KATIE PUTNAM .- The advertising columns of the NEWS announce the important fact that Katie Putnam, the beautiful, charming and attractive little Katie, will appear on our boards this week. Katie has already risen to the coveted position of a star, but many critics claim for her the leading actress of the American stage. She is known in Raleigh, and her coming will be greeted by a | the jubilee of Epiphany and the sol-host of admirers. The Memphis Appeal, the leading journal of the Bluff City, has this to say of Katie's engagement in that

"Miss Putnam, although young in years, seems to possess histrionic talent of high order. During her engagement, which has been very successful, Miss Putnam has produced several popular pieces that belong to the lighter order of the drama, but which are ever enjoyable. Among these may be mentioned "Fanchon, the Cricket," in which she rivals, if she does not excel, any actress on the American stage. Particularly is this observable in the third act of the drama, where waywardness are so peculiarly blended by the dramatic, and in the lights and shades of each, Miss Putnam, as the "Cricket," ever shows to great advantage,"

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY.-In the Senate yesterday Mr. Peebles introduced a bill to provide one additional regular term of the Superior Courts for Northampton and Halifax counties for each and every year. The term for Northampton is to begin on the third Monday in January, and that of Halifax, on the second Monday in June. Each term shall hold two weeks, except the business is sooner disposed of. These additional terms have the same jurisdiction as those already established, except that no civil actions shall be commenced returnable thereto, nor shall any execution or other final process in civil actions issue therefrom. On motion of Mr. Peebles, the bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee. The resolution of Mr. French to assure the people that the Legislature intended to amend the Constitution at the earliest practicable moment, introduced on Friday, was adopted by a party vote, Mr. Walker being the only Republican voting for the meas-This places the Republican members of the Senate against amendments to the Constitution by any mode.

The Senate will commence night essions on Monday night, to be held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights.

In the House much of the session was consumed in the discussion of the Louisiana resolutions. Mr. Plnnix, of Davidson, made a very able, elaborate and exhaustive speech in favor of the resolutions, in which he dealt some very severe blows on the Republican party. Mr. Oaksmith also spoke from a Democratic standpoint in favor of the resolutions, but objected to a part of the phraseology. Messrs. Norment and Glenn represented the opposition in lengthy but useless speeches. At the expiration of about two hours Mr. Mebane thought the time was being needlessly consumed, and moved that the motion of Mr. Norment to reconsider be laid on the table. The remarks of Mr. Mebane being to the point and expressive of the sentiment of the House on this important question, we append them in full: Addressing the Speaker, he said that as a member of the committee which reported the resolutions, he desired | with his constituents on the subject, to say that they were so drawn as, it and as he was elected to this Board to was hoped, to meet the unanimous approval of both parties, and it was their desire that no discussion would arise thinking, as they did, that a dignified protest against the act, spread upon the journals, would be much more becoming in this Assembly than a batch of spread-eagle speeches He did not doubt that if some members of the opposition had analyzed the resolutions more carefully they would have voted differently. He therefore moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table, believing, as he did, that such motion would have the approbation of some of the best members of the House, and that we would be able to proceed with business more important than the continuancy of a useless and wordy discussion, and especially after the eulogy on the President pronounced by the gentleman from Carteret.

Yours, very truly, R. F. ARMFIELD. No Election .- A meeting of the City Commissioners was called last evening for the purpose of electing a Mayor to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mayor Holden. All the Board were present, and acting Mayor H. M. Miller presided. After the meeting was called to order. Commissioner Royster said that owing to the limited notice given of the meeting and its purpose, he was unprepared to cast his vote, and moved that the meeting adjourn till next Wednesday night. He had had no opportunity of consulting represent and reflect their wishes, he would protest against any vote being taken to-night. Commissioner Stronach coincided with the views of Mr. Royster, and seconded the motion or postponement. The motion prevailed, and the Board adjourned.

SUPREME COURT .- On Thursday the Supreme Court heard the argument in the following cases from the 7th Judicial District: Wilson and Shober vs. B. F. Moore

THE JUDICIAL IMBROGLIO.-The session of the Supreme Court Friday and Saturday was consumed entirely in the argument on the cases of Cloud vs. Wilson, and Moore vs. Hilliard, both cases being heard in conjunction. In the first case, Mr. Mc-Corkle appeared for the plaintiff, and the defense represented by Messrs. Graves, Smith & Strong, and J. W. Graham. In the latter case, Messrs. E.G. Haywood, J. B. Batchelor and Judge Fowle appeared for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Smith & Strong, Battle & Son, D. M. Carter and Gen. Cox appeared for the defendant. Each of the attorneys took part in the argument, and the matter was thoroughly discussed, every available point being brought to bear. The Court will probably render a decision Monday evening.

MOVEMENTS COTTON IN RALEIGH. Receipts for the week ending January 23rd, 907 bales; market closing at 14 a14. Receipts for corresponding week last year, 958 bales, market then closing at 133c. This shows a falling off this week of 51 bales. Whole receipts from September 1st, 1874 to January 23rd. 1875, 21,582 bales; same time last year 14,529. Showing increase in total receipts this year, 7 .-053 bales. During the week just past our market has been very active and prices advanced to 14s to 14h, but closed as above at 141 to 141. With the very heavy falling off in receipts in the United States we may hope for a very material advance.

On motion of Mr. Walker, of Richmond, a bill to repeal an act prohibiting the sale of liquors within three miles of Richmond county courthouse was taken up and passed its readings. On motion of Mr. Latta, the Omnibus bill, being a substitute for various prohibition bills preventing the sale of spirituous liquors in certain localities, was taken up and put on its passage. On motion of Mr. King, House bill to authorize Cherokee and Graham counties to cancel bonds, and for other purposes, called and passed its readings. On motion of Mr. Means, Senate bill in regard to the weighing of lint cotton called up. On the second reading, Mr. McRae moved to refer.

Mr. Means, strongly advocating the rights of the former, opposed the reference. Motion to refer lost. Bill passed second reading, 106 voting in affirmative. On the third reading of the bill a motion to refer the same to the Judiciary Committee elicited considerable discussion, Mr. Means opposing and Messrs. Moring, Oaksmith, Mc-Rae, Staples, Finger and Griffin favoring, and asking reference as per-sonal courtesy. Mr. Means stated in a party speech in defence of him-self and the minority against the Mabson, colored, stated that he who | charges that had been made by the majority. Mr. Oaksmith at some length opposed the motion to reconsider, but stated his reasons for desiring to explain his vote yesterday. While he endorsed the resolution in the main,

Mr. Mebane thought the discussion had been sufficient for all purposes and as a member of the Committee sider. This motion prevalled. Mr. Means, who voted in the negative, explained he had hoped there would be not even the slightest evidence of politics in this matter, that he did not believe there was in the resolutions; they were a proper denunciation of an infringement of a great Constitutional right, but as the discussion had been entered into fully by Democrats he did not think it right thus to cut off the minority.
