PROGRESS AND EDUCATION. -The indications from all parts of our State give cheering promise that we are rapidly regaining our former prosperity. Cities, towns and villages are springing up as it by magic on all our railroads. Manufactories of cotton, wood, iron, tobacco, etc., are being established; mines of iron, coal, gold, mica, etc., are being purchased and operated by enterprising northern capitalists; and agriculture, our chief pursuit and the main basis of our wealth, is receiving more intelligent attention and producing richer results. In all this we are succeeding much better than we anticipated and the develment is greater and greater each day.

But let us not lose sight in our prosperity of that duty which we owe to our ignorant poor, nor shut our eyes to the wide spread illiteracy which the protracted war and extreme poverty have

The Convention met at 2 o'clock, Dr. Whitehead in the chair.

Letters of invitation were received from Goldsboro and Charlotte, asking the next meeting of the Convention at these points. A vote was taken and a majority being cast for Charlotte, the President announced that the next meeting of the Convention would be held at Charlotte, commencing on the third Tuesday in May, the bour and place to be designated by the Secretary.

The hour having arrived for the dis cussion of the treatment of acute internal inflamations by Drs. Satchwell and Norcom, the former led off in a speech of two hours, in reply to the speech of Dr. Norcom at Newbern last year. Dr. S. made quite an assault on Drs. Anstie Mr. W. W. Dr. Norcom, in reply, defended the reviewers above named, denounced antiphlogistic and defended the doctrines of restorative medicine. The latter, he said, was too ably advocated by Dr. Wood, the orator, and by the President also, in his able and eloquent

The efforts of both gentlemen were spoken of by the Society in the highest complimentary terms, and notwithstanding the great length of time occupied in the discussion they elicited the undivided attention of the members. We would be pleased to give a more lengthy report of the discussion, but we deny the capacity of the best New York phonographer to give even a synopsis of a Doctor's speech on diseases in a medical meeting, so unintelligible are some of their words to one like ourself, not initiated in medicine.

The Society adjourned to meet at the Presbyterian Church, where Dr. T. F. Wood, of Wilmington, the Orator of the Society, would deliver his address at 8

But not so, contended Dr. Wood. Unrequited toil, labour in the face of the neglect and objections of the world-opposition to dissectionthe false charge that medicine was opposed to religion, and that a search into the minutiae of it tends to materialism -these are some of the charges against which progressive medicine has had to contend and outlive and rise above. In no respect has the profession been more benefitted than by the discussions which have taken place in regard to inflamma-

participate in the EVENING SESSION.

The Convention was called to order by the President, Dr. Whitehead, who stated that it was an adjourned meeting for the purpose of continuing the discussion on the subject of acute-internal

Dr. Norcom said that Dr. Satchwell was absent but he would be glad to hear rom some other gentleman that enter tained the same view of Dr. S.

Dr. Kelly said he was glad to see in the lengthy discussion between Drs. Norcom and Satchwell, that they were drawing nearer together in their views. and on this important subject had shown a disposition to "cross hands across the bloody chasm." He would therefore move to proceed to other business more important, the reception of reports of Committees, &c.

Dr. Norcom was sorry that his friend Dr. Kelly so misapprehended the position between himself and Dr. Satchwell, that they were as wide apart as the North and South pole, and no prospect so far of ever uniting in opinion. He would again express his regret at the absence of Dr. Satchwell, that the discussion might continue. At his request, Dr. O'Hagan took the floor and said his opinion on threapeutics was too well known by the Society to again repeat. He was not prepared to defend Dr. Norcom in the position he assumed in the discussion, nor was he here to attack

After a few well-timed remarks in regard to what good had been accomplished by the discussion of this subject, he closed by saying he endorsed in toto the position of Dr. Norcom.

Dr. Foote being called out, he acknowledged himself under obligations to Dr. Norcom for arousing an enthusiasm in the Society on a subject so important, &c., to the profession. The discussion had even enlisted the interest of learned men outside of the profession. He knew that many members of the Society differed with Dr. Norcom, yet they must admit the fact that they were induced by his persistent efforts to think, read and ponder, when otherwise they would not have done so. He proceeded to discuss that portion of the controversy on Pneumonia and at some length gave his own views on various treatments, the effects, &c., as occurred in his own practice. (We would be pleased to report Dr. Foote's remarks at more length, but six months hard training would not enable us to articulate the hard words used, much less to write and spell them correctly.)

Drs. Jones, Hines, Sharpe, and others participated in the discussion, and in justice to the well formed opinion of these gentlemen we can say, all differed as to the best treatment for Pneumonia. Pending the discussion the Society ad-

day. Call and try it. may 24-2t* MUCH IS SAID BY SOME PERSONS, about the large amount of money carried out of our State, while but very few have any idea of the vast amount paid to our widows and orphans every month by Life Insurance Companies. P. F. Pescud, Sr., has just returned from Orange county, with the receipt of Col-Robert F. Webb, for $2,500 paid on Excelslor policy, No 3,010, insuring his late wife, Amanda F. Webb, and this Company has paid several other losses recently.

The NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE COM-PANY, U. S. A., have paid, within a short time, on policies issued on the lives of W. A. Cherry, deceased, of Greenville, Rev. J. Brinton Smith, D. D., and others, upwards of $20,000 and among the checks on hand to pay more recent losses, is one for the late Dr. John S. Leach, of Johnston county, who insured about three years ago on th RETURN PREMIUM plan, for $3,000. He paid $300 and the check calls for $3,300. A splendid investment truly. The Insurance Commissioners say that the National has a larger amount of cash to represent its liabilities than any other Company in America, and when its extremely low rates, inviting terms, and comparative freedom from certain restrictions is considered, it is not a matter of surprise, to find by referring to her last annual statement, that her cash capital of $1,000,000 has been increased to nearly $3,000,000, that it has issued nearly 21,000 policies in little more than four years and that the interest on its investments has exceeded all the lesses to this date. As a compliment to Messis. P. F. Pescud & Son, the General Agents for this State, this noble Company has consented to es-tablish a Loan Agency in this city, under the management of a Board of Directors, consisting of %5 Policy Holders, of at least $5,000 each, and as 22 have already been secured and but 3 more are required, we advise any one contemplating Insurance, to call immediately and thereby participate in the very great advantages which the Board will enjoy.
Active and successful agents will consult their interest by applying to Pescud & Scn, for a commission to solicit business in this
