MORNING EDITION. The Raleigh Daily News.

LOCAL MATTER. E. C. WOODSON, City Editor.

STATE OF THE THERMOMETER.—The Thermometer yesterday stood as follows at Branson's Book Store:

Table with 2 columns: Time and Temperature. Rows include 9 a.m., 12 m., 3 p.m., and 6 p.m.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Our friend J. H. Green, Esq., will accept our thanks for the lot of onions sent us. They were the largest by far that has yet appeared in the market.

Harrison, the Restaurateur, at Pepper's old stand, has a sea turtle, alive and kicking, that weighed 252 lbs. This monster of the briny deep will be served up in the way of soup for the next three days, from and after to-day.

Dr. Blacknell, of the Yarbrough, wrote to a huckster at Kinston for five gallons of whortleberries. By return mail he received the following reply: "There ain't none down here—I can send you any quantity of huckleberries—will this do?"

"If the Senior of the Milton Chronicle was not an old man whose gray hairs we greatly revere, we should go for him. Woodson, you know your duty, do it—It costs your head."—Piedmont Press.

Can't see it, Hussy. You don't half know the old man. He whipped seventeen sailors one morning before breakfast, and not a good morning for sailors at that. If you can pick up a better case we'll "go for" it.

We neglected yesterday to write up the storm that passed over the city Wednesday evening. The oldest inhabitants say they never knew a more terrific wind storm in the city. Large trees were blown down in several portions of the city, and every street was obstructed with broken limbs and branches. No damage to person or property.

Theo. N. Ramsey, the Knight of the Good Templars in this State, will sail for London on the second of July, for the purpose of attending the grand reunion of Good Templars to be held in London during that month. He will sail on the Steamer Pennsylvania, the pioneer vessel of the "Star Line" of transatlantic steamers between New York and Glasgow.

OUR REPORTS.—We are glad to know that our efforts to furnish our readers with the latest reports from important meetings are meeting with due appreciation at the hands of the public.

Our Local Editor attended the recent Medical Convention at Statesville, for the purpose of reporting the proceedings of that body, and the News was the first to report the same. Yesterday our paper contained accounts of three separate meetings by our special reporters, to wit: the Baptist Memorial meeting at Richmond, reported by Dr. Pritchard, the Episcopal Convention at Fayetteville, and the organization of the North Carolina Fertilizer Company at Goldsboro.

The rapidly increasing circulation of the DAILY NEWS in every section of the State is the best evidence that our expense and labor in furnishing our readers with the latest news are not thrown away.

This morning we continue our reports from Fayetteville and Richmond.

FEDERAL MEMORIAL EXERCISES.—The line of march was formed at the Court House yesterday afternoon. Stanley's Oak City Band headed the column, which was composed, first of United States troops, from Camp Russell; second, colored firemen; third, citizens in carriages. Arriving at the Cemetery, several shots were fired by the Artillery Company, after which Captain Magnin, the orator of the day, repeated his address delivered last year. We regret that our space is too limited to notice at more length the address, which is spoken of by every one as a very able production. After the address, Prof. Fairchilds read a poem and Mr. Duncan a short address. Everything passed off well and pleasantly.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Zacharias & Co. advertise in to-day's issue a splendid stock of dry goods, notions, clothing, boots and shoes, &c. These gentlemen are old and experienced merchants, have an attractive stock, sell cheap and deal fairly. We commend them to public patronage.

Grand Exposition by Prof. Hicks, the Magician and Ventriquist, on next Monday evening. The Professor, who is well known in this city, will expose and teach to his audience the various and many tricks of legismen. Also a full explanation of Ventriquism, how it is done, &c. See his advertisement elsewhere in to-day's issue.

DR. PRITCHARD AT THE BAPTIST MEMORIAL CONVENTION.—The Richmond Dispatch, in its report of the first day's proceedings of the Baptist Memorial Convention, in session in that city, says of our townsman:

"Rev. Dr. T. H. Pritchard, of North Carolina, next responded. "His soul had been thrilled by this great Memorial movement. Its influence had crossed the border and aroused the Baptist brotherhood of North Carolina to attempt a similar movement, and he should go back nerve to yet greater exertions."

PERSONAL.—We were pleased to see on the streets yesterday M. W. Churchill, Esq., who has just returned from a four months visit to Florida. He is slightly jaded from the effects of a long trip, but will fully recuperate in a few days, we hope.

FIFTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF NORTH CAROLINA.

[BY OUR OWN REPORTER.]

SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

FAYETTEVILLE, May 29th, 1873.

Pursuant to adjournment, the Convention was called to order at 9:30 a. m. After prayer the various Clergymen handed in their parochial reports for the past year.

The roll of members not present on yesterday was called and the following responded:

Rev. A. Smedes, Rev. C. O. Brady, col., Rev. E. R. Rick, Rev. F. J. Mendoch, J. W. Patton, J. C. McRae, J. F. Foulkes, L. J. Houghton, B. F. Howze, K. P. Battle, W. B. Cox, S. L. Fremont, W. H. Battle, T. F. Ferrell, H. Ezzell, W. H. Wetmore, J. S. Henderson, W. B. Meares, J. W. Atkinson and DuBruz Cutlar.

Rev. J. Harding was appointed Assistant Secretary.

The proceedings of yesterday were read by the Secretary.

Rev. Mr. Patterson thought that the Secretary should insert in his minutes some notice of the religious services of each day, and made a motion to that effect.

On motion of S. L. Fremont, the motion was laid on the table temporarily, and the proceedings were approved.

In accordance with a resolution offered by Rev. J. C. Huske, visiting brethren from other Dioceses, and clergymen of this Diocese not entitled to seats, were to take seats as visiting members of the Convention.

Rev. R. W. Barber, from the Committee on Elections, submitted a report upon a number of irregular certificates, which was adopted and the holders thereof were admitted to seats.

The Bishop then announced the following standing committees:

On the State of the Church—Rev. E. M. Forbes, Rev. N. C. Hughes, Rev. Jarvis Daxton, S. J. Hinsdale and W. R. Cox.

On Canons—Rev. A. Smedes, Rev. G. B. S. Brinson, Rev. B. H. Buel, J. G. Martin and W. H. Battle.

On New Parishes—Rev. Geo. Patterson, Rev. H. G. Hilton and P. A. Wiley.

On Unfinished Business—Rev. A. A. Benton, Rev. N. Falls and R. W. Singletary.

On Finance—Rev. A. A. Watson, Rev. J. C. Huske, S. L. Fremont, Robert Strange and K. P. Battle.

Here the Bishop read his annual address. It gave an account of his labors during the past year—and was listened to with deep attention. The extent of the territory of the Diocese was great, the Bishop said, as to make a division of the labors of the Episcopate necessary, and he thought the most practical way of doing this was by the election of an Assistant Bishop, &c. The number of confirmations during the year amounted to 365.

Rev. Geo. Patterson moved that that portion of the address in relation to the election of an Assistant Bishop be referred to a special committee of five. Carried.

The Bishop appointed as said committee, Rev. Smedes, Rev. N. C. Hughes, Rev. Geo. Patterson, A. J. DeRossett and W. H. Battle.

On motion of J. S. Henderson, the remaining portion of the address was referred to the Committee on the state of the Church.

Rev. J. C. Huske presented a memorial from a number of members of St. Joseph's (colored) Episcopal Church of Fayetteville, asking to be formed into a separate Parish, and be admitted into union with the Convention. The memorial was referred to the Committee on new Parishes, and subsequently reported upon favorably.

S. L. Fremont, from the Committee to revise the rules of order, submitted a report recommending an additional rule changing the manner of voting in elections. By the new rule only the name of the Parish is to be called, and not of the delegates as heretofore, one delegate, as chairman, to announce the vote of the Parish. The report was laid on the table temporarily.

Revs. A. Smedes, A. A. Watson and George Patterson submitted reports from various committees, which were accepted and referred.

W. H. Battle, from the special committee appointed for the purpose, submitted a form of a deed to be used in the conveyance of property to the Trustees of the Diocese.

The Treasurer, A. J. DeRossett, submitted a report, which was appropriately referred.

Rev. Mr. Branson offered a series of resolutions recommending that the Bishop appoint a committee of one or more in each Parish to co-operate with the building committee; also that a committee be appointed, consisting of the Bishop, two clergymen and two laymen to consider the matter of purchasing property, to be used in the establishment of a Diocesan school for girls.

The first resolution was adopted, and the second in regard to the Diocesan school was adopted.

A. J. DeRossett offered a series of resolutions recommending various amendments to the Canons as now printed, which were referred.

On motion, the Convention took a recess until 4 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At 4 p. m. the Bishop called the Convention to order.

The Rev. Bishop deprecated such action, in view of the fact that great difficulty is experienced in providing for the pay of an Assistant Bishop.

On motion of W. R. Cox, the consideration of this resolution was postponed until the committee in regard to the election of an Assistant Bishop should submit a report.

The third resolution of the report authorized the Treasurer to drop from his accounts stock which has become worthless, and recommended the appointment of a committee of three to designate the stock to be so dropped.

The resolution was adopted, and the Bishop appointed Messrs. De Rossett, Strange and Fremont as the committee.

The fourth resolution, recommending that no change be made in the present system of support of Diocesan missions, was adopted.

The new rule of order in reference to the manner of voting, reported in the morning by S. L. Fremont, was taken up for consideration.

A long discussion ensued, which was participated in by Messrs. S. L. Fremont, K. P. Battle, J. W. Atkinson, J. G. Martin, Robt. Strange and others.

The question was finally put in this shape: "When a vote by Orders is called for, the lay vote of each Parish shall be cast by one delegate, to be selected by the delegation, provided that any delegate voting in the minority may have his vote recorded."

On the adoption of this, S. L. Fremont called for a vote by Orders, which resulted in the rejection of the proposed new rule of Order—yeas 11, nays 17.

Rev. A. Smedes, from the committee to whom was referred that portion of the Bishop's address in relation to the election of an Assistant Bishop, submitted a report:

The first resolution of the report that the Convention proceed to-morrow to the election of an Assistant Bishop, was adopted.

The second resolution of the report, that the Assistant Bishop's salary be $2,500 per annum was next read.

S. L. Fremont moved to amend by making the salary $1,000 per annum.

After some debate, Mr. J. G. Martin moved to amend the amendment by making the salary $2,000.

S. L. Fremont withdrew his amendment, and the question recurring on the amendment of J. G. Martin, it was put to a vote and rejected.

The original proposition ($2,500) was adopted.

The third resolution of the report that to-morrow be observed as a day of fasting and prayer preparatory to the election of the Assistant Bishop, and that after morning service and the administration of the Holy Communion, the Clergy proceed to some place, to be provided by the Rector of this Parish, and make a nomination for the office, was next taken up.

After a rather lengthy debate, on motion of K. P. Battle, the words "fasting and prayer" were stricken from the resolution. The shape in which the resolution finally passed was, that morning service should take place at 9 o'clock, and after the administration of the Communion, the Clergy proceed to some place and make a nomination.

The fourth resolution that the Clergy submit the nomination to the Laity, sitting with closed doors, was next read and adopted.

By resolution, the Churches of the Good Sheppard, Ridgeway, Warren county, and Ascension at Hickory Tavern, Catawba county, were admitted into union with this Convention.

S. L. Fremont offered a resolution directing the Secretary to have the proceedings of this Convention printed within this Diocese, provided it could be done as well and as cheaply here as elsewhere. Adopted.

On motion the Convention adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

THE RALEIGH COTTON MARKET FOR THE FISCAL YEAR JUST ENDED.—

The following statement has been carefully prepared for us by Mr. B. L. Bingham, with Lynn Adams, Esq., Commission Merchant, showing the general cotton movement in the city of Raleigh for the season of 1872-'73, commencing September 1st, 1872 and ending on the 24th of May, 1873. It also exhibits the corresponding amounts of shipments for the years 1871-'72 from and to the same dates:

Table with 4 columns: Month, Bales Shipped, Price of L. M., Bales Shipped, Price of L. M. Rows include Sept., Oct., Nov., Dec., Jan., Feb., March, April, May.

Showing an increase of the present crop shipped, 5,898 bales. Cotton now stored in the city, 2,112 bales.

It is the opinion of our largest buyers that there is yet to come in between 2,500 to 3,000 bales, exclusive of the 2,112 bales now stored, which will be an increase over last year's shipment of from 9,000 to 10,000 bales.

It will thus be seen that Raleigh is rapidly becoming a cotton market of no small proportions. We are requested to state that planters should be more careful in the future in preparing their cotton for this market, as it will be closely inspected and will be sold on its grades. Seed and notes are often found with the lint. By the attention to this latter fact and to the often bad packing, the farmer and ginner will save much.

EXAMINATION.—The annual examination of the Students of the Raleigh Male Academy will commence on the 2nd of June, (next Monday), and continue three days.

The public generally, and the patrons especially, are invited to attend. This school numbers about 75 pupils.

Memorial Meeting in Richmond—Immense Gathering—Nineteen Hundred Delegates Present—Many Stirring Speeches—Great Enthusiasm—Address by Dr. Curry on the Connection of the Baptists with Religious Liberty, Delivered in a Huge Pavilion to Ten Thousand People—$24,000 Raised for Richmond College—J. B. Jeter's Return from Rome.

[BY OUR OWN REPORTER.]

SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Richmond, May 29th, 1873.

DEAR NEWS.—The profound impression which this great Baptist gathering has made on the good people of Richmond may be seen from the following extract taken from to-day's Enquirer: "Every train that came into Richmond yesterday was freighted with delegates and visitors to the Baptist General Association. During the morning our streets were thronged with strangers, and a more stirring scene was never presented in the annals of the city. Our people generally threw open their houses and hospitality reigned supreme with all classes."

The General Association met in the 2d Baptist Church of Richmond last night, the church in which it was organized fifty years ago. Rev. J. M. Curry, D. D., LL. D., was chosen President, Judge Jones, Gen. Fields, Rev. T. Hernden and Dr. A. B. Brown Vice-Presidents, and Rev. J. T. Johnson Secretary. Dr. Curry, after thanking the body for the compliment paid him, and referring to the interesting surroundings of the hour, introduced Rev. C. C. Betting, D. D., pastor of the church, who welcomed the nineteen hundred delegates from all parts of the Union, in an address of welcome full of hearty cordiality, and abounding in passages of beauty and eloquence. To this speech of welcome, the representatives of the different States responded in brief addresses, as they were called out by the President, Horatio Gates Jones, leading lawyer of Philadelphia, and the Secretary of the Philadelphia Baptist Association, now in its 105th year, and the mother of the Baptist churches of Virginia and North Carolina, was first heard. He was followed by Rev. H. C. Graves, of Providence, R. I. Dr. E. T. Hiscok spoke for New York, Dr. Wm. Hague for New Jersey, Dr. J. W. M. Williams, of Baltimore, for Maryland, Dr. T. H. Pritchard for North Carolina, Rev. F. W. Eason for South Carolina, Dr. Freemar for Illinois, and Rev. W. P. Walker for West Virginia. Other States were represented in the body, but the late hour forbade further proceedings.

Of course these speeches were short, but they were quite spirited and received with much enthusiasm, while good fellowship ruled the hour. The speaker for North Carolina, however, did not say what the Dispatch puts into his mouth. "His soul had been thrilled by this great Memorial movement. Its influence had crossed the border and aroused the Baptist brotherhood of North Carolina to attempt a similar movement, and he should go back nerve to yet greater exertions."

What he did say was this: "Mr. President—I have looked in vain over this vast audience for the tall form of Dr. Wingate, from whom as the President of a rival college, in a sister State, a response to your cordial welcome would have come more gracefully. I have watched with thrilling interest the progress of this movement. Anything connected with liberty touches my heart. I was born in Charlotte, N. C. For years my grand father, Dr. Samuel Henderson, kept the original documents of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, entrusted to him by his friend, John Mecklenburg, and of the earliest recollection of my life was the booming of cannon which ushered in the 20th of May, the anniversary of the day, which makes old Mecklenburg illustrious in the history of freedom. I do not know, sir, that any of my ancestors suffered for conscience sake, but, sir, my wife's great grand father, Samuel Brinsey, was put in jail in Newbern, N. C. because he would not have his babies baptized. The Virginia Baptists have done nobly—their pastors and their people have made many sacrifices, and covered themselves with honor by their munificent contributions to the cause of sanctified learning. I was once a Virginia Pastor, but I left the State too soon, for I should have regarded it as the privilege of a life-time to have engaged my mind in this great enterprise. The history of our first and illustrious and bright with the deeds of her noble sons, but this Memorial Enterprise deserves to rank in honor with her most illustrious memories, and the name of the man whose brain first formed the conceptions, will be honored and reared by posterity. We have begun a like work for Wake Forest College in N. C., and I shall go back to my native State, which lies before us, by the spirit which I have seen displayed by the brethren of this noble old Commonwealth."

I correct this misstatement of the Dispatch because it is not just to North Carolina Baptists to say that they caught the idea of endorsing their College from Virginia. For several years, your reporter happens to know that there have been friends of Wake Forest who have been urging its endowment, and the enterprise which the Baptists have undertaken there would have been attempted if there never had been a memorial movement in Virginia.

To-day has been the climax of interest of this most wonderful meeting. On the College grounds an immense pavilion, costing between fifteen hundred and two thousand dollars, had been erected, and under it were gathered about 10,000 people to commemorate the Jubilee. Rev. James Fife, one of the fifteen delegates who fifty years ago, formed the Association, delivered a brief historical address, after which Dr. Curry made the great speech of his life. He has been for years distinguished as one of the first orators of this country. He has made many celebrated speeches in the Congress of the United and Confederate States, but he doubtless never delivered so great a speech on so great a subject, and before such an audience. His theme was "The Baptists and Religious Liberty," and for two hours and a half he riveted the attention and thrilled the hearts of that vast concourse of human souls. His speech will be published, we learn, and I shall be much mistaken if it does not create a sensation in the religious world.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY!

TWO WELL-KNOWN "SHARPERS" THE AUTHORS OF THE OUTRAGE!

TRIAL BEFORE THE MAYOR!

Yesterday morning an old citizen of this county by the name of John Young, living fifteen miles South of the city, brought in two bales of cotton, which he sold to Lynn Adams, who gave him a check on the Raleigh National Bank (minus his store account) for $125. After drawing the money from the Bank Mr. Young went first to the store of Julius Lewis, Gulley & Bro., Cheatham & Bro., and J. J. Overby, at which places he made some small purchases. He then went to a blacksmith shop on Wilmington street, paid for the shoeing of a horse, and then went again to the store of Lynn Adams, where he paid for a plow for his nephew. He put his check, containing about $100, in his side pocket and went out to his cart, standing in front of the store. While at his cart, he was first approached by a man who asked him to change a five dollar bill for him. He replied he had no time to look over his money. He was immediately afterwards approached by another man who slapped him on the breast in a familiar way and asked what he was paying for cotton-choppers. He replied that he was not in want of hands, when both of the party left him, going in the direction of Wilmington street. In less than three minutes after the party left he missed his pocket-book and at once applied to police headquarters. Assistant Chief of Police Dunston set to work at once, and in less than an hour he succeeded in arresting Frank Harrison and Dick Crockett, who were recognized by Mr. Young as the parties who approached him at the wagon.

They were brought before His Honor, the Mayor, when Mr. Young, as the principal witness, testified to the facts as above stated.

Job Wyatt, a salesman in the store of Wyatt, Green & Co., testified that he saw and heard the man Harrison ask Mr. Young for the change, and Crockett was sitting on the curbstone near the cart above referred to.

The prisoners were taken in a private room and a thorough examination of their person made, but no money other than small pocket change was found.

A material witness for the State was sent for, but could not be found, when the Mayor gave his decision as follows: The testimony of Mr. Young recognizing the prisoners as the men who approached him at the wagon where his money was lost, and this testimony corroborated by the witness, Mr. Wyatt, together with their former record, I will bind them over in the sum of $500 each, for their personal appearance at the same term of Wake Superior Court. In default of bail they were committed to jail.

The men charged with the commission of this high-handed outrage, Frank Harrison and Dick Crockett, are what is known as "Saturday night Wilmington street sharpers," thoroughly accomplished in the arts of the "string" game, and every other species of rascality known in the vocabulary of low crime. They are notorious as the meanest and most persistent rogues in the city, and have on several previous occasions aided in the enlargement of the Mayor's Court docket. The decision of the Mayor was just and fair, and gave universal satisfaction.

DANGEROUS PRACTICE—CITY AUTHORITIES TAKE NOTICE.—

We notice that the street hands, in cleaning out the gutters in various places on Fayetteville and West Hargett streets, and possibly elsewhere, are throwing the filth thus removed into the middle of the streets instead of hauling it off, causing no pleasant or healthy odor to pervade these localities. At this season of the year too much precaution cannot be taken to prevent the creation of disease, and the city authorities should adopt all possible sanitary measures.

"BILL ARP" TO BE IN RALEIGH.—

Theo. N. Ramsey, Esq., yesterday received a letter from "Bill Arp," the Georgia humorist and lecturer, stating that he would lecture in Raleigh some time during June. He could not say what time, in consequence of sickness in his family. The citizens of Raleigh will no doubt show their appreciation of this humorist. He will lecture at no other point in this State.

A NORTH CAROLINA EDITOR DROWNED WHILE BATHING!

HIS BODY NOT RECOVERED!

[SPECIAL TO DAILY NEWS.]

WILMINGTON, May 30, 1873.

Mr. W. S. McDiarmid, Editor of the Lambertton Republican, was drowned in the Lumber River, at Lambertton, yesterday evening, whilst bathing. He was alone, and being missed this morning, search was made and his clothes were found on the bank of the river. He could not swim. His body has not been recovered.

[Mr. McDiarmid was some forty years of age, has been connected with the press for a number of years, and was not only a successful editor and publisher, but stood deservedly high with brother editors in the State. His death will occasion a loss to the press of North Carolina that will be sadly felt.—Ed. News.]

BOSTON AGAIN IN FLAMES!

Much of the Business Portion of the City Destroyed!

MILLIONS OF DOLLARS WORTH OF PROPERTY BURNED!

BOSTON, May 30.—A heavy fire is progressing in the business portion of the city. It broke out at 8 o'clock this morning and is now (9:35 a. m.) raging on both sides of Washington street near Boylston and Essex streets. The Globe theatre is destroyed. A north-west wind prevailing.

10 A. M.—The fire broke out about half past 8, in the upper part of Haley, Nurse & Co.'s large furniture warehouse, No. 411 Washington st., and is spreading with fearful rapidity, the wind being strong from north-west. The principal direction of the fire is now toward Harrison street.

10:5 A. M.—When discovered, the fire was in the upper floor of Haley, Nurse & Co.'s warehouse among the workshops, and the flames issuing from the roof. Piles of light material packed away were like so much tinder, and before the alarm could be given, great volumes of flame were rolling up fifty feet into the air and clouds of smoke rising. The heat generated was intense, and in 20 minutes the upper stories of the building, from front to rear, a distance of two hundred feet, were a mass of glowing flame. The fire worked back into the stables of George F. Bonney, on Bumstead Place, which runs out of Boylston street near Washington street, and destroyed it. Eventually the walls further murders and rioting. The Chinese are greatly alarmed, and have closed the theatres and stores. The law-abiding citizens of all classes denounce in strong terms, the efforts made by unprincipled demagogues to incite the murder of these people. There is a general determination that the laws shall be maintained at all hazards.

Suicide from Jealousy.

LANCASTER, Pa., a recently married youth has suicided from jealousy.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Affairs in San Francisco.—Considerable Anxiety Felt for Gen. Davis, Who is Scouting with the Indians.—The Gibson Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 30.—An unknown Chinaman was murdered here last night. There are apprehensions of further murders and rioting. The Chinese are greatly alarmed, and have closed the theatres and stores. The law-abiding citizens of all classes denounce in strong terms, the efforts made by unprincipled demagogues to incite the murder of these people. There is a general determination that the laws shall be maintained at all hazards.

Considerable anxiety is felt for Gen. Davis, who has gone on a scout with the captured Modocs after Capt. Jack.

There is much excitement in Sacramento City, proceeding from the investigation before the Police Commissioners, relating to the conduct of officers Harris and Dale, in the case of Mortimer, the murderer of Mrs. Gibson. Carrie Mortimer testifies that the officers, or these officers, on several occasions, gave information to Mortimer and herself about persons who were possessed of larger sums of money, in order that Mortimer and she might rob them. She also swears that three officers brought Mortimer home the night of the murder of Mrs. Gibson, and told her that they had business for Mortimer to perform, but he was too drunk to attend to it properly. A large number of witnesses have been examined in the case.

A Free Fight in a Church—"Brethren and Sisters" "Pull each Others' Wool."

BROOKLYN, May 30.—The congregation of the African M. E. Church at Jean and Schenectady avenue, at Brooklyn, held their May festival in church last evening. About midnight, while the congregation was singing psalms, one of the sisters felt herself aggrieved at some remarks of one of the brethren. A male friend of the woman sought out the aggressor, and from words they came to blows, and in a short time a general fight ensued. Chairs and tables were overturned, and soon the floor was covered with the rolling and struggling mass of men and women, resulting in upsetting ice cream, cakes and jellies of all kinds. The police were called, but before they succeeded in separating the combatants, two of their number were knocked down. Nearly all of the "brethren and sisters" were then marched off to the station house.

Cotton Statement.

New York, May 30.—Net receipts at all United States ports during week 32,877 bales; same last year, 11,464; total to date 3,398,589; same time last year, 2,656,617. Exports during week 69,900; same week
