowburgh.

Gen. T. L. Clingan and N. W. Woodin, Esq., registered at the Yarrowburgh Hotel yesterday.

F. C. Robbins, Esq., of Randolph, member of the Senate of the last General Assembly, was in the city yesterday morning, but left for home on the evening train.

Rev. J. R. Griffith arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and left this morning en route for Oxford to officiate in the M. E. Church of that place, to which charge he was assigned by the recent Conference.

Theo. N. Ramsay, Esq., the Temperance Apostle of this locality, is now on a visit to New York and will return in a few days accompanied by Hon. J. J. Hickman, of Ky., and will then continue his crusade throughout the State against rum and run-sellers.

We were glad to shake the hand of Capt. J. C. Williams, of Norfolk, this evening. The Captain represents that will know wholesale and retail clothing house of W. G. Jones, No. 124 Main Street, Norfolk, Va.

The Arlington Hotel of Washington D. C., for the third time since its opening, has undergone a complete embellishment. It was originally fitted up in grand style, with every convenience, elegance and luxury that experience, taste and judgment could desire and money accomplish.

During the summer succeeding, it was beautifully frescoed and renovated throughout. Within the past two months all the chambers have been covered with the new style of carpeting of gold and silver paper.

The House has been re-painted, re-carpeted and a number of the rooms re-furnished. From the constant efforts of the Messrs. Rossie, to beautify and improve it, "The Arlington" is now far more luxurious and magnificent than when first opened, and is beyond question what they designed it should be.—The HOTEL of the Capital. WAKE FOREST COLLEGE.—We have received from the faculty the Catalogue of Wake Forest College, for 1871-'72, from which we are pleased to learn that the College is now in a healthy and prosperous condition.

This College is situated within fifteen miles of this city, on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, but separate and apart from the advantages of accessibility, it is presided over by a most able faculty, who, as will be seen from the Catalogue, have inaugurated a thoroughness of instruction, second in extent to no College, either North or South.

The Spring Session of this College will open February 1st. Good board can be secured on College Hill, at from $7 to $10 per month.

IN ERROR.—We were in error yesterday in giving the particulars of the painful accident which befell Mrs. W. J. Edwards on Monday afternoon. She did not have a spasm and fall into the fire as we stated. We learn from one in a position to know, that the unfortunate lady fainted and in falling overturned a kettle of boiling water and was very badly scalded.

We were glad to learn last evening that though suffering a good deal, her condition had decidedly improved. We trust but a few days will elapse ere we have the pleasure of announcing her complete recovery.

COL. L. C. EDWARDS.—This gentleman arrived in this city on yesterday. The Colonel has associated himself with Messrs. J. B. Batchelor & Son, in a law co-partnership, and will, in future, reside here. We are exceedingly gratified at this, as it is a most valuable acquisition to this community, and a brilliant addition to the Raleigh Bar.

Col. Edwards is well known to the people of this section as an urbane and polished gentleman, and a lawyer of much talent and learning. We feel assured his success will be commensurate with his merit.

A colored woman residing in the Western Ward had both of her feet severely scalded by the accidental upsetting of a tub of hot water while engaged in washing clothes.

Wild ducks, canvass-back and other varieties received this day at Miller & Nelson's.

INAUGURATION OF STATE OFFICERS.—BRIEF REMARKS BY GOV. CALDWELL.—Yesterday, at 12 M., pursuant to the requirements of law, the recently elected State Officers, with two exceptions, were qualified and inducted into office.

The ceremony took place in the Hall of the House of Representatives. Just before the oath of office was administered to the Governor elect, Hon. Tod R. Caldwell, he made the following brief Inaugural Address:

"May it please Your Honor and fellow citizens of the State of North Carolina: In obedience to the will of the people of North Carolina, I appear before you to-day to assume the office of Chief Magistrate of the State of North Carolina for the next four years. It has been universally so, that the Governor of the State of North Carolina should be inaugurated before the General Assembly of North Carolina. On this occasion, however, there is a departure from the general rule, for the reason that the General Assembly is not in session, and the Constitution provides that in that event I shall take my oath before one of the Justices of the Supreme Court.

Gentlemen, I accept this honor, chiefly upon the solicitation of friends, and am sorry that I did not prepare myself with a little speech for them on this occasion.

In assuming this high and responsible office, I believe, I will ever make it a point of duty to take care of the interest of the people of North Carolina. I do not mean to act the part of the partisan in this office. Of course, when I have patronage to bestow, other things being equal, I shall give such patronage to party friends judiciously and in a manner consistent with the privileges of my office.

I shall endeavor to discharge my duties to the best of my ability. When I cannot fill the office from my own party, acceptably to myself, I shall then consider it my duty to select a good man from the opposite party, and I know that every good and true Republican in the State of North Carolina will approve my determination in this respect.

I hope, however, that I will be able to find in our own party intelligent, well educated and honest men enough to fill these offices. I desire in conclusion to tender to you, and through you, to the people of North Carolina, my most sincere thanks for the generous manner in which you bestowed your suffrages upon me for the highest office within the gift of the people, and to give the assurance that in the discharge of my duties, I shall have an eye single to the interests of my beloved State and to all her citizens without regard to party.

Let me repeat in part, my criticism, I bespeak in advance a fair hearing and honest judgment from the public—I am now, may it please your Honor, ready to take the oath of office."

At the conclusion of the address, Hon. Thomas Settle, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, proceeded to formally qualify the following officials: T. R. Caldwell, Governor; D. A. Jenkins, State Treasurer; T. L. Hargrove, Attorney General; Subsequently Hon. S. W. Watts, Judge of the Supreme Court, qualified W. H. Hower, Sec. of State, and Silas Burns, Superintendent of Public Works.

The Lieutenant Governor, Curtis H. Brodgen, and John Riley, Auditor, did not put in an appearance, for reasons we know not.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction elect, Rev. James Reid, having died, the office will be filled by appointment of the Governor.

The Treasurer is the only officer of the outgoing Administration who retains his office, if we may except the Governor, who was elected 1 1/2 years ago and succeeded to the gubernatorial chair by reason of the impeachment and removal of Gov. Holden.

Gov. Caldwell has, we learn, re-appointed J. B. Neatherly, Private Secretary, S. M. Parish, of this city, holds the appointment of Chief Clerk of the Secretary of State's office. We understand that no change will be made in the clerkships of the Treasury Department.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 31.—All the shore ice below Wolf river disappeared during last night. A large quantity of ice is running in the river and it is believed that the gorge at Randolph is broken, but the ice has softened so much that no further damage is apprehended. Boats at the levees are loading and preparing to leave.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 31.—Early this morning the ice broke the steamers Mountain Boy, Messenger and Grey Eagle loose from the foot of Walnut street wharf and carried them down on the main line wharf boat at the foot of Vine street, sinking the Mountain Boy and damaging the other two boats.

The Mountain Boy is sunk to her boiler deck and is being held up by ice. She is valued at nine thousand dollars, and is now being wrecked.

The Messenger is crowded between the Mountain Boy and Grey Eagle and has both sides and her after guards broken in and her cylinder cracked. She is in a bad condition and it is very doubtful if she can be saved.

NOON DISPATCHES.

The Louisiana Muddle.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—The World says that several of the Sub-Committee of the Louisiana delegation are still in this City, and are daily receiving assurances that the people of the North are beginning thoroughly to understand their cause and the situation of affairs in Louisiana. They pronounce several telegrams from New Orleans, by way of Washington, which assert that the people of New Orleans and Louisiana have quietly acquiesced in the situation nature.

A Tribune Washington dispatch says: Some Louisiana liberals are now in this City discussing the shortest way out of the political muddle in that State. They say that matters have become so much mixed up there that they can see no method of remedy except in some sort of reconstruction. They propose that Congress shall pass a resolution declaring that a Republican form of Government shall no longer exist in Louisiana, and that it then proceed to order a new election. The Sun to-day calls upon Congress to make thorough investigation into the Louisiana case when it re-assembles. The Sun relates the assertion that "it is useless to investigate the causes of the quarrel in Louisiana, and says this disposition to shirk from the discharge of a great duty like that which has arisen in that State is an alarming sign of the times. So that to say that a thorough discussion of this Louisiana business will do no good is simply an excuse for neglecting a duty whose performance requires skill and nerve."
