CAPTIONS OF ACTS AND RESOLUTIONS.

FRIDAY ...

The NEWS will publish as soon as possible Captions to the Acts and Resolutions of the General Assembly passed ·during the session just closing. Persons wanting copies will notify us at once. We will furnish them at $1 per | regulations prescribed by law. hundred. Any of the State papers wanting them can be furnished by giv ing us notice at once.

FIGHTING IN NEW ORLEANS. The Louisiana difficulties have at last culminated in bloodshed.

It will be seen from our dispatches this morning, that the police and military had a fight in New Orleans yesterday, during which one man was killed and several wounded.

The noon reports are too meagre to give a correct idea of the immediate origin of the disturbance, or to whom the blame should be attached. We will probably get farther particulars in our midnight dispatches.

other States have noticed favorably the resolutions introduced in the Legislature by Mr. Johnston, of Buncombe, providing for the holding of a centennial exhibition at Charlotte, on the 20th of May, 1875, in honor of the Mecklenburg Declaration. The Virginia and New York papers have commended the any limitation of taxation, the same is proposition as honorable to our State, and as appropriate to an event in history which is in the highest degree owned by individuals. worthy of observance and commemoration.

We trust that the State press will keep this subject before their readers, until a general interest is enlisted in the patriotic enterprise, which is destined

The Revenue Act. The following is a carefully prepared synopsis of the Act to raise Revenue, recently adopted by the Legislature and arranged by Mr. Spelman, the Senate Reporter of the Sentinel, its entire provisions being brought within a convenient compass. The synopsis will be found very convenient for reference : SECTION 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, That the taxes hereinafter designated, payable in the existing national currency, shall be assessed and collected under the rules and EDUCATIONAL. - (See School Law.)

NOT REMARKABLE.

We have failed to make any comments on the President's inaugural, for the reason that it is not a remarkable decument-except for its egotism and for its want of enunciation of any statesmanlike doctrines.

discuss, or worthy of public considera- tion by way of expense shall be : tion.

The President is no statesman and cannot lay any claim to the title. He is a soldier by education and profession and it is perhaps too much to expect trom him that love of civil liberty and that policy of subordinating the military to the civil power which constitutes the ornament of every Republican government Grant is a tool of the extremists of the Radical school, but we believe he is a better man than most of his advisers.

THE TROUBLES IN SPAIN. The Republic in Spain, from present indications, seems destined to be shortlived.

The Catholic Church, which exerts a great influence in the nation, is said to be much devoted to the monarchy, and the general feeling among all classes, except in the cities and towns, is represented by recent travelers as being decidedly in favor of Alphonso.

The fact that the new government has recently called for reinforcements to put down insurrections at different points, shows that the disaffection towards the Republic has produced formidable opposition among the masses, which is likely to lead to serious consequences.

Dangers and difficulties beset the Republic of Spain at the outset, and we have no faith in its permanency.

THE STATE DEBT.

Our esteemed cotemporary, the Charlotte Democrat, seems inclined to berate the Legislature on account of its refusal to make any arrangement for the settlement of the State debt.

We think the Democrat, upon consideration of all the facts in the case. will concur with us, that it was not in the power of the Legislature to do much towards relieving the people of their pecuniary burdens, in view of the very stringent language of the Constitution on the subject.
