OXFORD ITEMS. -Our Oxford corresinst, sends us the following:

The two tobacco ware-houses at Oxford are driving a good business. We heard a prominent farmer, who sold his tobacco at Taylor's ware-house, say Local Column will be charged Fif- that he received more for it than the "price he had fixed on in his mind as what it was worth or ought to bring," and at Osborn's ware house a small lot, belonging to Mr. Wm. K. Jenkins, brought one hundred and seventy five dollars per hundred pounds.

Mr. A. E. Henderson, a promising young lawyer of this county, has lately become a citizen of Oxford. He is a member of the distinguished family of Henderson, many of whom, by their superior mental endowments, have written their names high in the niche of fame in several States of the Union, and a descendant of the gifted Judge Henderson for many years a judge of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, whose legal opinions, not to say legal intuitions, were equally as remarkable for their sound common sense, as for their keen penetration.

Dr. E. W. Owen has rented a portion of the Osborn House as a residence for his family. He has also rented an office at the Osborn House, to be used for the convenience and accommodation of those who may require his professional

THE BENEFIT OF ADVERTISING .-Mr. W. L. Montague, who yesterday morning advertised in the News that he would do glass gilding in the city for a few days, came in our office yesterday afternoon "to congratulate us," he said, "upon the value of our paper." He had received a large number of orders during the morning.

Some several days since a firm in Norfolk advertised in the News for a partner in North Carolina with $5,000 T U C K E R H A L I or $10,000 capital. Within three days we received a letter from a responsible party desiring to invest in the place. Who will say that advertising in the News don't pay.
