LOCAL BRIEFS.

The brick row of law offices on Fayetteville are receiving a much needed coat of paint.

The News Office returns thanks to P. F. Pescud & Son, Insurance Agents, for Almanacs, blotters, &c.

If there was not a feast of reason at the hop Wednesday evening there was certainly a flow of champagne.

Wilmington street wasn't worth a cent in a local point of view yesterday. Only one light and one runaway took place.

Prof. Hicks has located himself permanently in the Court House in this city, where he can be found with his medicines at any time.

A gentleman having many years experience as an engineer wishes to procure employment in taking charge of some stationary engine. Address this office.

Wayne Aleott, the popular family grocer on Fayetteville street, receives every day the finest Norfolk oysters, which he sells out rapidly at $1.30 per gallon.

Williamson, Upchurch & Thomas wholesale grocers and commission merchants, Martin street, advertise a number of prime articles. This firm is composed of popular gentlemen and merchants of large experience.

We are glad to say that the morals of this city are getting in a more healthy condition. Yesterday morning the Police Court had not a single case to pass upon. As a Christian we rejoice in this, but as a "local" we haven't words adequate to express our disgust.

We direct the attention of the reader to the advertisement of Blandy's Steam Engine Works, Zanesville, Ohio. Mr. W. C. Morgan, a clever and reliable gentleman, is now in the city, representing the interest of the company. His representations can be safely relied on.

Our commission merchants are doing a driving trade in a small way. A prominent firm on Fayetteville street received yesterday on consignment, one lot of produce as follows: 14 live partridges, 6 cleaned rabbits, 6 bags of walnuts, 3 bags of hickory nuts, 11 rabbit skins and 4 bundles of lightwood.

SUPREME COURT.—The Court met at 9 o'clock, all the justices present. Appeals from the 1st District were taken up as follows:

Jno. L. Hinton, vs. B. F. Whitehurst, Administrator, et al., from Pasquotank. Case argued. Messrs. Smith & Strong for plaintiff and Batchelor Son & Co., for defendant.

W. B. Ferris vs. N. C. Home Insurance Co., from Camden. Case argued. Messrs. Batchelor Son & Co. for plaintiff and Battle & Son, and Smith & Strong for defendants.

Appeals from the 2d District will be taken up to-day.

SOUTHERN MAGAZINE.—The January number of this popular periodical has been received. The Southern has achieved a wide reputation for excellence, and now ranks high among the most prominent magazines of the country.

Both in a typographical and literary point of view it has claims upon the patronage of the public.

The subscription per year is only $4. Address Turnbull Brothers, No. 8, Charles street, Baltimore, Md.

MEETING OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE UNIVERSITY.—There will be a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the University of the State in this city, on the 29th inst., at 3 P. M. A full and prompt attendance is desired. The advertisement is in today's issue.

FILED HIS PETITION.—Nathan B. Toler, Esq., of Johnston county, filed his petition in bankruptcy in the office of the Register in this city yesterday.

LEE MEMORIAL.—A lack of space has heretofore prevented us from publishing the following. We hope all of our State papers will give it an insertion in their columns:

RICHMOND, Jan. 1, 1873. To the ladies of the South and all others who wish to do honor to the memory of the late General Robert E. Lee.

At a meeting of the Virginia Division of the Army of Northern Virginia, held at Richmond, October 31, 1872, the following resolutions, offered by Lieut. General J. A. Early, were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the sarcophagus, now in course of preparation by our Virginia artist Valentine, to be placed over the tomb of General Robert E. Lee, at Lexington, Va., commends itself to special favor as promising, from the beauty of its design and the skill of the sculptor, to be a worthy memorial of our departed chief.

Resolved, That for the purpose of assuring and expediting the completion of this noble work of art, to be placed, as a fitting token of a whole people's love and homage, above the ashes of their departed hero, we recommend to the ladies of the South to hold memorial meetings on the next anniversary of the birth of General Lee (Monday, January 20th, 1873) and to take such measures as shall to them seem best for collecting money on that day to be specially appropriated to the decoration of his tomb by the erection of the said sarcophagus.

Resolved, That Ezercent George L. Christian, of Richmond, Va., be, and he is hereby, appointed an agent to receive from all sources such contributions as may be made for the purpose of carrying out the intention of the foregoing resolutions, and that he advertise through the public press for this purpose.

It is earnestly hoped and expected that the ladies of the South will take such steps at once as will carry into effect the duty assigned to them in the foregoing resolutions; and they are requested to transmit the proceeds resulting from their efforts to the undersigned. Contributions are also earnestly solicited for the purpose above mentioned from all who love and wish to do honor to the memory of our great chieftain. All contributions and communications should be addressed to:

GEORGE L. CHRISTIAN, Secretary Virginia Division Army Northern Virginia, Richmond, Va. All newspapers throughout the country favorable, are most earnestly requested to insert the foregoing.

SUPREME COURT.—The business of the Court yesterday was occupied entirely in the trial of the three colored men, charged with burglary in entering the store house of Mr. Hicks, about four miles from this city, on the Holleman road, a full account of which was published in the News at the time of the outrage.

The evidence elicited so far is substantially the same that given before the Magistrate's Court, with the exception of that of Mr. Hicks, who was on the stand over an hour. Mr. Hicks testified that he was aroused at about 11 or 12 o'clock by a knock at the store door, (he was sleeping in the back room of the store.) Upon opening the door, three colored men came in, and one called for four pounds of meat; while he was in the act of cutting the meat, he was knocked down and became insensible. This was on Saturday night. He did not return to consciousness till Monday at 12 o'clock and the first persons he saw, after he knew anything, was Sheriff Lee, Mayor Whitaker and the reporter of the Daily News, who were standing around his bedside. He was not positive but thought the prisoner, Simpson Mordecai, was one of the three that entered the room. The other portion of his evidence was fully corroborated by that of other witnesses given at the Magistrate's Court. The case is one of much interest and the very best legal talent of the city is represented pro and con. Messrs. Cox and A. M. Lewis for the State, and Messrs. Edwards, T. P. Devereux and J. H. Fleming for the defendants. The testimony was concluded last evening and the argument will begin at 10 o'clock this morning.

WHO IS TO BLAME.—The bridge over Walnut Creek on the Hellman road is in an almost impassable condition and whoever crosses there leaves hope on the other side. Our country friends, who are necessarily compelled to come to town by this route, are actually afraid to risk their lives over this dilapidated and worn out structure.

Somebody is to blame for this gross neglect of duty and, as we have repeatedly called the attention of the proper authorities, whoever they are, to the condition of this bridge and nothing has been done, we now respectfully call the attention of the grand jury that they may ferret out this wanton neglect and find out who is to blame.

A NEW TRADE.—Since the renting of the market stalls, several booths have been erected at various places on the streets, where several of our old stall-keepers, who were unable to pay the high prices for stalls in the market house, have erected a very conveniently arranged booth on the corner of Wilmington and Hargett streets, where he keeps on hand, at all times, the celebrated Rock Island oysters, fresh fish and wild ducks, &c., &c.

SOCIAL PARTY.—One of the most pleasant, agreeable and enjoyable affairs of the season was the social party at the residence of Jacob S. Allen on Wednesday night. We attended, (of course,) took a hand "in a game we did not understand" and, as a consequence, came out as the beaten Chinese, on the bottom. When and where will the next of these pleasant sociables occur. Give us a showing.

CITY FINANCES.—The finances of our city, of which much has been said and little known, being a matter of general interest to our whole people, and regarding it our duty to shed as much light thereon as in our power to obtain, yesterday wrote a letter to our City Treasurer asking a written report of the same for publication. In accordance therewith the prompt and efficient Treasurer, Mr. Churchill, sends us the following which is a copy of his regular QUARTERLY REPORT.

From July 1st, 1872, to January 1st, 1873, there has been paid into the City Treasury:

By M. Gramman, Collector, $22,722 16 By Jas. C. King, Clerk of Market, 3,982 21 By Alvin Sorrell, Weigh Master, 83 67 By B. H. Dabson, Assistant Chief of Police, 20 00 By reading of Municipal Hall, 622 68

Total amount of Revenue collected from July 1st 1872, to January 1st 1873, $27,608 72

The greater portion of the above was paid in city scrip and past due bonds. I have borrowed from the Raleigh National Bank (as per order of the Board of Finance) $7,500 00 Of which amount I have paid back 3,000 00 Leaving a balance due Bank of $4,500 00 I have issued Bonds to the amount of $25,000 00

The greater portion of these bonds were used in funding city warrants, and taking up past due bonds, also $2,000 of the $25,000 were issued to the Raleigh Cemetery Association. The funds accruing from the portion sold was applied to paying city employees and Bank obligations, also $1,000 for Rescue Steam Fire Engine.

The small amount of money received from the different collecting officers of the city has been applied to paying July interest on City Bonds, and $500 for new Hook and Ladder Truck, and interest on Bank debt.

I have received from the Ex-Treasurer, on settlement, $4,981.31, making the sum total for which I am accountable, $60,244.03. I am happy to state that I have city warrants, bonds, &c., on hand sufficient to make a full settlement with the January interest on the one, two and three year bonds will be paid in a few days. M. W. CRUNCHILL, City Treasurer.

STATE ITEMS.—From the columns of that sprightly paper, the Roanoke News, we glean the following:

The new railroad bridge over the Roanoke, at Weldon, is about to wash away. A negro was shot at Crowell's X Roads, Halifax county, the other day while attempting to commit burglary.

No new cases of small pox in Weldon. It is reported that several cases have appeared in the neighborhood of Littleton.

Our readers will recollect the case of a young man who was shot, a month or more ago, while attempting to enter the house of Mr. H. D. Ponton, near here. He was shot in the left arm, which was amputated, and he was then confined in Halifax jail to await trial for burglary.

The wounded arm had measurably healed under the care of Dr. O'Brien, of Halifax, and he was thought to be doing well. For a week or more past, he has been perceptibly declining, refusing sustenance for some days. He died some time during last week, from some disease superinduced, it was thought, by his refusal to take food. When he found he was slowly but surely dying, he asked to see Sheriff Reid, saying he had something to tell him. Unfortunately the Sheriff was away and did not reach him before he died. We learn, however, that he relieved his burdened heart to a fellow prisoner, making some startling disclosures, as to the existence of a regular organized band of robbers in this section, of which he was an important member. We have suspected, and so stated, that such a band was in force in our county and the dying man's statement confirms our suspicions. The band was composed, so he stated, of some five or six negroes and white men, who had a camp near Ponton's residence. The negro prisoner, to whom the ante mortem statement was made, could not recollect all, but told sufficient, and gave names to implicate two or three notorious negroes who are well known around Weldon.

PREMIUMS AWARDED.—The Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society has awarded the following premiums for field crops:

Irish Potatoes: To James Norwood, Orange county, for the best yield on one acre, 323 bushels of early Goodrich; $15.

Mountain Evergreen: To James Norwood, Orange county, for best yield on four acres, 16,000 pounds; $30.

Rye: To James Norwood, Orange county, for best yield on one acre, 39 bushels; $25.

Red Clover: To James Norwood, Orange county, for best yield on four acres, 27,000 pounds; $30.

Sweet Potatoes: A. N. Betts, Wake county, for best yield on four acres, 174 bushels; $20.

Oats: To James Norwood, Orange county, for best yield on one acre, $20. There were some affidavits concerning other crops, but as they did not come up to the required standard, no premiums were awarded.

SMALL POX IN FRANKLIN.—From a private letter to a gentleman in this city from Louisa, we glean the latest small pox items:

The disease is in eight miles of Louisa. About twenty five cases have occurred, nine of which proved fatal. The names of the parties that have died are as follows: Mr. Dorrill, the man that brought the disease in the county; four of Mr. Roger's family; two of Mr. Gann's; one of Mr. Dickinson's and a son of Mr. Andrew Jackson. There is still much alarm and apprehension manifested by the people, especially the citizens of Louisa.

It is hoped that its spread will be arrested, as every effort is being made towards that end.

ENTERTAINMENT AT OAK CITY HALL FRIDAY EVENING.—In compliance with the request of many citizens, Hickman Lodge No. 1, Good Templars, will repeat, with slight variations, the entertainment which they gave during the Christmas holidays this evening, at Oak City Hall.
