MORNING EDITION.

The Raleigh Daily News.

FRIDAY, MARCH 14, 1873.

LOCAL MATTER.

E. C. WOODSON, City Editor.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Raleigh Club is still in a flourishing condition.

A number of merchants are at the North selecting their spring stocks.

We hear of a number of new buildings soon to be commenced in the city.

Our peripatetic local returned home yesterday evening from Louisville.

The State Departments yesterday could furnish us with no items of public interest.

Cotton has had a "black eye" for some days, which has caused a depression in the cotton market of Raleigh.

A good quality of cotton was yesterday worth 17 1/2 cents in the Raleigh market.

Mr. W. K. Crawford will have at his store this morning one of those fine mountain beavers that were seen on the streets Wednesday.

Prof. Stevens will lecture at Peace Institute to night at 8 o'clock. Subject—The Poet and the Philosopher. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

We had a visit yesterday from Mr. M. J. McSwain, of the Fayetteville Eagle. Remor has it that he is on his way to Tennessee to capture one of the fair daughters of that State.

The lumber for the Fair Grounds fence has arrived upon the ground, and the fence will soon be erected. We are informed by the Building Committee that the character of the lumber is most excellent.

We had the pleasure of seeing in our office yesterday Mr. W. C. Troy, Senator from Cumberland county, who was paying a brief visit to Raleigh. Mr. Troy is one of the most efficient and energetic members of the Legislature.

"All quiet along the lines," was the report yesterday from the different State Institutions which have recently changed hands under orders from the Supreme Court. The exchange of officials was made without any bloodshed.

Persons indebted to the late firm of Bucklew & Laswell are requested to call on Capt. J. F. Laswell, at Miller's & Nelson's saloon, under the market, and receive receipts for their indebtedness, as business must be settled here in five days.

The epitomized report of the resolutions and acts passed at the session of the Legislature just closed, published by the News this week, is one of the most complete things of the kind ever gotten up in this State, occupying fourteen columns of the Daily.

HERE AND THERE.—A magnanimous witness in Iowa postponed his wedding twenty-two hours to accommodate the court.

The season for keeping diaries begins with the first of the year, and lasts up to about the first week in February.

A female lecturer says that the only decent thing about Adam was a rib, and that went to make something better.

A California widow, just before committing suicide, wrote to a friend that "it nearly killed her to leave her poor children."

A lively young lady says it's all a mistake about her not taking an interest in married gentlemen, for she does—in those whose wives are dead.

One of the numerous lessons of the Credit Mobilier developments is that loud and patriotic parents should be careful about leaving their offspring after public men.

Fashionable mimners tell us that the Spring bonnet will be a modification of the style now in vogue, and that long trailing veils are to be the most conspicuous trimming.

A farmer's wife in Dakota thoughtlessly sent a bundle of old letters to stuff up a crack in her cabin, and the farmer is now in search of the writer of them with a shot gun.

Butcher, the New York moulder of fashion, and shoulder padder, says gentlemen's overalls for parties will be cut more ostentatious than shorts, and short ones will, when wanting, let out their suspenders a couple of inches.

Milton Harrington, of Falmouth, Ky., last week swallowed ten pounds of oysters in less than a quarter of an hour, for which a notorious performance the local press very properly thinks he ought to be ostracized from decent society.

A fair contributor to the religious press feels it her bounden duty to insist that the "big game" in schools should be placed under the supervision of lady teachers, for whom they would be likely to entertain a "love and reverence" which might prevent them from forming true alliances with "unworthy wives."

Mr. Berg, president of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, was kicked the other day by a male which he and protected. It was where his place, and set quite sure that the male fully appreciated the extent of his ingratitude, we should like to abolish the society or resign.

FUNERAL NOTICE.—The funeral of Mrs. Narcissa Hutchings, wife of C. W. Hutchings, Esq., will take place from Edgerton street Methodist church on Saturday morning at 11 o'clock.

THE BERGER FAMILY.

This Company, as already announced, will perform here on next Monday and Tuesday nights.

They have been in Wilmington this week, and have given universal satisfaction. Here is what the Wilmington papers say of them:

"An entertainment so chaste and refined as was witnessed in the appearance of the above family on our boards last evening, will rarely admit of discrimination in favor of one more than another. Many new and attractive features have been added to the company since their last appearance here, which now classifies it among the leading musical organizations of its character upon the stage. Miss Knapp, the leading vocalist, has an elegant soprano voice, well understood, clear and distinct and melodiously rich in tone. Mr. Ernest Thiele is a success as a master of the violin, and in his rendition of the 7th air DeSeroit we imagined him as a successful competitor of the honors of the world renowned Ole Bull. The Cornet solo, 'La Mabelle,' as performed by Miss Anna Berger, drew forth loud and continued applause. Miss Etta Berger with her silver staff and crystal chimes, also added much to the success of the entertainment. The Piccolo duo by Miss Thiele and Mr. Henry Berger was received with much applause. The original character, songs and comic specialties of Mr. Sidney Frank, at once classed him as an agreeable and entertaining feature of the evening. Mr. Frank will fill the vacancy of Sol Smith Russell, and is especially fine in his facial contortions as well as a success as a comic songster."

Wilmington Journal.

A large audience greeted the appearance of the celebrated Berger Family of Swiss Bell Ringers, at the Opera House last evening. The entertainments of the Troupers are a novelty in the musical line, as well as refined and classical, and the audience manifested their appreciation by frequent cheers. The principal feature of the evening's entertainment were the bell performances of the Berger Family, which received their full share of well-merited applause.

The performances of Mr. Ernest Thiele prove that gentleman a violinist of marked ability. His piccolo duo with Mr. Henry Berger was also heartily enjoyed. The young lady performers on brass instruments deserve much praise for their efforts, which were highly creditable and warmly applauded. Miss Anna Berger deserves especial mention as the Cornet Soloist, her performances being marked with fine expression and difficult execution."—Wilmington Star.

THE YOUNG "HAMPTON" IMPOSTER.—We referred yesterday morning to the fact that a young man, representing himself as the son of General Wade Hampton had been imposing upon some of the good people of Thomasville, Davidson county, and that his real name was supposed to be "Garland Jones," the supposition being traceable to the fact that in the pocket of his overcoat, which he left behind him, was found a handkerchief marked "Garland Jones." We were informed yesterday that the young scoundrel was in this city some week or more ago, and that the handkerchief in question was stolen from a gentleman of this city boarding at the same house at which "Hampton" was stopping. We further learn that the impostor was arrested at Weldon on having played his confidence game at Portsmouth, Va., this being before he made his raids in the Warrenton section, in this place and at Thomasville. He is still at large. Let the public be on its guard against him.

MEETING OF THE CITIZENS TO-NIGHT.—The third meeting of the citizens of Raleigh will be held at Metropolitan Hall to-night to hear the reports of the various committees appointed to raise the means for prosecuting the work upon the new Fair Grounds, and to take final action in the matter. We are pleased to learn that the Committees have been encouraged since last week, and we hope to learn to-night that Raleigh has subscribed the $10,000 that was asked at her hands. When this is done, we are assured of help from other sources, and the Executive Committee will feel itself sufficiently authorized to go forward with the construction upon the magnificent plans that have been drawn up and exhibited. It is to be done, North Carolina will have State Fair Grounds second to none in the South, if it is the country.

THE EAK AND EYE.—We are pleased to learn of the success with which our young townsman, Dr. George W. Graham, is meeting his eye profession. Although the Doctor has been located in this city out a few weeks, yet he has in that time had patients from distant portions of the State, who have come here to consult him in regard to the disease he makes a specialty, to wit: those of the eye and ear.

We learn that the persons who have been treated by Dr. Graham have been either cured or benefited where there was any hope of relief.

Dr. Graham is a young gentleman of high character, and we are gratified to hear that he is receiving so much encouragement and patronage.

MESSRS. DAVIS, DRAKE & CO.—This Petersburg (Va.) house, one of the largest dry goods establishments in the South, have 15 1/2 of the most elegant spring specialties just received. A number of young men from North Carolina are connected with them. The public understand the way in which the firm eyes—they advertise regularly in the News.

M. B. L. A.—The 47th regular meeting of the Mechanics' Building and Loan Association will be held in the Court House on Friday evening, the 14th instant. Members can pay their dues to the undersigned on or before the day of meeting. Delinquents will be fined as prescribed by the by-laws of the Association.

Wm. Simpson, Secretary.

OXFORD ITEMS.

Our correspondents sends us the following under yesterday's date:

Rev. A. D. Cohen has in charge at the N. C. Orphan Asylum eighteen orphans, ten girls and eight boys. Among the boys one is named Robert Lee Parish, and another Walter Scott.

Additional accessions to the present number are expected soon. There is at present some lack of beds and bed clothing, but this difficulty will not do very soon be obviated.

The cause of the orphan's is the cause of humanity. Who will deny himself or herself the luxury of contributing something, either in money or in kind, in aid of the North Carolina Orphan Asylum. Many articles of food and clothing or small sums of money that would, in no sense, "impoverish" the giver, would tend to make comfortable and happy the little orphan children in charge of Mr. Cohen. Contributions sent to Rev. A. D. Cohen will be properly distributed or disbursed.

Rev. Dr. Wm. Tate, President of Wake Forest College, has been on a visit to Oxford. He is heartily engaged in the work of endeavoring to raise funds for the endowment of Wake Forest. We learn that he is sanguine of the ultimate result of the undertaking. Dr. Wm. Tate was for several years pastor of the Baptist church here, and is much beloved by members of other denominations than the particular one of which he is a recognized member.

Mr. Jonathan Osborn, the oldest inhabitant of Oxford, whose thigh was broken some time ago, the particulars of which were published in the News, is now quite often seen on our streets. Mr. Osborn still suffers, however, a considerable amount of pain, and the leg which was amputated is the seat of as much pain as the other.

FRANKLIN COUNTY.—We were present this week at the Spring Term of the Superior Court for Franklin county, but as we have much to write about, our space will not admit of a full article in this issue. The Court proceedings were of no special importance, the State docket being chiefly bastardy cases, assault and battery and other minor offenses.

The charge of Judge Watts was delivered before we reach the Court House, but our special Louisville correspondent, C. M. W., was on hand and will furnish us a synopsis.

In attendance upon the Court were the following members of the Bar: Thos. B. F. Moore, Gen. W. R. Cox, Maj. A. M. Lewis, John Gating, Esq., P. H. Busbee, Esq., W. Hamilton Young, Esq., of Wake. Wm. W. Eaton, Esq., Alton Cooke, Esq., of the law firm of Warren, Col. I. C. Edwards, of Granville, Capt. J. A. Davis, Chas. M. Cooke, W. K. Barham, T. T. Mitchell, W. H. Spencer and John Arrington, of Franklin.

The State docket was concluded last evening, and the civil docket being light will be finished to-day.

The Grand Jury were in session when we left yesterday morning, and it is believed that quite a number of indictments will be made. The overseer of the road from Franklin to Louisburg will get a "taste of the pic," and if justice is done, several other road overseers will be required to answer to like charges at the next term of the Court.

As before stated, we have not time or space in this issue to refer to the "Cedar Hill horse swaps," the ladies feast, the Louisburg theatre, Dant's hotel and other things, but will give in to-morrow's issue a full account.

MUSIC FOR THE 17th.—The company at Yarboro House, on St. Patrick's night, will be entertained with volunteer music of a choice character. One of Pirson's "Great Union Pianos" will be set in there by the genial Pirson, Perc, himself, and an amateur pianist of our city will do the execution in his elegant and elaborate fashion. He will be assisted by gentlemen of superior taste and proficiency, both in the vocal and instrumental order. The inimitable Vanu will just make the violin exit. The names of the other musicians are reserved for the present, on account of their perhaps pre-eminently modesty, but sure! they can make the music talk. The songs are all selected with a view to the character of the festival, and to furnish the greatest amount of enjoyment to the company. Here we note, en passant, that a few of our young gentlemen devote themselves with commendable spirit to the cultivation of their musical talents. They contribute to the pleasure of "St. Patrick's" celebration at the special request of Father McNamara, who has been invited to participate in their musical soirees, and although they simply play for their own amusement and that of their immediate friends, our citizens ought to feel thankful that we possess here a few young men who would introduce and maintain among us this taste for the better style of music.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Thursday, March 14th. Before his Honor Mayor Wesley Whitaker.

J. H. Fainst and B. G. Day, arrested by officers Durham and Manly, for disorderly conduct on the streets, were duly arraigned, and upon conviction were required to contribute to the City Treasury $5 each.

Alabama Nixon, arrested by officer Petrus, charged with stealing a white counterpane and a blue skirt from old Aunt Barbara Upchurch, was bound over to the Superior Court.

COTTON STATISTICS.—There are at present in the hands of the merchants of Raleigh, awaiting shipment, some 3,000 bales of cotton. This receipts in the city since the first of September last, has been some 19,000 bales, against 12,000 for the twelve months prior to that time, which evidences the fact that the receipts for the fiscal year, ending the first of September next, will be doubled over the preceding year. We are pleased to know that the general business of the city is increasing in the same proportion.

BOARDING HOUSE.

Mr. W. F. Higgins having been elected Steward of the Insane Asylum, and Mrs. Hoggins in consequence given up her boarding house, on the corner of Davis and Fayetteville streets, Mrs. Frederick Boyker has taken charge of the same, and will keep it open here and after this morning. A limited number of boarders and lodgers will be taken. This house is central and conveniently located.

ENTERPRISE.—We would commend to some of our merchants the example of Messrs. C. W. Grandy & Sons, Commission Merchants, of Norfolk, whose advertisements fill three columns of the DAILY AND WEEKLY NEWS.

This well known Commission House was established in Norfolk in 1845, and by promptness, honesty and enterprise has built up a trade second to none in Norfolk.

OBITUARY NOTICE.—Mrs. NARCISSE HUTCHINGS, wife of C. W. Hutchings, Esq., departed this life at her residence in this city at one o'clock on yesterday, in the 61st year of her age. By the large circle of her acquaintances, she was universally beloved for the many beautiful and engaging virtues of her character. In the varied duties of active life she was a model of tenderness and devotion. As a wife and mother she was the impersonation of duty and affection. She was a devoted Christian. The beauty of piety, in its sweetness and strength, adorned the scene of her painful sufferings, and exhibited the power of a Saviour's love to sustain the trusting soul in the darkest hour. Her soul was peace—calm, beautiful, perfect here. May the God of peace comfort her bereaved family! A. W. M.

NOON DISPATCHES.

Trouble with the English Ministry.—Arrangement to be Dissolved and a New Ministry Formed.—LONDON, March 13.—The London Journal for this morning comments at great length on the defeat of the Government on the Irish University Education bill, and speculates upon the course Gladstone will pursue. The Tories say the cabinet will probably resign to-day, and Disraeli will be called by the Queen to form a new Ministry, in which event Parliament will be dissolved and a general election ordered before July.

The Post says the government has not determined whether it will resign or dissolve the Parliament and appeal to the country, or if it will resign.

The vote on Gladstone's bill was a great surprise to the cabinet and the Liberal members of the House of Commons. The latter are desirous of upholding the Ministry by a vote of confidence. The Conservatives are unwilling to accept the responsibility of the dissolution of Parliament.

The session of the House of Commons to-day is looked forward to with great anxiety as Gladstone will be announcing the course decided upon by the Ministry.

The MODOCS and the Peace Commission—No Agreement.—SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—The Peace Commissioners have given the MODOCS up. The military is in full control.
