A SPLENDID PIECE OF WORKMAN SHIP.-Major Cameron, of the N. C. State Life Insurance Company, has in his office decidedly the best piece of workmanship in its line we have ever seen, being a handsome picture of Beast Butler set in procelain, which was sent the Major by a friend in New Orleans, the place above all others where the Beast is admired. The friends of Butler, or those desirous of seeing it simply as a piece of workmanship, will call at the Insurance office, where Major Cameron will take pleasure in exhibiting this animal "in frame."

A CASE OF SUNSTROKE .- Yesterday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock a young son of Mr. Barnes Whitaker, of this county, while standing by a load of wood which of Pepper's Saloon, Wilmington the sun. He was removed to Mr. Pepper's eating saloon and I is head bathed in ice-water and a small quantity of water and whiskey administered to him, which served to resusc .tate him. Dr. Little was called in, and in the course of a couple of hours the young man was sufficiently recovered to be carried home.

Somebody in St. Louis has come across a letter written nearly eighty years ago, and sent with a wedding gift of a handkerchief to a young lady on the eve of her marriage. The letter says: "I send you, dear girl, an enchanted handkerchief. If you hold it tight to your mouth when you feel, some hundred years hence, (after the honeymoon) like finding fault with your husband, it will have a very good effect, I have used one for twenty years, and found it always effectual."- Exchange.

The old lady might as well have saved her handkerchief and her good advice also, but verily, verily the latter will not be followed. If young women were deprived of the privilege and relief of finding fault with their husbands, the world would be draped in funeral colors for themand life itself would be but a shadowy

THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE RAL-EIGH LIGHT INFANTRY .- The first anniversary of this Company, as we have stated, will take place on Wednesday. The Company and the invited guests-and we learn that quite a number, including ladies, will accompany them-will leave here tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock, on a special train, for Kittrell's Springs, where they are to be the guest of "mine host" of the Davis Hotel at the Depot. The day is to be spent in target practice and other amusements, and at night a grand ball is to be given at the hotel. We know that a good time will be had. P. S .- We are authorized to state the special train will leave the N. C. Depot at 8 o'clock sharp. Price of tickets, including dinner and supper, $2.50; without the latter, $1.00. The train will leave Kittrells at 31 a. m. returning. will be safe in their hands. QUESTION SETTLED.-The following correspondence in the N. Y. Journal of Commerce settles a question that seems to have existed in the minds of some regarding the Boston Centennial:

RALEIGH, N. C., July 14, 1875. Editors of the Journal of Commerce: The writer, a Confederate soldier, during his trip to Boston, was, and is now, under the impression that General Francis A. Osborn was not only chief marshal, but commander-iucheif; my friend says nay, General Butler was commander-iu-chief, and claimed the right (State rights) by virtue of his being the ranking officer of Massachusetts militia. In other wards was Generals Osborn or Butler commanding officer? If so, it was a high compliment to the latter, being the first time he ever commanded Confederates with muskets in their

This answer is asked simply to decide the point; as to myself and companions we were delighted and amazed at our reception, and will ever remember Bunker Hill Centennial as the entering wedge to general amnesty and fraternal feeling. GREASY SAM AND MR. WADDELL IN THE WEST .- The Charlotte Observer thus relates the story of Mr. M. Q. Waddell, of Chatham, meetng Judge Samivel Watts at Marion a few days since, a brief account of which we had Saturday morning :

"Mr. Waddell and Gen Leach arrived at Marion, McDowell county. on Thursday about 2 p. m., and found the Court House filled with people listening to his Greasy Honor and Col (?) W. S. Pearson on the one side and Maj. W. J. Montgomery on the other. Maj. Montgomery spoke only a short time after these two gentlemen entered, and Pearson followed him in a short talk. Greasy had already spoken once, but he made another speech of a half hour in length. When he had concluded, Gen. Leach rose and introduced Mr. Waddell. Greasy had not seen him since he had entered the Court him if he would not excuse his absence from the Court House for a few moments, that he would soon he back. He was told yes, and as be eared the door, Mr. Waddell turning to the crowd, said: "You will neversee that man in here again,' and they didn't. He had too lively t recollection of the drubbing he received at the hands of Mr. Waddell in Pittsboro last week, to meet him in debate again. Gen. Leach and Mr. Waddell both spoke, and when they finished, Pearson had disappeared." In another article the Observer says:

WELDON, N. C., July 28.-Great excitement prevailed here this afternoon by a few pistol shots being discharged at each other by Capt. Wm. H. Day and Major Thos. L. Emry, While several gentlemen were discussing the subject of buying the Literary property, Emry gave vent to strong invectives, which were directed at Day and others, when Day resented the offence and attempted to draw a revolver. Emry requested that he be permitted to arm himself, which he did, and returned, when a velley of shots crossed the shed. By their shield, two large posts, the combatants were protected, and no blood was shed. Day is under bond, while Emry has left town temporarily.

SO MANY FARMERS THERE.-The Charlo t. Observer thus exposes a bit of Radical bombast, by which they hope to bo'ster up their cause: In the report of the proceedings of the Rad calConvention held in this tie on 'uesday, as made up by the cityetary and turnished to the Ral-

"By shiminy; ish dot so!" Now we would like to know the names of some of these horny-handed sons of toil who "in the face of party displeasure" expressed their oppositiou to Convention. There were only three farmers in that meeting-Jo Gillespie, Bissel and Martin-and they have ever been Radicals, dyed in the wool and double struck in the weaving. What amount of "party displeasure" do they incur in opposing Convention? Wouldn't they be kicked out of the party if they didn't oppose? "So many farmers!

[For the Daily News. To our North in Pellow-Citizens. Mr. Editor : On Election day last August, I was going up Fayetteville Street and stepped into a store to leave some Democratic tickets, and was approached by man whom I did-not know, but whom I could see at a glance was a Northern man. He asked me some question about the tickets I had is fon the show-case, which embolds that me to propose to him that he der seit one in the balot-box. He renarked that he had always voted the Republican ticket at the North, but that up there the Republican party was composed of the best citizens, the industrious, in-telligent, well-yi-do people, but that he had discove id that it was very different down wouth, that he found the Republicate party here made up, chiefly, of gove iment office-holders and ignorant \ | icks, and that most of the respectable white people were Democrats, and that as he considered himself a respectable man, and hal come down her to live among us, he wanted to asso, ate with white folks,

This instance is cited as an example which is worthy of imitation by our adopted fellow citizens from the North, who come among us to make their homes and bring up their families. It is not Susan Pace vs. Presley P. Pace, contended that a Northern man is e respected, but it is a fact too evideut to any man of observation, to be questioned, that as a rule the Northern men who have come South since the war, and have identified themselves with the radical party here, have made less progress in their callngs, and enjoy less of the respect and confidence of the best people of the Country, than those who have shown proper self-respect, and respect for their own race, by voting with and for intelligent white Democrats. Then let the adopted citizen of North Carolina, who has been voting with the radicals and against his own interest—unless he be one of the Northern plunderers so eloquently alluded to by a speaker of that party, on a recent occasion in this city-pause and reflect!
