THE LATE DISTURBANCE ON FANETTE TILLE STREET-TROUBLE AMONG THE WORKINGMEN.-The following has been handed us for publication: To the Editors of the Daily News !"

In the issue of your paper of this date, the 20th of June, under the above head, you do Mayor Whitaker great injustice whereas you say

"Notwithstanding we were assured by occurred, that should an attempt be peace. made to interfere with Mr. O'Neill's men he would order out his full police force, and if necessary would call out the citnot with standing the disturbance took place immediately in view of his office, yet we saw no attempt made by his Honor at the time to protect the thread

And "as the disorderly scenes took place in sight of the Mayor's office, and ary, without any special effort to suppress the disturbance, when it was at its height, we must say that Mayor Whitaker is guilty of dereliction of duty in not acting with greater firmness and discretion and efficiency as a prace officer" (A.)

The undersigned, a portion of the working-men and citizens of Raleigh, claim the right of freemen to congress gate on the streets of their city for any pulpose whatever that is not wolawful, and we insist that the assemblage of workingmen on Fayetteville street last Wednesday afternoon was not an unawful gathering. They went there for the purpose of remonstrance, not violence, and for any of the excitement incidential to the crowd of idle and curious spectators who congregated there the mechanics and working men of the city are not to be held as producing a violent commotion on the streets to the extent of breaking the peace. (B.)

Mayor Whitaker was assured by good.

You political workers get up meetappland, fill the streets with long pro-cessions, deride your political foes and beaten opponents when you pass their houses, create all manner of excitement, break up the quiet of the community and nothing is said. (D.)

But when the material workers of our class gather on the streets for simple remonstrance merely to secure unity of action and interest among the laboring men you and your class are indignant at the Mayor because we are not arrested and put in the guardhouse. (E) Do you forget the grand parade here

When you arraign Mayor Whitaker in connection with the laboring movement last Wednesday, you reflect on the first time in the service this morning mechanics and workingmen of Raleigh, ally beneficial to the whole community of our people—the property awners, con tractors, mechanics, laborers and every business interest and individual of the ofty: (G.) sold bear appoint morning

The decision of the Court is looked forward to with great interest. The case of W. P. Hadley vs. W. A. Nash and wife, from Chatham, was next taken up and argued. Hon. John Manning appeared for the plaintiff and J. H. Headen for defendants.

The Court adjourned to meet again on Monday morning at 9 o'clock:

Violent disturbance or breach of the law. The object of the mechanics and laboring men who assembled on Fayetteville street last Wednesday afternoon was peaceably, agreeably and quietly attained, without the aid and co-operation of your press, for in this nor in any former action, looking, to, their, well-being and interest, have the mechanics and laboring men who assembled on Fayetteville street last Wednesday afternoon was peaceably, agreeably and quietly attained, without the aid and co-operation of your press, for in this nor in any former action, looking, to, their, well-being and interest, have the mechanics and laboring men who assembled on Fayetteville street last Wednesday afternoon was peaceably, agreeably and quietly attained, without the aid and co-operation of your press, for in this nor in any former action, looking, to, their, well-being and interest, have the mechanics and laboring men who assembled on Fayetteville street last Wednesday afternoon was peaceably, agreeably and quietly attained, without the aid and co-operation of your press, for in this nor in any former action. and working men of Raleigh had the zid and sympathy of either the NEWS or Sentinel nor will they, perhaps, hereafter want the aid and sympathy of want the aid and sympathy of either of

Brooks and Mary Velvine. Thomas di semble on the streets to interfere with sentations concerning them may be impersons engaged in a peaceful and hour plicitly relied on. We invite special in orable employment. Such potential attention to his attractive announce-a ternoon, by which work was suspended by the hands who had refused to comply with the terms previously recommended by the individuals making the "remoustrance," was something before unheard of in this city, and we sincerely trust will never be heard of again-NEVER! If there was no breach of the peace it is because the defence in your criticism of his official conduct, O'Neill submitted to overpowering less workingmen in the employment of numbers; and it was not the fault of the Mayor nor the ruling spirits of the the Mayor one hour before this scence meb that there was no breach of the

C. From this it appears that the Mayor was acting in collusion and by agreen ent with the intimidators, and is even more unity than we in:agined.

D. When political meetings interfere with the rights of any citizens, they become unlawful assemblages. It polliticians, lawyers, merchants, doctors, or tened mechanics, or to disperse the uny body of men attempt to interfere crowd, or in any manner to preserve the publicly on the streets by such deminwith the rights of any class, we should shounce such conduct as utterly unwarranted and despotic, and as deserving the censure of all good citizens. E. Such "simple remonstrance" as that resorted to, to secure "unity of action and interest among the laboring men" is putting it rather mindly, where it is known that such "remonstrance" actually put O'Neill's laborers in bodily fear, stopped their work, and caused them against their wishes to accede to the terms which they had before frequently and most positively declined. We never blamed the Mayor for not arresting and putting in the guard house anybody. Certainly we would not advise him to arrest an innocent person. His Honor ought to have dispersed the crowd who had gathered to remonstrate?

Mayor Whitaker was assured by good political gatherings shall so overawe and true orderly men-peace loving private individuals as to compel them to work on any system of labor, by there would be no breach of the peace, reason of fear of bodily harm they beand these men were about to see that come despotic and illegal bodies and should be severely condemned. The man who would throw a rock into a political procession is guilty of a piece ings, draw promiscuous crowds, shout, of meanness and his conduct cannot be approved, any more than the conduct of those who attempt to interfere with a man's private contracts. G. No reasonable man can say we reflect upon the mechanics of the city, because we charge the Mayor with derelection of duty in not protecting defenceless mechanics from the mob. It is because we are the friends of mechanics that we wish to see such outrages suppressed in the bud. No true friend of the mechanics will endorse lawlessness and crime. They are bad counsellors who tell them that such a course will in 1870 in celebration of the release of advance their interests. It is doubtless Mr. Josiah Turner, and the other Kirk best there be unity of action and concert prisoners? Do you forget the torch- among mechanics. But this was a tonlight processions of both political par- test of workingmen against working ties here last August; the booming of men, and we espoused the cause of the by, Esq., died suddenly at his residence, is unfounded.

The terrible assemblace on system, it is DESPOTISM, wicked, cruel, Wednesday afternoon, of which you absolute despotism, which would decomplain at the Mayor so bitterly, was prive them of their rights as freemen to contract on such terms as they may deem fit.

> H. The RALEIGH NEWS will never advocate any principles which we believe detrimental to the interests of workingmen. Its proprietors belong to that class themselves. Their sympathies, their feelings, their interests, are all with the workingmen of the land. But we will not advocate the course pointed out by agitators and political demagagues who have at least only their own promotion and self interest and who, when the troubles of the working men are brought upon them by their violent and incendiary appeals, will be the first to desert them in their hour of need and peril.

They are not the best friends of the working classes who council extreme measures and who profess the greatest love for them. Such lip service is cheap. It cost nothing. We despise the ranting demagogue and truckster who for seifish purposes would array one class of our population as ainst another. Our people will not defead workingmen when they do wrong, but will in the face of misrepresentation and prejudice, advocate what it believes to be their highest interest as good citizens and as useful members of society.

ICE FOR RALEIGH.—The people of Raleigh are paying anoually thou sands of dollars for ice to Northern companies, when it might be ma le here and sold at one cent per pound. We are surprised that the enterprise of Capt. Brain, to gas used in cities, and is in every way manufacture a supply of ice for our peo- superior to the ordinary lamp-light. The ile, is not at once taken up and carried out. Ice afforded at one cent per pound, and that, too, of the best quality, would be more largely consumed than it is at present, and a healthy margin of profits would thus be afforded to the manufacturers. Capt. Brain requires but eight thousand dollars to commence the manutacture of the article. Charlotte is wide awake on the subject, and will have a full supply of the pure article, made on the spot. Why do our citi zens hesitate? We trust the requisite amount will be raised at once, and this real blessing, pure ice, be afforded to

My Dear Friends, Officers, Teachers and scholars:- In presenting this my 1st annual report, I refer with gratitude to the fact, that although we number more than 500, death has not made a single proad into our ranks. Not a single person actively engaged with us in this work, has been called away. While we have incurred the dangers usual to railroad travel in two excursions, one to Lockville, with about 700 persons, and the other to Haywood, with over 850; making an aggregate travel of over 50,-000 miles, the same merciful Providence has protected us from all harm.

Materially, we have been very greatly blessed, and numbers have been added upto us, and our people have been generous in their contributions, as will be shown by our expenditures, which are

$ 1 925 68 To which, if we add the presents made by the officers and teachers during the year, we have a grand total of nearly two thousand dollars. It wi'l be noticed that this report covers the whole since the election of the present officers, which is something over a year, but more than $1,800 of this money has been expended within the year from May, 1872, to May, 1873. During the last year a new enterprise has been started that promises great good, not only to the school, but to our entire city. I allude to our miscellaneous li brary. We hope the time is not far distant when our present 400 volumes will be increased to at least as many thousands of valuable books-supply a lelt want in our growing community.

congratulate you upon the fact, that your school is entirely free from debt, and notwithstanding the comparatively large amount of money expended last year, it was raised without any special effort, showing that our good people have a "mind to work" in this direction, and I think it should encourage us to undertake yet greater things for the advancement of our school. The Sunday School should be aggressive, with a motto of "onward and upward." While our school should be satisfied with no less motto than Excelsior, with our Father's blessing we may be the lest if we will.

But for the expected report of the Librarian, I would refer to the present condition of our Sunday School library, which requires immediate attention. f regret to report that the spiritual condition of the school is not as good as should be, nor so good as it would be, if we were more faithful.

Twelve hopeful converts have been paptized from our school by our beloved pastor within the last year, and there are as many others who are inquiring the way of life.

In conclusion, let me thank you all for your uniform kindness to me since you made me your Superintendent .-Your gentleness and good behavior have enabled me to keep my promise, not to scold, even without an effore .--There are officers, teachers and scholars here, whose noble conduct and self-sacrifice aught to be mentioned, but there is such a number of these worthies that time forbids. I can assure you, however, that they will not be forgotten by your unworthy Superintendent; besides, there is a book of remembrance being written, more enduring and more to be desired than the most flattering epitaph ever written on sculptured granite or polished marble.

Truly the laborers in this vineyard shall have their reward. J. M. HECK, Sup't.

We congratulate the school on the acquisition of Dr. Van Meyerhoff, whose enthu siastic devotion to music, thorough knowledge of it, and great skill in imparting instruction, will contribute not a little to the formation of high musical taste. As an evidence of the manner in which his skill is appreciated, we give a brief extract from the Louisville and Richmond Christian Observer : "At the head of the musical profession in the United States stand Rubinstein, Von Myerhoff and Perrebeau. The first named is regarded as the leading pianist in the world. But in some respects he is surpassed by Von Myerhoff, who, for wondrous brilliancy, power and sweetness combined, probably has no equal." The New York Herald, in speaking of a concert given in New York, says: "L.
