Fine sturgeon is now being supplied to our market. Asparagus made its appearance several days since. Fishing excursions are the order of the day, and quite the thing just now. Maj. C. M. McLeod, of Asheville, was in this city Friday. We were glad to welcome our friend H. G. Williams, Esq., of Nash, to our city yesterday. Hon. S. F. Phillips, Solicitor of Justice, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon. We learn that C. J. Rogers declines to run as an independent Republican candidate for Mayor. Elders Gold and Bodenheimer will preach in the Hall of the House of Representatives to-day at 11 a. m. Opportunities of the most ample kind will be offered to-day for a free indulgence of superfluous piety. When are the Conservatives and Democrats of this city going to hold their meetings to nominate candidates for Commissioners? The morals of our city are above par. For the past several days no cases have come up in the police court for adjudication. As the municipal election approaches candidates for Mayor are getting numerous. We hear of several coming to the surface. Names are withheld until more accurate information is received. Mr. W. B. Doub has been appointed to settle up the business of the late firm of A. G. Lee & Co. Mr. D. will continue the business at the old stand as will be seen by his advertisement in this issue. Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. have on hand the largest and most varied stock of spring and summer goods ever received by them. See their goods elsewhere, and call and see their goods. The principal point of attraction on Saturday, is in front of the auction store of E. W. Thompson, Esq., who has a happy style of crying always draw a crowd. Thomas is a young man of fine business qualifications, and we are glad to see he is receiving a liberal share of patronage. LAND FOR SALE.—A lot of land some seventy acres, located near the Insane Asylum, is advertised for sale elsewhere. It can be bought in a body or in lots to suit purchasers. PARDONED.—Yesterday the Governor pardoned Walter Whitney, colored, sentenced at the last May term of the Northampton Superior Court, 1872, to two months imprisonment for assault. FILES IN CHATHAM.—We regret to learn that the residence and out-buildings of Thos. Dowdy, Chatham county, was destroyed by fire last week. On Tuesday the dwelling house, barn, &c., of Col. James Riggs were consumed. We have no particulars in relation to these fires. PUBLIC MEETING.—We are requested to state that there will be a public meeting of the citizens of this place at Metropolitan Hall to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock. This meeting is, we understand, called by Republicans who are dissatisfied with the present administration of the city government. SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—A colored fireman of the engine Chockeyotte, on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, was knocked from the engine yesterday near Weldon, and it is supposed received fatal injuries, though at last accounts was living. His head struck a piece of timber in passing a water tank. REGISTRATION.—Yesterday the registration in the various Wards resulted as follows: Middle Ward.—Whites 4; colored 3. Western Ward.—Whites 7; colored 11. Eastern Ward.—Whites 9; colored 9. STATE OF THE THERMOMETER.—The Thermometer yesterday stood as follows at Branson's Book Store: At 9 a. m. 56 At 12 m. 58 At 3 p. m. 59 At 6 p. m. 57 (2) A pure stimulant, Century Whiskey!

WATAUGA COURT HOUSE.—Yesterday the Governor was officially informed by the Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of Watauga county, of the destruction of the Court House at Boone, together with all books, records, &c., of the county, and asking that the Secretary of State be directed to furnish new books, blanks, &c. COMMENDABLE.—Mr. A. J. Cartier, the gentlemanly agent of the Howe Sewing Machine Company of this city, has furnished to the Orphan's Asylum of Oxford, one of the excellent Howe Sewing Machines as a present from the Company. This is not the only liberal and commendable act that has been shown to our State and people by this Company, and we think our people should know and remember their friends. BAXTER, NASH & Co.—This Norfolk firm has subscribed $25 dollars to our state Fair. The firm is composed of five reliable business men, and they are never backward when called upon to assist in public enterprises. These gentlemen have a large and increasing trade in this State, and we are glad to see them exhibit this appreciation of the patronage of our people. COTTON BURN.—Yesterday, about 9 a. m., at Clayton, Johnston county, fire broke out in a pile of cotton, containing about 41 bales, belonging to A. Horne. The fire raged for about 30 minutes when it was extinguished by the exertions of the citizens of the village. About six hundred dollars worth of cotton, at present prices, was destroyed. The fire is supposed to have originated either from sparks from passing locomotives on the railroad, or the steam saw mill near by. MOSELEY'S RETREAT.—We yesterday visited the Ice Cream Saloon of Moseley, the Confectioner, on Fayetteville street, and were pleased to find that with his usual good taste, he has fitted up private rooms in a style that would do credit to Broadway. A finely carpeted room, handsomely decorated with marble-top tables and cushioned chairs, polite and attentive servants to answer calls, and every other convenience that could be furnished, renders this one of the most attractive points in the heated season to be found in the city. Our citizens should show their appreciation of a good thing by liberally patronizing this establishment. "THE PRESS AND THE PRINTER'S DEVIL."—James Barron Hope will deliver his celebrated lecture on the "Press and the Printer's Devil," in this city on Thursday, the 1st of May. Mr. Hope comes highly recommended as an orator, and our citizens may expect a rich treat on the occasion. The price of admission will be as follows: Reserved seats, 75cts. Lower floor of the Hall, 50cts. Gallery, 25cts. A liberal deduction will be made for the various schools. The tickets will be placed at the various bookstores for sale in due time. Reserved seats can be obtained at Branson's Bookstore in a few days. TUCKER'S.—By advertisement elsewhere in to-day's issue, it will be seen that the Tucker's announcement in part a few of the many articles of attraction to be found in their mammoth establishment. We stepped in yesterday to get an idea of what they did not have, (as that is easier told) but so crowded were both counters with ladies, that nobody but the old Colonel (who by the way never fails to see a man, woman or child that comes in the store, and if there is no one else to wait on them, does himself) paid us any attention. He showed us the ladies dazzer, and clab, the first a fan, and the second a parasol. The Colonel is a bachelor, and we believe enjoys the idea of introducing these female weapons in our midst. We call them weapons, because we have been more seriously injured from a lick from a fan than from a broom, but as we are a young married man, it may perhaps be better for us not to mention old matters, or we may yet get the worst of the broom stick. For bargains and cheap goods, give the Tucker's a trial. SUPERIOR COURT.—Court met yesterday at 10 a. m. The following cases were taken up: State vs. Rachel Whitaker, col., arson; arraigned, and a special venire of 50 men ordered to appear Wednesday morning at 10 a. m. CAL WAGNER'S MINSTRELS.—Last evening at Tucker Hall this troupe appeared to a good audience, and were the recipients of hearty applause. This is decidedly the best burlesque entertainment that has ever visited this section, and we have no hesitation in recommending them to public patronage wherever they may go. The troupe possesses musical talent, both vocal and instrumental, of no ordinary degree. Mr. Charles Heywood has one of the clearest and purest soprano voices, we have ever heard in a man, and his personifications of female character are most admirable. Messrs. Casfield, Booker and Wagner are all that they should be in their respective parts. In fact, the whole troupe is composed of first class talent, and each member deserves special mention. In this notice we exaggerate nothing, but only give the troupe that need of praise which their performance merits. Their songs, jests, &c., are all new, and contain nothing which can give offence to the most fastidious taste. OUR CHURCHES TO-DAY.—Divine services will be held at the following Churches to-day, (Sunday) Strangers and others in the city are earnestly and cordially invited to attend. Gentlemen ushers will be present to conduct visitors to pews which are always free. Edenton Street Methodist Church, Edenton street, Rev. A. W. Mangum, officiating. R. H. Whitaker officiating. Service at 11 o'clock a. m., and 7 1/2 p. m. EAST.—The festival of Easter forms a strange connecting link between Christianity and paganism, and the usages of its celebration have their foundation in anti-Christian ceremonies. The word itself is said to have derived its Teutonic origin from the festival of the goddess Ostara, which took place at the same season of the year, and was in fact little more than a spring-tide jubilee, expressive of joy at the resurrection of the year and the revival of beauty on the face of the earth. The Christian festival of Easter was formerly called the "Sunday of Joy," and is even now often known as "Pasch." Sunday, so called from the custom of eating and presenting on that day pasch-eggs, and representing that of the springing forth of life. This idea is by no means new, nor is it confined to any particular nationality or religion, since the Jews used to eat eggs at Passover time, and the Persians presented each other with colored eggs in spring-time. The Easter eggs of a generation ago were simple affairs, and if they failed to instil into the youthful mind any peculiarly useful lesson or inspire it with any very elevated thoughts, they at least had the merit of not depleting the parental pockets to any considerable extent. They were simply ordinary hen's eggs, around which bits of figured calico, "warranted fast colors," were closely sewed, and the thus attired eggs then hard boiled in the hottest of water upon being taken out of which and divested of their garments they were found to have printed upon them in gaudy colors the various patterns of the calico bits. To the cultured child of to-day, however, these cheap emblems of the resurrection and future life would seem but tawdry toys.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS. NOON DISPATCHES. Domestic Intelligence. WASHINGTON, April 12.—The Peace Commissioners had another talk with the Modocs. No hope of peace. The troops expect orders to move on the lava beds at any moment. Brigham Young will accompany the missionary party to Arizona. The company will be large, as they intend to assist in building the Southern Pacific Railroad. The object of the mission seems to be to obtain political control of Arizona. Jay Gould appeared before the Erie Investigation Committee. He was not aware that Tweed was employed by the Erie Company as lawyer, or that money was paid to him. Barber was engaged to go to Albany to guard against hostile legislation. He did not recollect that more money was paid to Barber during the session of the Legislature than at other times. When shown Tweed's vouchers Gould knew nothing about them. He admitted that large sums had been spent to defray election expenses. Money was applied in nearly every Senatorial District in the State. Much was charged on the books to legal expenses that went for other purposes. This he called the "India Rubber Fund." Gould was very cautious and little definite information was obtained. A meeting of the friends of the lost cabin passengers on the Atlantic, passed resolutions condemning the managers of the White Star Line for lack of energy in recovering the bodies. A Herald's Havana special says, that the Captain General states that two letters from Capespedes were found on O'Kelly's person, and that he will be treated as a spy. The political complexion of the Ohio Constitutional convention is disputed. Official returns will be required to decide. It is snowing at Philadelphia. General Sheridan's word to Captain Jack that he will not leave the lava bed region until he takes Captain Jack and his tribe with him. ALABAMA BONDS. MONTGOMERY, April 12.—The Senate passed, with amendments, the House bill confirming the sale of the Alabama and Chattanooga Railroad to the New Orleans and North Eastern Railroad Company. The House passed, with amendments, the Senate bill recalling all endorsed railroad bonds, and authorized the issue of 30 year 7 per cent. gold interest, bearing straight bonds in lieu thereof, at the rate of one thousand straight for four thousand endorsed bonds, and providing that in no event shall the obligations of the State on this account exceed eight millions. The amendments to both bills will be concurred in much to the relief of the State, whose liabilities will thus be decreased from nearly thirty millions to eighteen millions on account of railroads. The latter bill releases the State lien upon roads surrendering the endorsed bonds, but levies and annual sinking fund tax on their gross earnings to pay the bonds at maturity. SPANISH NEWS VIA PARIS. PARIS, April 12.—Maril Gerardin is dead. A dispatch says that the Carlists retreated from Puigcerda in consequence of the arrival of three columns of Spanish troops to reinforce the garison. The Carlists say they withdrew because they would not fight on Good Friday and will return. WASHINGTON ITEMS. WASHINGTON, April 12.—W. B. Jones, of Alabama, appointed Consul to Hesse Darmstadt. Special post office agent, Petherbridge, reports in favor of the immediate removal of the postmaster and deputy postmaster at Rome, Ga. Three inches of snow fell at Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES. New York Items. NEW YORK, April 12.—The District Court holds that McDonald, the alleged Bank of England forger, is legally held and remanded him to custody. Saint Mac Girardin, whose death was announced by cable this morning, was a well known French tutor, and was at one time a member of the French Assembly. The storm to-day has been one of the most severe this year. During the day hail, rain and snow fell at intervals while the wind blew in fitful gusts. The tide was very high, and at the ferries great difficulty was experienced in getting heavily laden trucks on and off the boats. Cellars along the western river front and in South street were flooded, and in some instances valuable merchandise damaged. A large fleet of vessels is detained by the storm and it is not likely the European steamers will leave port until the end of the holiday. At a meeting of the gas men last night, James Connelly, President of the State Workmen's Assembly, made a speech, in which he said that the strike had only just commenced, the gas men's organization has not been idle and will make such a hole in the ranks of the police "who clubbed and otherwise committed indignities upon them while engaged in legitimate and peaceful demonstration, within six days will suppress them." A resolution passed unanimously condemning the action of the emigration Commissioners in furnishing foreigners to take the place of the strikers. Weather Report. WASHINGTON, April 12.—For the Middle States fresh and brisk northwest winds, with steady and clearing weather and rising barometer and falling temperature. For the South Atlantic States northwesterly winds with partly cloudy and clear weather. Organ Factory Burnt. BOSTON, April 12.—The New England Organ Factory at Waltham Street, has been burnt. The loss is estimated at $25,000.

MURDER OF GENERAL CANBY. Treachery of the Modocs—Startling News From the Lava Beds. SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—A courier has arrived here from the lava beds and reports that Major General Canby and Dr. Thomas were murdered by the Modocs yesterday while holding a peace conference. LAVA BED CAMP, April 11, sic UREKA, April 12.—Yesterday afternoon five Indian and four squaws came into our camp and were made presents of clothing and provisions by the Peace Commissioners, and a message was sent out by the Commissioners asking for talk this A. M. at a point about a mile from our picket line. Later in the evening "Bogus Charley" came in and told the picket that he could take his gun, that he, "Charley," did not intend to go back any more. The picket brought him in and took him to the tent of General Canby where Charley left his gun and remained at the tent of Frank Riddle during the night. This a. m., "Boston Charley" came in and told the Commissioners that Captain Jack and five other Indians would meet the Commissioners outside our lines. "Boston Charley" and Bogus Charley mounted their horses and started for the lava beds. About an hour after their departure, Gen. Canby, Dr. Thomas, Mr. A. B. Meacham and Mr. Dyer, with Frank Riddle and his squad for interpreters, started for the place appointed. The parties arrived at the appointed place and were closely watched by the signal officer, Lt. Adams, from the signal station on the hill overlooking our camp. About a half an hour after the party had arrived, a cry from the signal station was heard, saying that the Indians had attacked the Peace Commissioners, and that an engagement had commenced between the Indian and Col. Mason. In a moment troops were under arms and deployed as skirmishers under the command of Colonel Greener, and orders were given to forward in double-quick. Then shortly after Mr. Dyer returned and told that the Indians had attacked them, and that he was the only one who had escaped, but in a few moments after Riddle and his squad were seen within the picket line. From him we gather the following account of how the massacre commenced: Mr. Meacham made a short speech to the Indians followed by General Canby, and then Dr. Thomas. Then Captain Jack made a speech asking for Hot Creek, and Cottonwood, places now occupied by Fairchild and Dorris, for reservations. Mr. Meacham told Capt. Jack that it was not possible to give him what he asked. Schonchin told Meacham to say no more, that he, Meacham, had said enough upon that subject, and while Schonchin was speaking, Capt. Jack got up and walked behind the others, turned back and exclaimed, "all ready." He then drew his pistol and snapped a cap at General Canby. He cocked his pistol again and fired. General Canby fell dead, shot under the eye. Schonchin then shot Meacham in the shoulder and head, but he is still alive. "Boston Charley" and another Indian shot and killed Doctor Thomas. "Hooker Jim" chased Dyer for some distance, but Dyer turned upon him with a pistol in hand and Jim ran. The Indian knocked the squaw of Riddle off her horse and took it, but Capt. Jack made him return it then and there. The Indians chased Riddle and shot at him. Some allowance may be made for the truth of this last statement. The troops are now about a mile in the lava bed region, and will speedily advance to night under cover of darkness. There are here about six hundred troops which can be brought into active service, and it is believed they will end the Modoc war. Mr. Meacham is not expected to survive. FOREIGN NEWS. MADRID, April 12.—A force of Carlists under Saballs, which attacked Puigcerda, was 1,000 strong, while the defenders of the town numbered 500, of whom only fifty were soldiers, the remainder being citizens. After a fusillade of twenty-four hours' duration the ammunition of the Republicans became exhausted, and the Alcaide of Puigcerda sent for reinforcements which arrived too late to participate in fighting, as the Carlists had ceased their attack and withdrawn from the town. The instructions carried by Saballs, surrounded with them and buried the bodies of their dead. OUR FINANCIAL POLICY. OF HARTFORD, CONN. Annual Income, Nearly $10,000,000. This Company has steadily pursued two great practical objects: FIRST. To place its policies beyond the power of adverse contingencies. SECOND. To reduce the actual outlay of its members for their policies to the lowest possible rate. To accomplish this, it allows them to retain from 20 to 30 per cent. of the first premium as a permanent credit of loan, and to retain from each subsequent premium that portion of the previous year's full premium actually proved to be surplus; so that at no time does the Company take from him a higher actual premium than is needed to carry the risk for the year, and provide the assurance fund. It is strictly Mutual. Nothing is diverted to stockholders, and each member has his influence at its own cost to the Company. Its rate of expense has been from the beginning less than that of other companies. S. DOUGLAS WAIT, Gen. Agent, Office Opposite Post Office, Raleigh, N. C. Jan 21-4t.
