We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers who are engaged in mercaptile pursuits to the card of Mr. James Y. Landis, of Oxford, N. C., who is connected with the large Notion House of Whitfield, Powers & Co., 471 Broadway, N. Y. Mr. Landis 1s a most worthy gentleman, of courteous bearing and efficiency as a salesman, has been business as druggist, to Mr. Robert E. take any other orders in the premises, representing this firm for some two or three years past, and we heartily commend him and his house to those of our merchants dealing in articles in his line, who wish to be well served. Mr. Landis refers to all the merchants at Ox ford.

MR. APPLETON OAKSMITH will, by permission, address the members of the General Assembly and the public in the Hall of Representatives on this, Saturday evening, at half-past seven, upon matters financial, personal and political, affecting the future progress and wellare of North Carolina. He hopes for a full attendanc of members and bargain in relation to a public measure. gentlemen interested in Railroad questions now the subject of legislation.

DEATH OF COL. WM. BINGHAM .-A telegram was received in this city yesterday announcing the death of the distinguished Col. Wm. Bingham, in Florida, on Thursday. Though antici- printing. pated by his friends for several months, his death has created a general gloom of melancholy over the State. No man | Printing Committee, to speak, as there was more widely known than Colonel Bingham, and the sad announcement mittee. He said the Committee in purof his death will be acceived with uni versal regret. We deter a general notice the contract with the NEWS office. He of this distinguished North Carolinian | believed the House to be satisfied with till to-morrow.

MICA MINES IN BUNCOMBE COUNTY .--A valuable mine of mica has recently been would not it they could, recede from discovered and is now being developed in the county of Buncombe on the lands of the "Blackstock Mining - Company." Great excitement now prevails in that county on this subject, and the attention of capitalists is being attracted to that country. The completion of the Railroad through that section would develope the richest mines of this and other minerals in the world. We hope something may be done by our General Assembly to hasten the completion of the Western N. C. Railroad,
