THE WESTERN ROAD.—We publish in our columns by special request a communication signed "The West" criticizing Gen. Mahone's purposes in regard to the Western North Carolina Road. We do not approve of the article as we have no evidence of Gen. Mahone's designs in the premises. We do not doubt that the Southern Security Company, the Pennsylvania Central and Mahone have an eye to their own interests and care but little about the interests of North Carolina. We have no sympathy with any of their schemes, and we ask the Legislature to do all in their power to protect the State's property from sacrifice and ruin.

BISHOP ATKINSON'S APPOINTMENTS.—Flemington, February 16; St. Mary's, Orange county, March 8; Hillsboro, March 9; Greensboro, March 11.

PATRICK MCGOWAN, ESQ., KEEPER OF THE CAPITOL.

As our readers will readily remember, Mr. Gorman one of the Representatives of this county in the House, some days since offered a resolution raising a Joint Select Committee to investigate certain charges against this official of malfeasance in office. The Committee was appointed and an investigation gone into. The report of the Committee, submitted in the House yesterday by Mr. Gorman, fully acquits Mr. McGowan of the charges made against him. Here is the report:

"The Committee respectfully beg leave to report that under the general charge in the resolution of malfeasance in office, there were five distinct specifications brought to the notice of the Committee, all of which were carefully noticed and witnesses qualified and examined on both sides to the number 13; and upon the evidence adduced they unanimously agree that it is the bounden duty of the Committee to fully acquit Patrick McGowan, Keeper of the Capitol, from any malfeasance in office on all of the charges brought against him.

Your Committee, however, beg leave to state further that some irregularities do exist as to the affairs of the keeping of the Capitol and Capitol grounds, and although, according to evidence brought before the Committee, these irregularities existed to a much smaller extent under the management of the present Keeper of the Capitol than heretofore, yet they feel it to be their duty to recommend some amendment to the law for the government of the Keeper of the Capitol.

(Signed)—Thomas A. Nicholson, of the Senate, Jas. C. Gorman and W. S. Carter of the House.

THE RICHMOND AND LOUISVILLE MEDICAL JOURNAL FOR JANUARY, 1873.

This able publication is on our table. It is published in Louisville, Ky., and is edited by the distinguished E. S. Gaillard, M. D., Professor of the Principles and Practice of Medicine in the Louisville Medical College, assisted by a corps of Associate Editors of marked ability, among whom we recognize the name of Dr. W. A. B. Norcom, of this State. This Journal justly stands at the head of American Medical Monthlies, and the name of the distinguished Gaillard as its Editor is a sufficient guarantee to all Southern gentlemen as to its ability and value. He will be pleasantly remembered by the veteran soldiers of the Army of Northern Virginia, as their Medical Director, who, in the discharge of his duties, lost his right arm at the battle of Seven Pines, by the side of his commanding General, Joseph Johnston. The medical profession of the South will be pleased to see the face of the distinguished southern physician, Dr. J. Marion Sims, whose portrait embellishes this number. We cordially recommend the Richmond and Louisville Journal to the medical profession of North Carolina. It is the largest Medical monthly published in the Union. Terms, $5.00 per annum. Address E. S. Gaillard, M. D.

OUR GARRISON.—It is with much pleasure that we publish below the testimonial of Mayor Whitaker, as to the orderly character of the troops now on garrison duty in this city, at Camp Russell:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, City of Raleigh, Feb. 10, 1873.

I was present at St. John's Catholic church yesterday, and was gratified to hear the Rev. Father, J. V. McNamara testify, publicly, his thanks to the Catholic soldiers now encamped near the city, for their manifestations of their love for him, in their liberal donations for the cause of religion, and for their general good deportment as christians.

I must be allowed to add my tribute of respect to the soldiers for their good conduct since they have been among us. I can say that I feel not only gratified at their good discipline and gentlemanly conduct, but that they have given me comparatively no trouble. I honor them as soldiers and as citizens.

The whole number of shares taken was 505, which has been reduced by forfeiture and cancellation to 422. 207 shares have been redeemed, and the total assets of the Association amount to $46,419.85. The present value of the shares is $10.

The Association is managed by the following officers: President, James H. Harris; Vice President, Norfolk Dunston; Secretary, G. W. Brodie; Treasurer, J. B. Neathery.

DEATH OF AN ESTIMABLE LADY.—The sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. Camden F. McRae, of Warrenton, N. C., reached this city yesterday morning. Mrs. McRae was a daughter of the late William Plummer, of Warrenton, a niece of Hon. W. H. Battle, and the sister of Mrs. Joseph B. Batchelor, of this city. Mrs. McRae was one of the most estimable ladies we ever knew, the pride of the circle in which she moved, and loved and esteemed by all who knew her. She leaves several children who but a few months ago, were called upon to mourn the death of their father, the Rev. Camden F. McRae, a native of Cumberland county, this State, but at the time of his death occupying an exalted position as an Episcopal minister in the State of Maryland.

SUNDAY.—The day was clear and fair but windy and cold. The congregations at the various churches were large, especially at the Baptist church, where the funeral of the late Alonzo Adams was preached by the Rev. Dr. Pritchard, the pastor. The subject of Dr. P's sermon was "Temperance," suggested, as we learn, by the relatives of the deceased of the circle in which she moved, and a quiet and not a drunken man was seen on the streets.
