INSURANCE. THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO., OF HARTFORD, CONN.

Annual Income, Nearly $10,000,000.00. This Company has steadily pursued two great practical ends: FIRST. To place its policies beyond the power of adverse contingencies.

SECOND. To reduce the actual outlay of its members for their policies to the lowest possible rate. To accomplish this, it allows them to retain from 20 to 30 per cent. of the first premium as a permanent credit or loan, and to retain from each subsequent premium that portion of the previous year's full premium actually proved to be surplus; so that at no time does the Company take from him a higher actual premium than is needed to carry the risk for the year, and provide the insurance fund. It is strictly Mutual. Nothing is diverted to stockholders, and each member has his insurance at its exact cost to the Company. Its rate of expense has been from the beginning less than that of other companies.

Consumers should use from one-fourth to one-half less of Dooley's than of other yeast or Baking Powders. It is put up full weight.

Every one wishing to get a bowl of good soup will not fail to go to the Green Front on Hargett street to-day. Pepper's old stand.

Alabama Melrose, col., was yesterday put in jail for the non-payment of a bill of cost. The bill amounts to $50. Alabama will probably go to the Work House to work out the bill.

The approaching municipal election is beginning to excite interest. We hear of several independent candidates for the Mayorality and about a thousand for Commissioners in the various wards.

Tommy Harrison, the well known Saloonist, has become the proprietor of the "Green Front" Hargett street, formerly conducted by W. R. Pepper. Tommy is a practical hand at the business and will run the machine both according to Gunter and Hoyle.

Trousersing this season are of unusually quiet and neat patterns, favoring both equally divided between small stripes and checks. They are cut rather smaller than during the winter, but still quite easy to the leg, and perfectly straight from the knee down without any spring at the bottom.

We learn that a petition is circulating praying the Governor to commute the sentence of Simpson Mordecai and Thomas Griffice from hanging to imprisonment for life. It will be recollected that these men are under sentence of death for burglary upon the premises of W. H. Hlicks.

ORGANIZED.—On Thursday evening, Rev. R. H. Whitaker, of this city, organized a committee of Friends of Temperance at Wake Forest, with thirty charter members, to be known as the Wake Forest College Council. Mr. Whitaker is an indefatigable and zealous worker in the temperance cause, and we are glad to know that his labors are being crowned with that success which always, sooner or later, attends right and perseverance. Mr. Whitaker's paper, the "Friend of Temperance," is a most useful and entertaining journal, and richly deserves the large and increasing patronage it enjoys.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION OF THE HOOK AND LADDER COMPANY.—Yesterday afternoon Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1, of this city, celebrated their fifth anniversary by parade, barbecue and target practice. The Company paraded the principal streets of the city with their new and handsome truck, presenting a fine appearance. Where the parade was over, the Company marched to Mordecai's Grove, where an old-time barbecue was spread and enjoyed. After the barbecue was digested, the target practice began. After a good deal of powder being burnt, Mr. Hilliard Bell was declared the winner of the first prize, a beautiful chromo entitled "Bed Time," presented by Chief Engineer Clawson. His shots, in reference to the "bull's eye," were 6 1/2 inches 5 and 2 1/2. Mr. Thad Boshier came in second best, winning the second prize, a set of silver spoons. His shots came within 7, 5 and 6 1/2 inches of hitting where they were intended.

Mr. C. A. Driver was the fortunate winner of the third prize. His prowess possessed him of a tin horn, and his shots are registered in the "archives of gravity" as being 8 1/2, 6 1/2 and 7 1/2 inches of the bovine organ.

After the target practice was over, the company returned and marched back to the city, and upon halting in front of Metropolitan Hall, were addressed by Mayor Whitaker in a congratulatory strain, in which the Company received deserved compliments. The Mayor's speech was neat and appropriate in every respect. The Citizens' Cornet Band furnished the music for the occasion, and well did they acquit themselves, and their leader, Prof. Henry Smith, may take great credit to himself for their rapid improvement.

The whole affair was a most pleasant one, and we hope the Hook and Ladder will celebrate many more such.

SUPREME COURT.—Court met yesterday morning at 10 A. M. The Civil Issue and Summons dockets were called over. No business of importance was transacted; only a few unimportant motions were made.

WAR IN THE REPUBLICAN RANKS.—We publish by request the following communication from a member of the Republican party:

MESSRS. EDITORS.—The following extract is taken from the editorial columns of the Weekly Era, of the 17th instant:

"The people of North Carolina, if their public officers represent them, are determined that the State shall have no progress or prosperity if they can prevent it, while it is the determination of the Democrats to hopelessly commit the Republican party against the development of our internal improvements. But, let it be understood that the railroad policy of the State administration is not the policy of the Republican party, and in the complications in which the Governor and his Executive officers are involving themselves they have not the sympathy of those Republicans acquainted with the railroad affairs of the State; and when certain disasters overtake them and the State, they must bear the responsibility, not the Republican party, which, having no sympathetic insanity on the subject, will assume none of the consequences."

As there is no Republican paper published in Raleigh except the Era, which is believed to be hired to advocate the interest of a foreign corporation in opposition to the interest of North Carolina and her people, I have to ask the privilege to say through your columns, that the Governor, and other State officials co-operating with him, are those who are truly representing the interest of North Carolina and they are sustained by a large majority of the people without distinction of party; while the Era and a few sore-heads, disappointed in their expectations of replenishing their purses by reason of the interference of the Governor and other officials, are the parties who are playing into the hands of wealthy monopolies outside of the State, and endeavoring to make their own State "a lewler of wood and a drawer of water" for those monopolists. Let everlasting shame encircle the brow of every North Carolinian who turns his back upon his own State and lends his aid to foreign speculators in their attempts to deprive North Carolina of any of her rights, and reduce her people still lower in the scale of poverty.

A TRUE REPUBLICAN, AND ONE OF THE ORIGINAL PANEL.

REMOVED.—James D. Brooks, Esq., General Agent of the Wilmington North Carolina Life Insurance Company, has removed his headquarters from this city to Wilmington. This is done for the reason that it is believed that it will be advantageous to the advancement of the business of the Company to have the headquarters of the General Agent in the place with the home office. We are glad to know that the Wilmington office will be in the hands of a competent officer and pleasant gentleman, and in a social point we regret much this change. E. W. POU, Esq., formerly of Johnston county, but now of this city, will be the agent at this place. Mr. POU is a thorough business man and of high character; he has always borne good will the confidence of all that know him.

HONORARY DELEGATES.—Governor Caldwell has appointed the following delegates from this State to attend the Convention in reference to the proposed Atlantic and Great Western Canal, which assemblies in Atlanta, Ga., May 20th: Wm. R. Myers, J. L. Morehead, W. T. Ball, J. A. Gilmer, W. H. Baily, Jas. E. Kerr, Manager London, W. A. Wright, W. A. Guthrie, J. W. Hinsdale, T. M. Argo, W. H. Pace, L. J. Moore, M. De W. Stevenson, C. W. Granly, Walter Clark, W. G. Candler and C. F. McKesson.

HONORARY COMMISSIONERS TO THE VIENNA EXPOSITION.—Yesterday his Excellency Gov. Caldwell, appointed the following gentlemen honorary commissioners from this State to the International Exposition at Vienna. W. H. H. Tucker, of Wake; W. P. Bynum, of Charlotte; Gen. Rufus Barringer, of Charlotte; Silas Martin, of Wilmington; K. P. Battle, of Wake; Palemon John, of Elizabeth City; D. M. Farches, of Statesville; O. H. Dockery, of Richmond; D. A. Barnes, of Northampton; C. D. Smith, of Macon; B. S. Gaither, of Burke.

COPPER ORE.—We have now before us some species of copper ore taken from the land of Luther Clegg, of Chatham county. The specimens have been submitted to Prof. Kerr, State Geologist, who declares the copper to be of good quality, and the land from which it came is well worth mining. We learn that the vein is eight feet wide and a half of a mile long. Here is an excellent opportunity for capitalists to go into a paying speculation. Who will be the first?

ANOTHER IMPORTANT DECISION.—The State Treasurer has decided that the State revenue law taxes all purchases of liquors, in or out of the State, 5 per cent.

The following is the language of the section imposing said tax: "Every dealer in spirituous liquors, vinous liquors, porter, lager beer or other malt liquors, shall pay a tax of five per centum on the amount of all purchases; and every agent who offers liquors for sale shall pay the tax on the value of all liquors of every description sold by him."

The following statement, from one of the oldest and most respectable merchants of the city of Petersburg, speaks for itself and needs no comment: "I have for my years used 'BECK'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC PILLS' as a family medicine and also in my own case, and I have no hesitation in pronouncing them the most safe, efficient and pleasant medicine with which I am acquainted. They promptly relieve Dyspepsia and its usual attendant, Costiveness, Heartburn, Headache, Loss of Appetite, Chronic, etc. They are perfectly safe, and I can recommend them to the public. They ward off disease and preserve health. I always keep a full supply on hand and would not be likely to be without them."

PLEASE REMEMBER.—The following in relation to the Orphan Asylum at Oxford, was handed to us with a request to publish. Being anxious to do everything in our power to advance the interest of this noble institution we cheerfully comply:

1. Children have some inalienable rights. They are entitled to such opportunities and privileges as will enable them to grow up into wise, virtuous and useful men and women.

2. Jails, penitentiaries and houses of correction are more expensive to the State than schools, shops and factories.

3. Labor is an oppressor of his poor relations. His spirit is still rife in the earth. But every form of labor is a wrong, a crime, a sin; and the cupidty of laborers ought to be restrained, by public opinion, and by law.

4. Our laws permit rude parents to exercise cruelty towards their own offspring; they permit young men to marry widows in order to employ their children; and they afford inadequate protection to poor apprentices, and even to wealthy wards.

5. A prosperous father may die at any moment, and leave his children a prey to the prevailing madness for money, politely termed "demand for labor," and laborism may hold them in oppressive, but unloseted, servitude.

6. The Orphan Asylum at Oxford, established by the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, feeds, clothes and teaches indigent orphans between the ages of thirteen. It receives those whose parents are both dead, and those whose fathers are dead and whose mothers are helpless. The management of the Institution is not political, nor sectarian.

7. As indigent orphans do not read the papers, they are dependent on their friends to inform them how they may enjoy the benefits of this benevolent Institution. They will be received by the Principal, Rev. A. D. Cohen, resident on the premises, or transportation will be furnished and the orphans promptly and safely forwarded by J. H. Mills, of Raleigh. The same parties will also receive (in cash, or in kind) such contributions to the support of the Asylum as those who approve the work it is doing, are willing to make.

"Our little son in helpless infancy, Child of unhappy parents, do not will know Thy care, my Hector, nor thy love repay With filial piety. Should he outlive This mortal war, of endless woes the cause, Laborer's sorrows he must undergo Perpetual, of his father's rights deprived By fraud or violence. The day that makes A child an orphan, leaves him destitute Of every friend, a melancholy youth, He pines, and sighs, and bathes his cheeks With tears."

Oppressed poor, he seeks his father's friends: One by the road, another by the coast He pulls, and begs them. "Some, who pity feel, Offer assistance in a scanty cup, To wet his lips, no satisfy his thirst! While others flourishing in joyous ease, With both their parents living, rudely smile."

With scorn unfeeling, and reproachful speech: Begot of father banquets not with us! The child in tears retiring to complain, To me, his widow's mother, comes! Alas! My dear Asylum, so let us not fail With dainties fed, upon his father's knee; That lovely infant, who intigued with play, And satiate with delights, so sweetly smile, On beds of down, within his nurse's arms, Must many wrongs and ills now endure, Deprived forever of his father's love."

He's a notary public, and he's a poet, and he can pull teeth, and he's a horse doctor, and he can mend wagon and things, and he can play the fiddle, and he's a jackass at all trades."

A Danbury woman sent her boy down street for the following articles: A bar of soap, piece of music, entitled "Waiting at the Gate, Love," three needles, a feather, a bottle of hair oil, the New York Weekly, a pound of starch, a mended ear ring, a half pound of candy, ten cents' worth of lime, a basket of peaches and a paper of cinnamon. What the boy brought home was a half pound of candy.

We are glad to know that the water works question is exciting interest.

CAN'T COME.—We regret very much to learn that W. H. Barnes, Esq., Past Grand Master of the New York Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F., will not be able, owing to other engagements, to visit this city on the 14th prox, to deliver his lecture, "Entertaining an Audience."

Mr. Barnes has the reputation of being a very entertaining lecturer, and we hope he may find it convenient to pay us a visit on no distant day.

In this connection it may be proper to call attention to the error which has occurred in regard to the meeting of the Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F., of this State. This body meets on the 14th prox., instead of the 21st as heretofore published.

DEATH OF MRS. YANCEY.—We regret to announce the death of Mrs. John G. Yancey, of Warren county, which occurred in this city yesterday afternoon at the residence of her sister, Mrs. B. F. Moore. Although Mrs. Yancey had been an invalid for some time past and under medical treatment, her death was sudden, as but a few hours preceding her demise she was bright and cheerful.

Mrs. Yancey was a most estimable lady and her death will be sincerely lamented by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

ROBT. LAWSON & CO.—Our types Thursday morning made us say that Messrs. Robert Clawson & Co., saddle-ry and harness dealers of Baltimore, had made a contribution to the State Fair. It should have read Robert Lawson & Co. We hope many other business men of Norfolk, Baltimore and other places, will be heard from.

REGISTRATION.—Yesterday the registration in the various Wards resulted as follows: Middle Ward.—Whites 5; colored 1. Western Ward.—Whites 14; colored 3. Eastern Ward.—Whites 13; colored 6.

ATTENTION MIDDLE WARD.—On the 6th day of May you will be called on to make a selection for Commissioners between Messrs. Upchurch, Battle and Ricks on the one side, and Messrs. Battle, Stronach and Blackhall on the other. Register and take your choice.

STATE OF THE THERMOMETER.—The Thermometer yesterday stood as follows at Branson's Book Store:
