WHAT A FEW OTHERS WHO ARE USING THEM SAY OF THE ADJUSTABLE SPRING BED BOTTOM.

INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF AND DUMB AND THE BLIND, Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 25th, 1873.

After a trial of the "Adjustable Spring Bed," it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the community, as a great addition to one's comfort in sleeping.

I have used Bartlett & Pomeroy's "Adjustable Spring Bed," and with a mattress of otherwise, had it exceedingly comfortable and convenient. I think it well worth the price.

MESSRS. BARTLETT & POMEROY, GENTS: I am using your Adjustable Spring Beds, and they meet with my entire approbation. They are strong and elastic. Their cost places them within the reach of the poorest, and their luxury renders them desirable to the richest.

See the advertisement of Messrs. Julius Lewis & Co., in another column. They have doubtless the largest stock of goods in their line in the State, and any one wanting hardware of any kind should give them a call.

Now is the time to get your Corns Bunions and bad Nails cured without pain or drawing blood.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Nash square is being leveled.

The telescope man seems to be doing a brisk business.

Our merchants will soon be going after their spring stocks.

With to-day Lent begins, this being Ash Wednesday.

Edward Conigland, Esq., of Halifax, is registered at the National.

Colds are all the rage—the changeable weather is chargeable with it.

The work of tearing down the buildings upon the old Fair Grounds has commenced.

Things continue very quiet at the Police Court. Up to 6 p. m. yesterday not a case had come up.

The past two days have been cold enough to make us know that Winter has not taken its departure.

Family groceries of every kind can be obtained at the lowest prices at W. C. Stronach's. See his notice elsewhere.

The Amnesty bill will be considered in the House again this morning at 11 o'clock. A vote will probably be reached to-day.

Gov. Caldwell has so far recovered from his late illness as to be able to resume his duties at his office to-day, for the first time in some weeks.

The streets are still in a terrible condition. A good many days of dry weather is necessary to put them in anything like a passable condition.

A hair pulling took place yesterday afternoon on McDowell street, between two colored women. Both were slightly under the influence of bust-head.

The present authorities of the Penitentiary have been asked to name a day when they will be ready to turn over the institution to the Governor's appointees.

A heavy pressure from office seekers was experienced by some of the new officials of the State institutions yesterday. One of the Board officials locked himself in his room without avail.

Senator King, who occupied his seat on Monday for the first time in some two weeks, was allowed to record his vote upon the Constitutional Amendments, voting for seven and against four.

Parties in want of buggies, phaetons or horses should visit the stables of S. M. Dunn & Co., who are selling out privately until the 8th of next month, when their entire stock will be sold at auction.

Messrs. Miller & Nelson, under the Market, has just received a nice lot of Ale, on draught, which surpasses any ever before introduced into this market. Lovers of this beverage will make a note of this.

Patrick McGowan, Esq., yesterday surrendered his position as Keeper of the Capitol to Isaac W. Rogers, the appointment of Gov. Caldwell last spring. The result of the late decision of the Supreme Court.

In the House last night the bill permitting the working of penitentiary convicts on the Western Division of the W. N. C. R. passed its second reading. The bill fixes the price for the convict labor at 40 cents per day each, besides being clothed and fed.

See the advertisement of Messrs. Julius Lewis & Co., in another column. They have doubtless the largest stock of goods in their line in the State, and any one wanting hardware of any kind should give them a call.

Now is the time to get your Corns Bunions and bad Nails cured without pain or drawing blood.

Dr. Lindman can be found at the Yarrowborough House for a few days. His charges are moderate; give him a call. Ladies attended at their residences without extra charge.

HANDSOME OFFICE.—In passing down Fayetteville street the other day our attention was attracted by the handsome and convenient manner in which the office of the Piedmont and Arlington Life Insurance Company is fitted up. The gilded lettering on the window and door, done by Mr. Montague, of Richmond, Va., is particularly well executed and presents a very handsome appearance. The arrangement of everything about the office reflects credit upon the taste of J. B. Rice, Esq., the General Agent, and W. D. Cook, the Local Agent.

THE NEW BOARDS TO OBTAIN QUIET POSSESSION.

The Caldwell Boards for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind and the Penitentiary yesterday made formal demands upon the Legislative Boards, that have been in office for the past two years, for the control of said institutions, and were informed that by the first of March possession would be given, the intervening time being desired to close up the affairs of the present Boards. No disturbance is apprehended or is likely to occur.

The Caldwell Penitentiary Board is composed of Messrs. George W. Welker, John R. Harrison, Jacob S. Allen, Alfred Dockery and Wiley D. Jones.

The Caldwell Board of the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Institution is composed of Messrs. T. F. Bunting, Albert Johnson, John Nichols and Handy Zerkert. We understand that the latter will probably be no change at present in the management of this institution.

"All is quiet along the lines."

DISCONTINUED.—It will be seen from the following communication of Senator Love, that he discontinues his subscription to our paper. We presume the Senator feels hurt because we have taken no notice of the petty spite he has exhibited towards the News since the Senatorial contest.

We shall endeavor to continue the publication of the News, notwithstanding the withdrawal of the Senator's support. Says his letter:

SENATE CHAMBER, RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 25th, 1873.

DEAR SIR: It is so palpably evident that I am not to have the least measure of justice through your columns, I wish you to discontinue sending the News to my address.

You can use this as you wish. Respectfully, W. L. LOVE.

OPERATION PERFORMED.—Yesterday a painful, but we are glad to say successful, operation was performed on Mrs. W. J. Edwards, the unfortunate lady who was burned so severely some weeks ago. She has been a great sufferer ever since the accident occurred, and it became necessary to amputate her hand just above the wrist. The operation was performed under the supervision of Drs. W. H. McKee, F. J. Hayward, Jr., W. Royster and James McKee. We are glad to hear that the lady's condition at present is comfortable.

THE SENATE MONDAY NIGHT.—The Senate on Monday night was engaged entirely in the consideration of private bills, passing a large number of them. Among them the Raleigh Bucket Co. No. 1. The dockets are being rapidly cleared of all bills, and there is but little doubt of the two Houses being able to adjourn on Monday next.

LECTURE ON "LOVE."—We learn that John G. Saxe, the American poet, has consented to lecture in this city on the 24th of March, on the subject of "Love." As many of our young people feel a little interested in this subject, we predict for the lecturer a good audience in advance.

ESCAPED FROM JAIL.—Wm. Bragg, who shot a Mr. Vaughan, killing him, in Franklin some time last fall, and who has since been imprisoned in the Franklin jail, awaiting trial next month, and who endeavored to burn his way out of jail some two months ago, made his escape from the jail on Thursday night last by picking up the bricks. He is now at large.

CORRECTION.—Hon. B. F. Moore's subscription to the New Fair Grounds was one hundred dollars, instead of ten as was stated. Mistakes will occur.

Public Meeting in Graniteville.

At a public meeting held at the Court House, at Oxford, on Friday the 21st of February.

On motion of Col. James S. Ames, Maj. James T. Littlejohn was called to the Chair and T. T. Grandy was appointed Secretary. The purpose of the meeting was to manifest opposition to the dismemberment of the county by taking off a part of Graniteville county, and attaching it to Franklin.

On motion the Chairman appointed John W. Hays, J. G. Jones and S. S. Haischeck, a committee to draw up a memorial to the House of Representatives urging the defeat of the scheme in question, which it was stated had passed the third reading in the Senate. On further motion, it was desired that the Chairman be added to the Committee.

J. T. LITTLEJOHN, Chairman. T. T. GRANDY, Secretary.

LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, Feb. 24th, 1873. NIGHT SESSION.

According to adjournment, Mr. Speaker Robinson called the House to order at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Moring recorded his vote in the affirmative on the Constitutional amendments.

The bill to supply the casual deficit in the Treasury passed its several readings.

The bill to incorporate the Haw River and New Hope Transportation and Manufacturing Company passed its several readings.

The bill to incorporate the Raibon Gap Short Line Railway Company passed its several readings.

The bill to amend the charter of the Halifax and Scotland Neck Railroad passed its several readings.

Mr. Bennett, from the Joint Committee on the Western North Carolina Railroad Company, submitted a report from said Committee, which was ordered to be transmitted to the Senate with a proposition to print.

The bill to allow a special tax in Beaufort county passed its several readings.

The bill to abolish the Scotch Fair, near Laurel Hill, Richmond county, passed. Adjourned.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, February 25, 1873.

Senate called to order at 10 o'clock. Lieutenant Governor Brogden in the Chair. Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Mr. Flemming presented a petition from citizens of McDowell relating to the Marion and Asheville Turnpike, praying for relief for John Doves.

Mr. Dunham said, I was absent from my seat on Saturday last, and I ask the permission of the Senate to record my vote upon the resolution removing the disabilities of W. W. Holden. In explanation of my vote, I desire to say that I voted for the Amnesty bill, because I believed it to be a measure promotive of the prosperity and happiness of the whole people of North Carolina, and I do not deem it inconsistent now to vote against the resolution in question. In the first place, I doubt the power of the General Assembly to do the thing provided for in the resolution. In addition to that I recognize this distinction between the cases covered by this resolution and the Amnesty bill. The persons granted amnesty in the latter were private citizens, charged, it is true, with offenses against the criminal law of the State which offenses were the outcome in the great degree of the disturbing causes mentioned by the Senator from Orange; the disposal of Gov. Holden was a punishment imposed for grave and dangerous breaches of a high public trust. The sentence of the Court of Impeachment was directed against the officer, and not the individual, and as I do not consider that sentence unmerited or severe, I can not give my support to a resolution looking to its reversal. I vote "no" on the resolution.

Mr. Seymour having also been absent on Saturday from sickness, was granted leave to record his vote upon the same resolution, and voted "aye."

Reports from Standing Committees were reported by Messrs. Cunningham, Love, Avera, Welch, Murray, Seymour, Murphy, Fleming and Harris. Harris, colored, arose to a question of personal privilege, to correct an error in the DAILY NEWS of Sunday morning, in stating his position concerning the removal of Governor Holden's disabilities. The News Reporter made him say that he was present at the meeting in which it was reported that Senator Pool advised Governor Holden to arrest leading citizens and force them, and that "he knew that such a course was advised by Mr. Pool." He wished to say that the Reporter had unintentionally, he knew, made him say just the opposite to what he did say—he did not hear any such advice given. [In justice to the Senator, we would say that the fault was with our Reporter, who unintentionally mistated him.—Ed. News.]

The same Senator referred to the "invidious distinction" made by the Reporters in attaching the word colored to the names of the negro members of the Senate. They "had been treated courteously by both the press and the Senators upon the floor, and he hoped the day had arrived when such distinction should not be carried out by the press." [We have invariably treated the colored members of the two Houses with the same courtesy as other members, but deeming that no injustice is done by making the "invidious distinction" alluded to by the Senator from Wake.—Ed. News.]

Mr. Troy introduced a bill to incorporate the Cumberland Savings Bank. Referred.

Bill providing for the biennial election of officers of the General Assembly was taken up and referred to Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Bill amending an act in relation to laying off the personal property exemptions was considered, said amendment provides that where any person has had his homestead laid off in accordance with the provisions of the present exemption act, shall not thereafter be vacated, set aside, or again laid off by any other judgment creditor, for whom a levy shall be made, except for fraud, complicity of other irregularity. It was discussed by Messrs. Norwood, Troy, Merrimon, Love, Respass, Flemming, Ellis, of Columbus, and Avera, and Worth.

Mr. Merrimon moved the indefinite postponement of the bill. Lost.

Mr. Cowles moved as an amendment that this act shall not apply to homesteads in real property that may increase in value to $1,500 or more. Lost.

The previous question being ordered, the bill passed its second reading by 22 yeas, 21 nays.

The bill being placed upon its third reading, passed by a vote of 23 yeas to 18 nays.

A motion to reconsider the vote just taken, and to lay the said motion on the table, prevailed.

The bill for carrying out the provisions of an act incorporating the Marion and Asheville Turnpike came up as special order. The said bill requires an appropriation of some $10,000 or $15,000 to pay for work already done under the provisions of the act alluded to.

Messrs. Morehead, of Guilford, Durham, Morehead, of Rockingham, King and Norwood opposed the passage of the bill upon the ground that the Treasury of the State was today unable to appropriate this sum for any purpose, said Messrs. Merrimon, Gudge, Seymour and Flemming warmly favored its passage as but simply an act of justice to the people of the counties through which this road runs.

Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, in subsequent remarks, stated that as a matter of right the script holder of this Turnpike Company had no claims upon the State, as no constitutional guarantee of the State had ever been given for the construction of this road.
