LOCAL MATTER.

E. C. WOODSON, City Editor.

All parties ordering the New will please send the money for the time the paper is wanted.

Notices Inserted Under the "Special City Items" head at 15 Cents per line for first insertion, and 10 cents per line for each subsequent insertion.

O. H. NUTTALL, of the Charlotte Advertising Agency, is agent for this paper in that city. He is duly authorized to contract for advertisements and receipt for subscriptions.

Messrs. Griffin and Hoffman, Newspaper Advertising Agents, No. 4 South Street, Baltimore, Md., are duly authorized to contract for advertisements at lowest rates. Advertisers in that city are requested to leave their favors with this house.

THE AGRICULTURAL JOURNAL AND THE NEWS—The State AGRICULTURAL JOURNAL, an eight-page Weekly published in this city, will be published with the DAILY NEWS at $8.50 per annum, and with the WEEKLY NEWS at $3.50 per annum. Orders directed to either paper will receive prompt attention.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS—We are now enclosing to all of our subscribers a statement of their accounts with us, and hope to receive an immediate response to the same. ALL PARTIES whose time may have expired, and who are not notified by us, will cease to receive the paper after the FIRST OF JUNE NEXT, unless they shall have renewed. As we shall, on and after that date, adhere strictly to the CASH SYSTEM, believing this to be the only safe way of conducting a newspaper. Parties hereafter will be regularly notified in advance of the time of the expiration of their subscriptions.

STATE OF THE THERMOMETER.—The thermometer yesterday stood as follows at Branson's Book Store:

At 9 a. m. 53

At 12 m. 68

At 3 p. m. 65

At 6 p. m. 65

LOCAL BRIEFS.—(7) Pure and mellow! Century Whiskey!

P. C. Cameron, Esq., of Hillsboro, was in the city yesterday.

The new Board of City Commissioners meet this evening to qualify.

It takes thirty years to grow a shade tree. Do not cut it down wantonly.

The law card of Messrs. R. C. Badger and T. P. Devereux Solicitor in Bankruptcy appears in this issue.

The Pony penning at Shackelford Banks takes place on the 10th instant. Many of our citizens will attend.

The morals of this city continue in a healthy condition. No items can be picked up at the Police Court nowadays.

Rev. R. H. Whitaker left last evening to attend the meeting of the State Council, Friends of Temperance at Statesville.

The Board of County Commissioners meet in this city Saturday, when it is expected the settlement with the Sheriff will be completed.

The system of lectures inaugurated at the Peace Institute, is eminently wise and should be sustained—indeed, we think, could be imitated by all similar colleges with success.

Yesterday a fell, drawing a small load of wood, fell in Hargett street near sheer starvation. The poor animal was a horrible sight to behold. We should have a Bergh operation in our midst.

Prof. W. J. Palmer, of Belleville, Canada, left this city yesterday for Hartford, Conn., to attend a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Association of Principals of Deaf and Dumb Institutions.

The man who took off our copy of the Southern Home without our knowledge, authority or consent, forced us to borrow from our neighbors. Please don't take away our exchanges in this manner.

Two of the boxes of laws of the session of the last General Assembly have been found in Edenton. It will be remembered that H. J. Menninger, the late Secretary of State, was sued because several counties were left un supplied.

See the advertisement of valuable town property in Clayton, Johnson and Currituck counties. This is a good opportunity to invest in valuable real estate. Persons wishing to make a good investment, would do well to give the advertisement a careful reading.

There is some talk we learn of establishing a cotton factory on the property owned by the Hon. D. M. Barringer, in the Southern portion of the city, near the grove of Mr. Bledsoe, and upon the upper part of which Mr. Tappan has lately erected such a handsome college. We would hail the event with pleasure.

We stated yesterday, that Col. Jno. R. Harrison was spoken of as the successor to Maj. Badger. We have since heard the names of four others mentioned in connection for the House, to-wit: Quent Busbee, T. M. Argo, R. T. Bosher and Mr. Gilbert; and by the time for the meeting of the Radical nominating Convention we think there will be six Richmonds in the field.

THANKS.—We tender our thanks for an invitation to attend the Commencement party, complimentary to the graduating class of Trinity College, on Thursday evening, June 12th. The following gentlemen are the managers: C. T. Bethel, B. R. Hall, W. R. Odell, O. J. Holmes, W. G. Burkhead, B. H. Palmer, J. J. Desmond, W. F. Norman and W. T. Sanders.

THE DAILY NEWS.

THINK ABOUT IT.—There is much truth in the study of physiognomy, and a man who has a varied acquaintance, who is sufficiently enlightened and yet shrewd, may turn it to profit. But there is still more in the study of deportment, or as it is termed in slang, in "style." Indeed a man's deportment is the fairest index to his character, exhibiting the amount of refinement to which he has attained, as well as showing the original defects of his nature. The free and easy style is most common in this country, and is often cultivated to excess, so much as to shock and disgust. A reasonable amount of the article is always pleasant, but as it is a style which pervades all ranks of society, and is so often simulated to entice the unwary into confidence and crime, we say beware of it in a stranger and old times in a friend. Indeed, unless the person has been tried, with free and easy manners he may lead you to rely on friendship, and when the pinch comes, lo and behold, he steps from under and down you come with a bang. Then there is the extra courteous manner, which is as often repellant as attractive. Look on its wearer with suspicion likewise, until you know him at the bottom. But the gentleman—well he wears like gold dollar, and may be trusted—like a dog, if you know him, but we had rather take him on trust than lose him at any time. So much for the male community.

Now as to the feminine portion, the first and most brazen style marks its possessor at once, with virtue lost and honor dead. And its imitator, the "fast style," just between the fashionable and the blazé, is always open to suspicion. With flowing ribbons and painted faces, it attracts attention with temptation. So none of that for us. And then there is the fashionable 'style' at church and opera, on drive and promenade. How beautiful and artistic, yet how false and alas, so cold. Compared with the last, the domestic deportment, into which, thank God, with few exceptions, it is always destined to merge, it marks an era of frivolity we believe and only nothing more. This last manner is woman's crowning crown, whether in matron or maid. It speaks of days well-spent, of ideas trained to the sweetest, purest attainment of art in dress, in person and in mind. The wanderer always notes it, and involuntarily thinks of home. It is the light of the fireside after all—the Christmas fireside of the olden times. And thus we muse and muse. Let us think about it, and looking on and seeing therefore who bear these relations in life to us, follow them in training our general deportment to the high standard of the gentleman at home and abroad, and the lady whose loveliness seems to be so truly a emanation from Heaven.

MEMORIAL DAY.—On Saturday, the 10th inst., the ladies of the Memorial Association of this city will pay their annual tribute to the memories of their fallen countrymen. Arrangements have been perfected to celebrate the day with appropriate ceremonies. As we have heretofore announced, Col. W. F. Green, of Franklin county, delivers the annual address; Mr. Herbert Bragg, of this city, will officiate as Chief Marshal, with Messrs. W. H. Bledsoe and Alex. B. Stronach as Assistant Marshals.

The various organizations designing to participate on the occasion, will assemble at the south front of the capitol at 4 p. m., when the procession will be formed in the following order:

The Marshals.

Band.

Raleigh Hook and Ladder Company No. 1.

Rescue Steam Fire Engine Company.

Chaplain.

Officers and Members of the Association and Citizens.

with Floral Decorations.

The procession will then move to the cemetery by the following route: Along Morgan to Salisbury street, up Salisbury to Edenton street, down Edenton to Blount street, up Blount to Jones street, along Jones to Linden Avenue, up the Avenue to North street, up North to Cemetery street and thence to the Cemetery.

The ORDER OF EXERCISES have been arranged as follows:

Ode.

Prayer.

Invocation.

Benediction.

Decoration of the Graves.

THE METHODIST PIC-NIC AT KIT-TRELS.—The excursion promises to be a grand affair. We learn that all the arrangements are completed. The Chief Marshal, R. W. Best, Esq., has appointed Messrs. A. M. Powell and Frank H. Lumsden his immediate assistants, and Messrs. J. A. Jones, L. N. Koith, W. M. Brown, Matthew Moore, A. S. Lee, C. G. Latta, S. J. Fall, D. S. Waitt, W. A. Gattis, T. N. Ramsay, E. B. Thomas, Willie Wilson, J. C. R. Little and J. S. Wynne, who will be in charge of the coaches, to preserve order, &c.

We also learn that no person will be allowed, under any circumstances, to carry any spirituous liquors on the train, and any persons found thereon intoxicated will be put off.

Messrs. J. C. S. Lumsden, Lewis Peck and Andrew Jones will have charge of the dinner. The Cornet Band will be in attendance. We wish them a happy time.

APPOINTED COMMISSIONER.—On the recommendation of Senator W. W. Flemming, of McDowell county, Gov. Caldwell has appointed, Geo. W. Thurston Commissioner of Deeds for North Carolina resident in Philadelphia.

HURRAH FOR THE WETS.—There was a good deal of excitement at the recent municipal election in Concord, over the "wet" and "dry" tickets. The "wets" carried it by a small majority. Duly for the "wets!"

BABCOCK FIRE EXTINGUISHER.—The exhibition made Monday evening in front of the Court-house, by Major J. H. Lacy, of Fredericksburg, Va., of the Portable Self-acting Babcock Fire Extinguisher, was successful in an eminent degree. We have already urged upon our city authorities the propriety of increasing the efficiency of our Fire Department by the purchase of six of these Extinguishers for our Hook and Ladder Company and four for the Bucket Company.

The machine is simple, durable and wonderfully effective. Sulphuric acid and soda water are the agents used to generate instantaneously carbonic acid gas. The copper cylinder holds six gallons of water in which the soda is deposited. The acid is held in a glass bottle suspended in the carbonated water. The Extinguisher will remain charged for an indefinite period, and you only, in the case of fire, have to pull up the handle, shake the machine, and it will throw the water, impregnated with gas, forty feet, and put out any incipient fire.

The price of the machines is $60, with six charges. Major Lacy, the General Agent for Virginia, North and South Carolina, is at the Yarborough House and is ready to fill orders.

We examined with much interest the pamphlet explaining the Babcock Fire Engines for cities and towns, operating on the same principle as the portable, which we have mentioned above, whose efficiency is only limited by its capacity. In the engines you have two copper tanks holding each 200 gallons. They are fixed upon light carriages, and are warranted to throw a stream three hundred feet perpendicular, through the hose. These fire engines are highly endorsed by 35 Fire Departments, and are used in about fifty cities and towns in the United States, and even in cities having an abundant supply of water they are preferred for their promptness, efficiency and from the fact that they do not damage goods like water. A couple of engines of this description would be invaluable. It is claimed that water impregnated with carbonic acid gas has thirty times the efficiency in extinguishing fire than ordinary water, from the fact that the carbonic acid gas is heavier than the atmosphere, and at once cuts off the oxygen which alone supports the combustion. It is well known that a flame will die out in 5 per cent of carbonic acid gas.

The General Agent, Major Lacy, is a well known Virginia gentleman and served on the staff of Gen. Early, and his connection with this business is a guarantee of its merit.

Gen. Joseph E. Johnson is the agent for the sale of these machines at Savannah, Georgia.

OLIVE LOGAN.—It should be remembered that Miss Olive Logan gives her interesting lecture on the attractive and interesting topic of "Girls" at Tucker Hall on Thursday evening to be followed the next evening, by a discourse on the subject of the "Passions." As public curiosity is aroused in regard to Miss Logan, who is eliciting words of the warmest commendation from the press of Richmond and other places she has visited, we give the following sketch of the prominent facts connected with her history:

She is a daughter of C. Logan, a comedian of ability and note, and sister of Eliza Logan, one of the first actresses of America. She was born in the State of New York in 1841, and is now in her 32d year. She had the advantages of a happy, virtuous and cultivated home, and is the graduate, with the highest honors, of an English female college—speaking all the modern languages with fluency and correctness. In August, 1854, she made her debut on the stage in Philadelphia at the Arch Street Theatre, but retired temporarily from the profession in 1857, when she went to France. In 1859 she was presented at the Court of the Tuilleries, and received marked attention from the Empress Eugenie. While abroad she wrote for the press of both France and England, and published several works of fiction that established her literary reputation. "Chateau Frisnac" and "Photographs of Paris Life" were issued in London in 1860, and achieved great success. She returned to the stage in August, 1864, appearing in New York at the Grand Theatre, in a play of her own composition. "Evelleen," but becoming dissatisfied with the life, she finally renounced the stage in 1868, and became a public lecturer. Though known to fame as Olive Logan, she is married, her husband being Mr. Wirt Sikes, well and favorably known as a writer. Olive Logan is author of the following works: "Chateau Frisnac," or Home Scenes in France; "Photographs of Paris Life"; "Politics, Art and Fashion in the French Capital"; "Before the Foot-Lights and Behind the Scenes"; "The Mimic World and Public Exhibitions, their History, Morals and Effects"; "Apropos of Woman and Theatres"; "Gone Behind Me, Satan"; "A Home-Born Book of Home Truths"; and the following Christmas stories: "John Morris's Money"; "Somebody's Stocking"; and "The Good Mr. Bagglethorpe."

MISS JEANIE PATTERSON.—The Washington National Republican has this kind word to say of the charming Miss Jeanie Patterson: "The Trinity Church mission society met last evening at the residence of Mr. O. H. Morrison, Third street northwest. The entertainment was varied, the chief feature being the reading of the beautiful and gifted young reader, Miss Jeanie Patterson. The 'Legend of Brecon' was read with great pathos and power. Her Candle Lecture was perfectly inimitable, and brought down the house, while many bachelors present declared their willingness to submit to perpetual lectures from lips so fair. Miss Patterson will next week read publicly in our city, and we predict a full house."

Our local Chief, Woodson, is at Hillsboro, attending the Orange county Superior Court. We hope to hear a good account of him.

HOMICIDE IN CABARRUS COUNTY.—

On Saturday evening last a distressing case of homicide occurred in Cabarrus county, about six miles from Concord. A white man by the name of Motley sent word to W. Whittington that he, Whittington, had been "talking about" his family and to look out, that he intended to kill him, etc. About twilight Saturday evening, Motley, in company with another white man and a negro boy, rode up to Whittington's house, and while dismounting from his horse was shot and instantly killed. Mr. Whittington, after the killing, proceeded to the nearest magistrate's and delivered himself up. On Sunday he was carried to Concord and jailed. Whittington is a man fifty or sixty years old and, we learn, always bore a fair character for peace and sobriety.

LECTURE BY PROF. W. J. WILSON.—

We learn that Prof. W. J. Wilson, General Agent of the National Freedman's Savings Bank at Washington, last, and will deliver an address at the A. M. E. Church this evening, and at the Second Baptist Church, (colored,) on to-morrow evening. Mr. Wilson is on a tour of inspection among the different branches of the company, and is on his way back to Washington. We hope Mr. Wilson will have a full house. His subject will be "Economy.—How to save Money."

MANGUM LODGE.—

On Monday evening Theo. N. Ramsay, Esq., of this city, organized a lodge of Good Templars at Hayward, Chatham county, with twenty charter members. The lodge is named after that worthy white man and a negro, Rev. A. W. Mangum, pastor of the Edenton street M. E. Church in this city.

THE BRUTAL RAPE REVENGED.

The Hanging of George Lea at Yanceyville—King Alcohol Claims Another Victim.

[SPECIAL TO DAILY NEWS.]

YANCEYVILLE, May 6.—George Lea, colored, convicted at the last term of the Superior Court of Caswell, of the crime of rape upon the person of an aged white lady, was executed here to-day. The condemned has devoted most of his time since conviction to prayer. He has always refused to see his body except relatives, and to day his aged father came to take a last farewell. The scene between them was deeply affecting. The old man clasped his son to his breast, both sobbing piteously for a long time. Large crowds of negroes came pouring into town all the morning, a majority of them being females dressed in their gayest attire. The jail yard where the workmen were erecting the scaffold was the point of interest to them all. The scaffold was rude but substantial, allowing a fall of five feet. Though intended to be hid from public view, it was much exposed. The condemned earnestly requested his former young master to remain and witness his execution. By noon there were at least five thousand negroes and but very few whites present.

As the hour for the execution approached the adjacent roofs, fences and trees were crowded with negroes. Such was the throng on the lower fence around the jail yard that it gave way with a crash, precipitating many negroes to the ground.

At 1:15 a. m., the Sheriff called Lea from his cell into the lobby of the jail. He was neatly attired in black. The Sheriff then placed a white shroud over his body and he was pinioned by the elbows behind and his hands in front. In this terrible plight he was led to the scaffold. He mounted the steps with a firm tread. When asked what he had to say, he addressed the crowd, warning them against whiskey which, with the promptings of the devil, he said, brought him there. He acknowledged his crime, and said his peace was made with his God.

As the Sheriff proceeded to pinion him, he loudly exclaimed "Mars Tom, oh Mars Tom, goodbye, goodbye, I am about to die: meet me in heaven."

body of Lea was dashed to the ground, quivering in the agonies of death. The rope was loosened and another rope brought. The noose was quickly made and placed again on the condemned's neck, and once more he was swung, and this time he remained suspended. The body was drawn up and down two or three times and then at 23 minutes past 3 was cut down. Pulsation lasted 12 minutes, soon ceased, and the soul of George Lea was at the judgment bar of his God.

New York Financially and Otherwise.

NEW YORK, May 6.—There is an improved tone to business in financial circles, owing to the more settled and easier condition of the money market. Gold, however, is higher, sales have been made $1,174,174. On gold loans the rates have been 4 to 7 per cent. Exchange dull, rates of business about 84 for prime. Sterling 92 3/4
