MORNING EDITION. The Raleigh Daily News.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 14, 1873.

LOCAL MATTER.

E. C. WOODSON, City Editor.

All parties ordering the News will please send the money for the time the paper is wanted.

Notices Inserted Under the "Special City Items" head at 15 cents per line for first insertion, and 10 cents per line for each subsequent insertion.

J. O. H. NUTTALL, of the Charlotte Advertising Agency, is agent for this paper in Charlotte, N. C. He is duly authorized to contract for advertisements at our lowest rates.

Messrs. Griffin and Hoffman, Newspaper Advertising Agents, No. 4 South Street, Baltimore, Md., are duly authorized to contract for advertisements at our lowest rates.

THE AGRICULTURAL JOURNAL AND THE NEWS.—The State AGRICULTURAL JOURNAL, an eight-page weekly published in this city, will be published with the DAILY NEWS at $5.00 per annum, and with the WEEKLY NEWS at $3.00 per annum.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.—We are now enclosing to all of our subscribers a statement of their accounts with us, and hope to receive an immediate response to the same.

STATE OF THE THERMOMETER.—The thermometer yesterday stood as follows at Brauns's Book Store:

Table with 2 columns: Time (9 a.m., 12 m., 3 p.m., 6 p.m.) and Temperature (68, 76, 80, 80).

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Mayor's Court still quiet.

Turtle Soup at No. 3 1/2 to day.

A liberal reward for a pocket book lost. See advertisement.

Cotton was quoted in this city yesterday, for low middlings, 16 1/2 @ 16 3/4.

Wilmington street could boast of only two insignificant scrimmages yesterday.

Prof. Kerr has succeeded in having an elegant photograph of the Capitol taken for his Vienna map.

A runaway horse, attached to a small dray, created some little excitement on the upper portion of Fayetteville street yesterday morning.

A cock fight and barbecue is to come off at Millburn on Thursday. Eleven cocks will be shown on each side, and probably some half a dozen matches will be made.

This evening the festival of Hickman Lodge, Good Templars, comes off at Oak City Hall. Strawberries and ice cream will be one of the features of the evening. Admission 25 cents.

Julius Lewis & Co., hardware merchants, make an announcement of articles in their line. They offer first class goods at reasonable prices.

A fine Vermont mare, belonging to W. C. Stronach, dropped dead yesterday afternoon at his wood and lumber yard at the western extremity of the city. The animal had exhibited no signs of sickness.

We were the recipient yesterday of some splendid early cabbages from William Stills, out of the garden of K. P. Battle, Esq. This measured two feet across. They show what an intelligent and industrious gardener can do.

Don't forget that W. H. Bond, Esq., editor of the Heart and Hand, published in New York, and organ of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of the United States, delivers his celebrated lecture, "Entertaining an Audience," on Wednesday evening of next week.

We direct attention to the advertisement of the Southern Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of Richmond, Va. This is an excellent company, and merits patronage.

J. B. Neathery, Esq., Private Secretary to the Governor, discovered in one of the closets of the Capitol, a handsome engraving of Canova's statue of Washington, which was destroyed at the burning of the old Capitol. Mr. Neathery is having it suitably framed, and it is to grace the walls of the Executive office.

The infant class of the Edenton Street Methodist Episcopal Church in this city enjoyed a nice little picnic in the yard of the Church yesterday afternoon.

Miss Lucy Evans, teacher of the class, superintended the festivities. These little ones did not participate in the recent excursion and this treat was to make amends.

We regret to learn that W. J. Riddick, Esq., Clerk of the United States Circuit Court, yesterday received a telegram announcing the death of his mother, in Gates county. Mr. R. has many warm friends this city, who sympathize deeply with him in his bereavement.

Mrs. Riddick had been an invalid for some time. The office will be closed to-day.

RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 14, 1873.

NO. 68.

I. O. O. F. GRAND LODGE.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS.

THEIR HISTORY IN NORTH CAROLINA.

WITH VALUABLE DETAILS.

As the Right Worthy Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of North Carolina assembles in this city to-day, and it being but a single Grand Jurisdiction among forty odd others in the United States, and aggregating in membership over Four Hundred Thousand throughout the Union, we have deemed it not inappropriate to lay before our readers some facts and statistics in regard to organization and history in this State.

"Weldon Lodge, Number 1," in Weldon, Halifax county, was the first subordinate lodge ever instituted in this State, the officers thereof having been installed April 26th, 1841, by virtue of authority of the Grand Lodge of the United States, and was, therefore, as long as it continued to work, the ranking lodge in the jurisdiction.

"Cape Fear Lodge Number 2," in Wilmington, was next instituted, under the same authority—its officers having been installed May 13th, 1842. It is now the senior lodge in the State, Weldon Lodge having ceased to work, (after removal to the Cape Fear, of many years ago.)

"Washington Lodge, Number 3," in Murfreesboro, Hertford county, was the third lodge instituted by the Grand Lodge of the United States. Its officers were installed May 17th, 1842. This Lodge ceased to work at the breaking out of the late war, and has not since been reorganized.

The three Lodges above named met in Wilmington, January 6th, 1843, and instituted the "Right Worthy Grand Lodge of North Carolina."

Weldon Lodge, No. 1, was represented at that meeting by Past Grand, John Campbell, D. B. Boykin, and T. C. Williams. Cape Fear Lodge, No. 2, was represented by Past Grand Alexander McRae, John McRae, A. Paul Repton, and W. S. G. Andrews. Washington Lodge, No. 3, was represented by Past Grand R. H. Worthington. These Past Grand, representing the three Lodges named, were the founders of the Grand Lodge.

George M. Bain, District Deputy Grand Sire, of the Grand Lodge of the United States, by virtue of the authority of the latter Grand Body, instituted the Grand Lodge in regular form.

The following officers were elected and installed, viz:

John Campbell, M. W. G. Master. R. H. Worthington, R. W. D. G. Master. W. S. G. Andrews, R. W. G. Secretary. Alexander McRae, R. W. G. Treasurer. John McRae, R. W. G. Warden.

The following officers, appointed by the Grand Master, were also installed, viz:

T. C. Williams, W. G. Guardian. D. B. Boykins, W. G. Conductor. A. P. Repton, R. W. G. Chaplain.

Some of these ancient patriarchs are still living, and working members of the order—conspicuous among whom may be mentioned Past Grand Master W. S. G. Andrews.

The following is a correct list of the Grand Masters who have served since the institution of the Grand Lodge in the State, in the order in which they served, viz:

John Campbell, R. H. Worthington, John McRae, Sr., Alexander McRae, Isarel Disoway, William H. McKee, Benjamin F. Hanks, J. B. Newby, Perrin Busbee, T. H. Hardenbergh, Warren Winslow, W. L. Steele, W. S. G. Andrews, William J. Hoke, Ed. W. Jones, John A. Weirman, John Sloan, Martin Stevenson, Lev. M. Scott, A. Paul Repton, A. A. Caldwell, William L. Smith, Seaton Gales, J. H. Baker and William J. Yopp.

The last named is the present Grand Master, whose term of office expires with the present session of the Grand Lodge. At the last session of the Grand Lodge its constitution was so amended as to allow a Grand Master to be re-elected. Previous to that time one term was the limit.

We give, the subordinate Lodges which have been chartered in this State—many of which are now working—with their location and date of organization, &c., as follows:

OUR WELDON LETTER.—Our Weldon correspondent, under date of yesterday, sends us the following items:

I send you some notes of the great freshest, that may be of interest to our friends who are acquainted with the Roanoke.

The water was five inches higher than the great freshet of January, 1865, which at that time was the highest remembered or recorded.

The water last Saturday night and Sunday morning reached the weatherboarding of the Seaboard Railroad bridge and was three inches deep in the office of Messrs. Smith & Co's mill. [It may be gratifying to Mr. S. to learn that his bees were moved in time to save them.]

The water was in the yard at the Mash Island house and flowed into and filled the well.

It backed up Chockyotte creek, and around in front of Mr. G. G. Lynch's residence, and was several feet deep at the embankment of the Wilmington railroad at the flag pond.

The embankment of the Petersburg railroad gave way about ten o'clock on Saturday night, and the water on the upper side fell about a foot at once, but rose again by morning.

The water rushed and rolled through the break in great waves, and several persons who were on the bank where it gave way came near being cut off, but escaped by waiting on the railroad iron before the track settled.

Thousands of acres of land upon which the young corn and cotton was growing will have to be plowed and planted over.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS.—Yesterday the Board of County Commissioners held a called meeting: Messrs. R. W. Wynne, H. C. Jones, M. G. Todd and Samuel Rayner, Commissioners, were present.

The office of Constable of Raleigh Township having been declared vacant, on motion the Board set Wednesday next as the time to fill the vacancy.

It was ordered that the County Treasurer pay to M. G. Todd, Commissioner, $14 for seven days services outside the meetings of the Board, for assisting in the settlement with the Treasurer and Sheriff.

Contrary to expectation no settlement for county taxes for 1872 with the Sheriff was reached. These taxes now amount to about $37,000, including the school tax for the last two years. We have not been able to ascertain the exact status of affairs, and can therefore say nothing as to the time when a settlement will be reached.

Until this matter is adjusted, we can say before our readers no exhibit of the condition of the finances of the county.

We near that it is probable that the Commissioners will bring suit against the Sheriff for the amount due the county.

The Board will meet again on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday to hear and determine questions arising from the tax lists.

MEETING OF THE WESTERN N. C. R. COMMISSION.—Yesterday this Commission met in the Executive office according to adjournment. Of the Commission on the part of the State, Gov. Caldwell, Col. W. L. Steele, of Richmond county, and J. H. Wilson, Esq., of Charlotte, were present. The Directors of the road were represented by Dr. W. H. Howerton, Col. W. A. Eliason, A. H. Shuford, Esq., Jno. I. Shaver, Esq., and R. A. Caldwell, Esq.

The meeting was strictly a private one, and nothing was given for publication, but we are informed that no definite plan of action was agreed upon, though several propositions were discussed. Judge M. E. Manly, of Craven, a member of the Commission, did not attend the meeting.

ANNUAL STATEMENT.—We have been shown the annual statement, for the year 1872, of the Piedmont and Arlington Life Insurance Company of Richmond, Va., represented in this State by Dr. C. D. Rice, with his headquarters in Raleigh. The income of the Company for the year ending December 31st 1872, was $1,250,000.79. Its total assets are $2,642,440.58. The policies issued during 1872 were 2,644; amount of risk, $5,890,654. Increase of new business in 1872 over that of 1871 was 412 policies, $124,824 amount of risk, and $40,967.35 in premiums. The number of policies issued in this State for the quarter ending 30th of April was 315. The Company intend establishing in this State, an early day, a Board for the investment of all surplus monies received from the State.

A CORRECTION.—At the 2nd quarterly Conference of the Edenton street M. E. Church of this city, held on the 5th inst., the following delegates were elected to the District Conference to be held at Cary in the course of a few weeks: R. W. Best, T. H. Selby, J. A. Jones and W. J. Young.

The following were elected alternates: L. W. Peck, W. B. Hutchins, Henry Porter and Jno. C. Palmer.

This is published as a correction of the announcement that appeared on yesterday, with which these names were connected.

PARDONED.—Gov. Caldwell has pardoned out of the penitentiary the following convicts:

Stephen Lewis, sentenced in Wilkes county in 1869 to 5 years for arson. London Hyman, colored, sentenced in Bertie county in 1873, for a term of two years for larceny.

GRAND LODGE OF ODD-FELLOWS.—This body assembles in this city, at Odd Fellows Hall, at 9 o'clock this morning.

By resolution, the morning session commences at 9 a. m. and ends at 1 p. m. The evening session commences at 8 p. m. and ends at 6 p. m.

We shall endeavor to give a report of their proceedings from day to-day.

TYPOGRAPHICAL EXCURSION.—The types of this city have resolved to picnic it at Kittrell's Springs on the 4th of July.

We are pleased that this selection has been made, for we have most agreeable recollections of the pleasant time we had on last "4th" when we participated in the typographical excursion to this popular Summer resort.

We hope this occasion will prove as an enjoyable as the one of last year.

MEMORIAL.—There will be a meeting held on to-morrow evening in the Mayor's office for the purpose of making arrangements for carrying out the usual memorial ceremonies on the 30th inst., and the decoration of the graves of Union soldiers in the Federal Cemetery near this city. All citizens are invited to attend and participate in the meeting.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., make a very attractive announcement in this issue, and we invite the attention of all to it, especially the ladies. These gentlemen never allow their stock to go down, and keep on hand goods of every description in their line, carefully selected in Northern and European markets. They are affable and liberal in their dealings with customers. Go to see them.

I. O. O. F.—The Odd Fellows of this city will give a supper to the Grand Lodge, now in session, at the National Hotel on to-morrow night. Tickets can be obtained of either LeRoy G. Bagley, J. C. Brewster, or Mills H. Brown.

Another Modoc triumph—Illness of the Pope.—The residents' Denial. New York, Ma. 13.—A special from the lava lake... again Hasbrouck's soldiers were attacked by the Modocs, and were completely surprised. Four soldiers and one Warm Spring Indian were killed, and six soldiers and one Warm Spring Indian wounded. Capt. Hasbrouck rallied his men and charged, when the Modocs scattered through the woods. Several volleys were fired among them, but it is not known whether or not any Modocs were hurt. The troops captured 25 horses.
