All parties ordering the News will please send the money for the time the paper is wanted.

Contractors will not be allowed, under their contracts, to advertise any other than their legitimate business, unless by paying specially for such advertisements.

Messrs. Griffin and Hoffman, Newspaper Advertising Agents, No. 4 South Street, Baltimore, Md., are authorized to contract for advertisements at low rates. Advertisers in that City are requested to leave their favors with this house.

The trade in old rags is getting to be brisk and of growing importance.

The next Convention of the International Typographical Union will be held in St. Louis, in June, 1874.

There is said to be a good lot of cotton in the country in this vicinity, which will soon find a market in this city.

There will be memorial services at the Edenton street Methodist church to-morrow morning, in respect to the memory of the late Rev. N. F. Reid.

We are pained to learn that the health of Hon. D. M. Barringer is somewhat impaired. We hope it may soon be fully re-established.

In many localities the city is extremely filthy. We again urge the necessity of a general cleaning up. Will not the authorities see to this matter?

THE ORPHAN ASYLUM.—As an evidence that everything is being done by Mr. Mills to secure for the Orphan Asylum only the best officers and teachers, we publish below the letter of Mr. J. B. Burwell, of the Peace Institute, endorsing the qualifications of Miss Jennie Long, who has been selected as one of the teachers in the Asylum. The number of applicants are numerous, but none but those who can show the highest testimonials will be accepted.

DEAR SIR.—You ask my opinion as to the qualifications of Miss Jennie Long for a teacher in the Orphan Asylum, and I cheerfully bear testimony to her high character as a lady and a teacher. She was connected with our Institute in Charlotte, and gave entire satisfaction, having proved herself an eminently faithful and successful teacher. I think you are fortunate in securing her services, as I do not know of any one better fitted for the position.

I feel sure that she will fulfill every expectation. Very truly yours, J. B. BURWELL.

J. H. MILLS, Esq. Raleigh, N. C.

THE DAILY NEWS.

VOL. 11. RALEIGH, N. C. SATURDAY MORNING, JUNE 14, 1873. NO. 95.

MARRIAGE OF THE MANAGING EDITOR OF THE DAILY NEWS.

Following from the Rome (Ga.) Daily Commercial dispels at once and forever the mystery which attended the southern trip of Jordan Stone, Esq., one of the proprietors and managing editor of this paper. Says the Commercial: "In Talladega county, Alabama, on the 10th inst., by Rev. D. Henderson, Jordan Stone, Esq., editor of the Raleigh (N. C.) DAILY NEWS, and Mrs. Mattie D. Welch, daughter of James C. Burt, of Talladega county.

"The old North State sends one of her gallant sons to Alabama in search of a wife, and from the above announcement, he has succeeded in winning one of the fairest, sweetest and purest ladies of our sister State. May the life barque with the choicest treasures of peace and contentment and may their future be ever attractive and beautiful as they contemplate the declining years of life."

We are sure Mr. Stone's many warm friends in this State and Virginia will echo the kind wishes contained in the above, and bid the couple, so happily joined together, God-speed on their journey through life. With pride we point our unmarried brethren of the mill to Mr. Stone's shining example, and earnestly recommend them to emulate him.

COTTON FACTORIES IN ORANGE AND ALAMANCE.

The following interesting article in regard to cotton factories in the counties of Orange and Alamance is taken from the Hillsboro Recorder, and as it speaks of matter in which the people of this section are deeply interested we give it a place in our local columns: "We called attention some time since to the magnificent water power of Haw River, and to the fact that within a space of sixty miles of its course, from its mouth of Troublesome creek to its union with Deep River at Haywood, there was in every two miles of its course, a good mill or factory site. This statement was not assertion or conjecture, but was founded on actual survey.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.

This Court convened at 10 A. M., Judges Bond and Brooks presiding. The greater part of the morning session was occupied in the argument of the United States vs. W. G. Gaivney et al., which was commenced the day previous. After speeches by Messrs. G. V. Strong and W. N. H. Smith for the defense and District Attorney Badger for the prosecution, the case was given to the jury by a brief charge of Judge Bond. At the adjournment of the morning session of the Court, the jury had not returned a verdict.

EVENING SESSION.

The jury in the Gaivney case returned a verdict of not guilty as to two of the defendants, and guilty as to the other, with a recommendation of mercy. This last named defendant is Hinton Gaivney. The case of J. W. Howell vs. Western R. R. Co., was next taken up. The Attorneys of the plaintiff, Messrs. Merrimon, Fuller & Ashe, moved for the appointment of a Receiver. The motion was overruled, but the Court appointed J. B. Batcherlor, Commissioner, to take testimony and report upon the solvency of the Road.

RULES FOR TAKING DEPOSITIONS IN THE SIXTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

HIS HONOR JUDGE S. W. WATTS has issued the following rules for the taking of depositions in this (the Sixth) Judicial District:

It is ordered that the following be the rules, as to notice, for taking depositions to be read in the Superior Courts of the Sixth Judicial District, held either before the Judge or the Clerk of the Superior Court.

If the depositions are not taken under the rules as to notice prescribed by chapter 31, section 63 of Revised Code, they may be taken under the following:

1. If the place of taking them be in any city or town in the United States, to which may lead a railroad line in connection with any railroad in this State, or at any place within twenty miles of such railroad line, a notice of fifteen days shall be sufficient, and any steamboat line shall be regarded as a railroad.

2. If the place be elsewhere in the United States there shall be a notice of twenty days; except that if the place elsewhere be in any State or Territory of the United States west of the Mississippi river, other than in the States of Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri, Iowa and Minnesota, the notice shall be forty days.

3. Out of the United States, the notice, if not specially prescribed in the case, shall be reasonable to be judged of by the Court.

4. Notice to a party, or to his Agent or Attorney resident in the State, shall be deemed sufficient.

5. If there be no such known Agent or Attorney in the State, notice shall be deemed sufficient by advertisement for three weeks in a newspaper in the State to be selected by the Judge or the Clerk and at the expiration of that time notice shall be deemed duly served.

6. When the parties to any suit shall consent, in writing, depositions may be taken upon written interrogatories before a commissioner for that purpose, and in such case the party, proposing to take the deposition, shall file his interrogatories with the Clerk of the Court, giving to the opposite party, or his attorney on days notice thereof, who shall file his cross interrogatories within the said time; and the same together with a commission from the Court may then be forwarded to the commissioner, who may take the deposition upon said interrogatories without further notice or time appointed therefor.

The foregoing rules are approved; and the Clerks of the respective counties will enter them accordingly.

LOUISBURG ITEMS.—Our esteemed Louisville correspondent, C. M. W., sends us the following items of interest from his section:

The Spring session of M. S. Davis' Male Academy closed on Wednesday night last with a public declamation by the pupils. The programme was as follows:

The Widow Bedott's Poetry—Robert T. Clifton.

Marco Bozzaris—W. D. Griffin. Killed by a Widow—Jno. N. Harris. The Result of the Last Election—Geo. W. Carlisle.

A Countryman in Town—H. M. Barrow.

Tight Times—Fenner Yarboro. Death of Stonewall Jackson—R. H. Davis.

Our Honored Dead—J. A. White. Signing the Grab Salary Bill, (Soliloquy)—E. H. Davis.

A Drunkard's Soliloquy in a Coal Cellar—J. S. Harper.

Turn that Carpet—W. P. Neal. Origin of the "White Trash"—W. F. Marshall.

The Soldier of the Rhine—W. P. Carroway.

The Blind Men and the Elephant—J. H. Yarboro.

The Devil and the Lawyers—W. H. Williams.

The audience was large and appreciative, and the young Demosthenes deported themselves in a manner satisfactory to all and every one. The attendance on the examination was not as large as it should have been. Parents and guardians greatly err in the indifference shown to this important matter.

A colored house girl, living with J. E. Lankford, stole from her master's bureau drawer at various times, during the last two months about $80 in specie, which was placed there by Mrs. L. for safe keeping. An investigation showed that she had made her deposit with a colored laborer on the farm. Notwithstanding these parties have come to grief, yet it serves as a lesson to housekeepers not to leave their keys "lying around loose."

Wednesday evening, the 11th inst., Mr. Edwin L. Brown, of Hillsboro, led to the hymeneal altar Miss Eva T. Furman, of this city. Rev. P. J. Carraway, of the Methodist Church, was the officiating clergyman. Mrs. Furman, noted for her capability in such affairs, gave a splendid collation and entertainment at her residence. Everything passed off as merry as a "marriage bell."

We were blessed with a good season yesterday. The rain fell gently during the day, and the gardens and crops greatly revived and now growing rapidly.

A real live alligator was caught in Charlotte on Sunday.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

NOON DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

POOL PLAY ON THE POLARIS—WINDLES By Saint Howard and His Confederates, etc.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—A dispatch says that refugees from the Polaris have been sent North with instructions to make no communications. The dispatch states that enough has been hinted around the Navy Yard to indicate that the report of the Secretary of Navy will indicate that jealously and intrigue prevailed on the Polaris from the day she sailed. Captain Hall found that Buddington opposed him, and when the Polaris reached the farthest point North with everything favorable in prospect, Buddington objected to go farther, when Hall became discouraged and Buddington, after Hall's death was constantly drunk.

Captain Hall's widow arrived at Washington yesterday from Cincinnati and was surprised to find the crew gone as she desired to talk with them about her husband's death.

The naval authorities withhold information regarding the Polaris affair.

It has leaked out that during the recent excursion of the Examining Board of the Treasury Department, South, a Collector of Customs was found who could neither read nor write, and who has previously been convicted of an infamous crime.

The Secretary of War, according to a special from Washington, has submitted to the Department of Justice a statement of the condition of the affairs found by the War Department to exist in the division of the late Freedmen's Bureau, charged with the settlement of bounty to colored soldiers. The statements set forth that the claimants for whom Treasury certificates have been issued and sent to the Freedmen's Bureau for payment, never received their money, although they were marked on the records of the Bureau as paid, and reported to the Treasury by the disbursing officer of the Bureau as paid, and so credited in the settlement of his account. For this fraud, the Secretary of War wishes to know the degree of responsibility, under the law, of General O. O. Howard and his disbursing officer, Gen. Rallock. When the War Department took possession of the records of the Bureau unpaid claims were found amounting to $730,000, and $33,000 found unpaid, although entered on the records and reported to the Treasury, and there credited as paid.

Reward of the Traitors.

New York Items—Funeral Ceremony of the Late J. L. Orr.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon all the municipal offices were closed as a mark of respect to the memory of the late U. S. Minister Orr. Among those who called at the Governor's room to-day to view the remains were Maj. General Hancock and staff, who also accepted invitations as participants in the funeral ceremonies. President Grant telegraphed from West Point his regrets that his engagements would not permit him to be present. Wilmot DeSaussure, ex-Grand Master of the Masonic fraternity of South Carolina, telegraphed his wish on his way to this city to attend the funeral. Twenty Masonic Lodges reported at the City Hall this morning that they will join in the funeral escort, and about forty more lodges from this city, Brooklyn and Jersey City, will also report. As the City Hall clock struck high noon to-day, the band of the New York Commandery, stationed in the rotunda, played a dirge from Lucia de Lamour. A large crowd of people were gathered in the neighborhood.

The Stock Exchange will adjourn from July 3d to the following Monday.

The Horsemanship operations, it turns out, includes 200 shares of the Reading Railroad stock, received for the forged certificate of the Pennsylvania Railroad stock from Messrs. Ross & McGraw, of Lancaster, Pa.

There is still a good deal of excitement on the cotton exchange, and it was reported this morning that several more failures will be soon announced. There seems, however, to be a general impression that the worst is over, and that no panic will ensue.

Cotton this morning again slightly advanced in price, and it is thought that fresh importations of cotton will arrive the early part of next month, and that the present effort to create "corner," will be frustrated.

LATER.—The funeral services of the late Minister Orr, took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The arrangements for the procession to the Church with the remains of the late Hon. J. L. Orr, were perfected. The City Hall Park was crowded to excess. A sea of faces being turned toward the main entrance, eagerly looking for a sight at the splendid coffin which enclosed the body. The Pall Bearers were, Hon. S. H. Johnson, W. De Saussure, Jas. J. J. Johnson, N. J. Waring, J. D. Evans, J. Phillips, John W. Simons, Daniel Sikes and Albert G. McKay. The band assembled in the rotunda of the City Hall, and played some solemn and mournful dirges. The Pall Bearers, with the unmoved look upon the coffin and carried it down to the hearse. Sir Knights formed on either side as the coffin was borne past and then filed into marching order.

Other pall bearers were his Common Council, Mayor Caldwell, and a large number of officers of Grand Lodge, and several of the Washington Grays were already assembled at the Church, in full uniform. After the services were over the cortege marched down Fifth avenue to Fourteenth street, where the remains were placed on board a steamer and taken to Jersey City and put on the train for the South. The eldest son of the deceased Minister accompanied the remains, also many friends and brother Knights.

From Paris.

PARIS, June 13.—It is announced that the Minister of Finance will prosecute Gustave Courbet for the recovery of the sum expended by the Government in the reconstruction of the Vendome column. M. Courbet was the chief instrument of the Commune for carrying out its decrees of April 13, ordering the demolition of the column.
