ODD FELLOW STATISTICS.—We find from the statistics furnished in the proceedings of the Grand Lodge of United States for the year ending December 31st, 1870, the following figures which clearly show to any candid mind the great amount of good that has been done in ameliorating the sufferings of humanity:

THE NORTH CAROLINA SUNDAY SCHOOL.—The North Carolina Conference Sunday School Society, at its annual meeting held in Charlotte last week, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Rev. L. S. Burkhead, President; Rev. J. B. Bobbitt, Treasurer; Rev. L. W. Crawford, Secretary; and Rev. A. W. Mangum, Corresponding Secretary. The next meeting of the Society will be held in Raleigh.

Long needed repairs are being made on Davis street.

FRIENDS OF TEMPERANCE.—The Semi-Annual Session of the State Council of North Carolina was held in Statesville last week, an account of which appeared in the Intelligencer of that place. But as that paper has been misplaced, we are only able to give such items as we have gathered from delegates who participated in the proceedings.

The meeting was well attended, there being representatives from 23 Councils, located in the various sections of the State, reaching from the seaboard to the mountains.

Rev. George Badger Wetmore, an Episcopal Clergyman and a nephew of the late Hon. George E. Badger, of this city, is the President of the State Council and presided at the Statesville meeting. Numbers of that body who saw him in the Chair, accord to him great praise as a presiding officer. As a temperance worker, Mr. Wetmore has but few equals; none can excel him in devotion to the cause he has espoused and which he is so ably and successfully advocating.

During the last six months the Friends of Temperance have made a net increase of 20 new Councils and upwards of a thousand new members, over all losses and the reports of both the President and Secretary anticipate a much larger increase during the next six months.

The question of consolidating the Friends of Temperance with the new order recently organized in Tennessee, was discussed, but the State Council took no action further than to express opposition to any consolidation that does not receive the sanction of a majority of the State Councils.

A committee, consisting of Rev. G. B. Wetmore, Rev. R. H. Whitaker, W. W. Cole, Theo. H. Hill and N. B. Bryan was appointed to inquire and put in the field, at the earliest practicable period, a State Lecturer. The committee held an informal meeting immediately after the adjournment of the State Council, and decided to offer the appointment to Mr. W. H. McKenzie, of Fayetteville, who, we learn has accepted. Mr. McKenzie will take the field about the first of June.

The State Council instructed the Secretary to circulate 2000 copies of a memorial among the Subordinate Councils of the State for signatures, which memorial will pray the General Assembly to pass a general bill, granting to the several counties the right to hold township elections once each year, to decide the question of license therein.

While this body expressed its decided opposition to the passage of any arbitrary prohibitory law, it urged with equal zeal the adoption of such measures as may lead to the enactment of a bill giving local prohibition whenever the people desire it, and no where else. In this we think the body acted prudently and wisely.

During the session of the State Council two public meetings were held at the Presbyterian Church. The one on Thursday night was largely attended and General Robert B. Vance, member of Congress from the mountain district, delivered one of the very finest speeches of his life. A very large number of persons joined the Friends at this conclusion, and among them was Col. Jones, editor of the Statesville Intelligencer.

A second public meeting was held on Friday morning, which was addressed by Rev. Dr. Roscoe Hooker. Quite a number joined at the conclusion of his speech.

The delegates who went from this section of the State have had so much to say in praise of Statesville, and the hospitality of its good citizens, we are almost sorry that we had not joined and gone with them.

But, it is never too late to do good, and we hope to be among the favored ones, ere a great while; perhaps in time to go to Tarboro next November, where we feel very certain Statesville's hospitality will be fully duplicated, as we learn that brother Stamps, of the Engineer, who was a delegate to the Statesville Council, will be the master of ceremonies on that occasion.

We wish the Friends the most abundant success in their good work, whether we join them or not; and, with such men as the order has for its leaders, we feel certain that it will meet with success.

We hope we stand square on the temperance question now.

NOW FOR WATER.—The new Board of City Commissioners having been duly installed, we take this early opportunity of calling their attention to the great lack of water in the city, and before they commence any other legislation, we trust they will give this vital question their prompt and active consideration. It has been a long time since we have had a fire of any magnitude, and sincerely hope the time for such a disaster may be postponed indefinitely. But what security have we for such hope? None, and it may be, before the ink with which this article is written becomes dry, the alarm of fire will be heard, and if so, where can our fire companies procure water sufficient to run their machines fifteen minutes? This is a serious question, and one put directly to the Commissioners, who are supposed to have the interest of the city in their keeping.

Much has already been said and written on the subject of water works—nothing is left to be said or written. It is admitted by all that a supply of water should be furnished the city. How do the Commissioners propose to do this, and when?

THE CAPITOL SQUARE.—The attention of the Keeper of the Capitol is called to the fact that it is time that he had learned that the grass in the Square should be mowed. The grass was not mowed for many days, and it is now so high that it is difficult to see the buildings. It is suggested that the grass be mowed at once, and that the grass be kept short during the summer months.

EDITORIAL CONVENTION.—Second Days PROCEEDINGS.—The Convention re-assembled at 9 o'clock.

Maj. Mann, of the Wilmington Post, as Chairman of the Committee on By-laws, submitted a report.

A telegram from the Georgia Press Association (now in session) was received, conveying greetings, and asking for any important action taken by this body. The telegram was properly responded to.

Mr. Biggs, from the Committee on Advertising and other matters, made a report which was acted upon. One of the recommendations of this Committee was to put advertising agencies on a footing with all other advertisers. This was opposed for several reasons by Mr. Spelman, of the Sentinel, and Mr. Mann, of the Wilmington Post and supported by Messrs. McDairmaid, Duffy, Johnstone Jones, Stone, Harris and others.

After considerable discussion the recommendation was adopted, there being but one dissenting voice.

Mr. Nason, of Newbern, offered a resolution requiring every publisher of a newspaper in the State to deposit with the Association the name of the newspaper, name of Editors and publishers also the length and width of columns, rates of subscription, advertising, etc. Adopted.

Mr. Cameron, of the Hillsboro Recorder, from the Committee on Resolutions, submitted a report, (too lengthy for this issue).

A letter was received from Col. Thos. B. Long, Special Agent of the Post Office Department for North Carolina, promising his aid in increasing the postal facilities of the State.

On motion of Mr. Engelhard, (Mr. Stone, of the News in the Chair), a resolution, was adopted to provide for the publication of all legal advertisements.

On motion of Maj. Mann, a resolution was adopted requiring prepayment of legal advertisements.

On motion of Mr. Harrell, of the Henderson Tribune, a resolution was adopted with a view to having abolished the present law in regard to the payment of postage on newspaper exchanges. Also a resolution of thanks to Dr. Wright, the genial proprietor of the Humphrey House, for his kindness and liberality in entertaining the members of the Convention.

An invitation to the members of the Convention to visit the next State Fair at Raleigh was received from President Holt and was accepted.

On motion of Mr. Furman, a resolution was adopted, approving of the State Centennial Celebration of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, and urging the people of the State to the necessity of its importance.

On motion of Mr. Duffy, the Secretary was instructed to prepare and furnish a copy of the Constitution and By-laws to every editor and publisher in the State for his approval; the return to be made within ten days.

On motion of Captain E. C. Woodson, of the Raleigh News, Colonel Walter L. Steele, of Rockingham, was invited to an honorary seat in this Convention.

The resolution looking to a uniform system of charges for job printing, previously submitted, failed to be taken from the table.

The following new delegates reported: J. B. Whitaker, of the Goldsboro News; H. A. Fote, of the Warrenton Gazette; and Capt. E. C. Woodson, of the Raleigh News.

The name of C. N. B. Evans, of the Milton Chronicle, was accidentally omitted in our report of the first day's proceedings.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President—J. A. Engelhard, of the Wilmington Journal.

Vice Presidents—C. N. B. Evans, of the Milton Chronicle; P. F. Duffy, of the Greensboro Patriot; J. C. Mann, of the Wilmington Post.

Treasurer—Jno. Spelman, of the Raleigh Sentinel.

Recording Secretary—Capt. R. T. Pugham, of the State Agricultural Journal.

Corresponding Secretary—J. D. Cameron, of the Hillsboro Recorder.

Executive Committee—Jordan Stone, of the Raleigh News; H. E. P. Manning, of the Ranoke News; G. W. Nason, of the Newbern Republic-Courier; R. M. Furman, of the Asheville Citizen; and J. B. Hussey, of the Piedmont Press.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee, subsequently held, Jordan Stone, Esq., was made Chairman of the Committee, and J. B. Hussey, Esq., Secretary.

It was agreed to hold the next Convention in Raleigh, on the Tuesday in May next.

Our report necessarily closed here in order to be mailed in time. The remainder of the proceedings will be given in our next issue.

INVITATION TO THE NORTH CAROLINA PRESS ASSOCIATION.—Yesterday the following telegram was sent to the North Carolina Press Association at Goldsboro, inviting them as a body to attend the next State Fair in this city: OFFICE N. C. AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY, Raleigh, N. C., May 15th, 1873. To Maj. J. A. Engelhard, President of N. C. Press Association, Goldsboro, N. C.

Colonel Holt, President of the North Carolina Agricultural Society, extends to you, and through you, to the Press of the State a cordial invitation to visit the Grand Exposition of the Society, to commence in this city, October 15th, and continue for six days.

R. T. FULGHUM, Secretary.

FESTIVAL AT OAK CITY HALL.—The Festival of Hickman Lodge, Good Templars, was repeated last evening at Oak City Hall, and with success equal to that of the evening before. The excellent performance of DuPre and Benedict's Attractive Opera Troupe was a new and attractive feature, and added no little to the pleasure of the evening. We congratulate Hickman Lodge upon the success of the entertainment, and hope to see it repeated often.

BANQUET AT THE NATIONAL.—Last evening the Odd-Fellow fraternity of this city gave a banquet in honor of the Grand Lodge, now in session in this city. The lateness of the hour at which we write (12:30 a. m.) precludes the possibility of anything like an adequate description. We can only speak in general terms, reserving details for another time. The tables were arranged with an elegance and taste which did infinite credit to Mr. Partin, the Superintendent of the National, and those who assisted him, and were liberally supplied with all that could tempt the palate. The Order, together with invited guests, mustered strong and filled the twenty tables spread.

1. The Grand Lodge of N. C.: We welcome its members to the hearts and the hospitalities of the Odd-Fellows of Raleigh.—Responded to by P. G. M. W. L. Smith.

2. The Grand Lodge of the U. S.: We look to it with confidence, as the Guardian of our great mission among the nations of the earth.—Responded to by P. G. M. Gales.

3. Our Retiring Grand Officers: They have discharged their duties with fidelity. We give them the plaudit. "Well done!"—Responded to by P. G. M. Yopp.

4. Our Grand Officers elect: They have a broad field of usefulness before them. We know that they will tread it faithfully.—Responded to by P. G. W. H. Bag
