REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF THE ORPHAN ASYLUMS OF THE STATE.

Superintendent J. H. Mills, of the Oxford and Mars Hill Orphan Asylums, made a most interesting report of the workings of those institutions to the present session of the Grand Lodge of Masons in this city.

The contributions to the Oxford Orphan Asylum from December 1, 1874, to November 30th, 1875, were $13,065.98.

The Grand Lodge met yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, Grand Master Blount in the East, and morning, afternoon and night sessions were held, much work of importance to the order being done.

The Committee on Charters and Dispensations made a further report recommending that charters be granted to Apex, Mt. Moriah and Eaglefield Lodges, and that Bakersville Lodge be continued under dispensation.

The Committee on Suspensions and Expulsions submitted a report which, after being fully discussed, was adopted.

The report of the Committee on Propositions and Grievances was adopted, also a report from the Committee on Jurisprudence, and from the Committee on work and Returns of Lodges.

The committee on Periodicals reported recommending the Masonic Code, the Oxford's Friend, and the Masonic Journal, of Greensboro, which report was adopted.

The following officers were appointed by the Grand Master for the ensuing masonic year:

D. G. M.—Eugene Grissom. G. Chaplain.—F. L. Reid. G. S. D.—J. D. Southernland. G. J. D.—J. C. L. Gauder. G. J. Marshall.—Eugene S. Martin. G. Sword Bearer.—Jos. Hildersheimer. G. Pursuivant.—David Y. Cooper. G. Tyler.—H. C. Prempert.

At night the report of the committee on the Orphan Asylum was read and adopted, after some amendments.

This report embraced much interesting matter in connection with the two Asylums which have been founded by the Grand Lodge.

It heartily endorsed the labors of Superintendent Mills, stating that under his energetic and effective workings the object of the Grand Lodge in establishing these institutions had been fully carried out.

The sum of $2,000 was donated to the Asylums for the next year, and an effort was put on foot to create an endowment fund for them.

The Superintendent was empowered to make such arrangements as might best be effected for the sending to school four of the orphans each year, several schools in the State having offered to educate some of these children, the Asylum furnishing them clothing and books.

The discussion upon this subject elicited the fact from Mr. Mills that already several of the most intelligent children from the Oxford Asylum were being educated at different schools, and this, too, without any cost to the Asylum, friends coming forward to their help and defraying all costs other than the tuition given by the schools.

His object is to fit those intelligent children as far as possible to fill other positions than that of servants, to make them teachers in the institution itself or to occupy more exalted positions in society than could otherwise be obtained.

The installation of the newly-elected officers took place at a late hour last night, when the Lodge adjourned to meet this morning at 10 o'clock. It will probably adjourn sine die this evening.

The dedication of the Lodge room was postponed until to-day.

PERSONAL.—Messrs. Wilson of the Greensboro Masonic Journal, Foote of the Warrenton Gazette, and Baker of the Louisville Courier, were in the city yesterday.

Hon. Z. B. Vance was in the city yesterday, and was stopping at the National Hotel.

Edwin W. Fuller and lady, of Louisville, arrived in this city yesterday evening en route to visit friends in Wilmington. They stopped at the Central Hotel.

REMOVAL PROPOSED.—Dr. J. R. H. Garner, Druggist, will on the first of January move his drug store into the store-room recently occupied by Major Winder as an office, immediately opposite the Market House on Fayetteville street.

The case of Murphy & Co., of King county, vs. the Old Dominion Insurance Company, of Richmond, Va., was argued, Messrs. Smith & Strong appearing for the plaintiffs and Messrs. Jno. Gatling and Wm. T. Dorth for the defendants.

HERE AND THERE.

Half the strength spent in growling would often set things right. Dress skirts are getting so tight that outside pockets have come into use.

Which travels the faster, cold or heat? Why heat you dunce, can't anybody catch cold?

Some people contrive to get hold of the prickly side of everything, to run against all the sharp corners, and find out all the disagreeable things.

He who frets is never the one who mends, who heals, who repairs evils; more, he discourages, enfeebles, and too often disables those around him, who, but for the gloom and depression of his company, would do good work and keep up brave cheer.

The tumbling rod of a steam thrashing machine will take a pull-back dress off a woman quicker than any thing else yet discovered.

Employment is essential to happiness, and so generally is this recognized that there are times when even the laziest man feels inclined to thank his creator for having provided him with a mousethumb to twirl.

Fifteen thousand people will go to church to see a beautiful girl married, but if it rains on Sunday they "ain't well."

As far as selling Christmas goods is concerned, the man who commences advertising them soonest will sell the most. This is a saying worthy of all acceptance.

A love-sick swain of this city wrote the following lines to the girl who discarded him:

"To err is human, To forgive divine, 'But,' said he, 'she didn't divine worth a cent.'"

You can't most always sometimes tell who's in your chicken coop of nights. A county gentleman reached an arm into his other evening and pulled out—a colored minister.

THE STRUGGLING POOR.—"The poor ye have always with you," is a fact our people should remember at this season of the year.

The fact that winter is upon us with all its rigors, brings forcibly to remembrance the condition of the struggling poor. Raleigh has its full proportion, and although the noble order of the Young Men's Christian Association labors zealously and earnestly for the relief of the poor, it is wholly impossible for them to know all the actual wants to be found in our community, and with the limited means at their command they cannot give that help which is actually needed by all of our poor.

Every individual in our community that is able to give should remember the wants of their poorer neighbors, and thus alleviate the actual sufferings that are to be found in all portions of the city, and by all means let the hands of the Young Men's Christian Association be upheld in their work.

ACCIDENT TO CHAS. A. GREGORY, ESQ., OF GRANVILLE.—We regret very much to learn of serious if not fatal injuries sustained by this highly esteemed citizen of Granville a couple of days since.

It seems as Mr. Gregory was riding on horseback that he was thrown from his horse and his head came in contact with a rock, causing as it is feared the fracture of his skull.

As Mr. Gregory was known to be a good rider and a gentleman of sober habits it was at first suspected that a brutal assault had been made on him with intent to perpetrate a robbery, but he was somewhat subject to vertigo, and the more probable conjecture is that he was suffering from an attack of this malady at the time of the accident.

REMOVED.—Nat. L. Brown, dealer in toys, fancy goods, willow-ware and musical instruments, has just removed into one of the new stores in the Holleman building, just south of the Raleigh National Bank, and has now decidedly one of the most handsome stores in the city.

Although he only commenced moving on Tuesday, he has already made his establishment look exceedingly beautiful, and in a day or two will be fully prepared to show off to that advantage which want of room has hitherto prevented him from doing.

We congratulate him on this evidence of prosperity and his good fortune in securing such an eligible position.

THE DEATH OF WM. M. GAY.—A correspondent, writing us from Oxford, says of the death of this young man, whose remains, as we noticed yesterday, passed through this city Tuesday morning en route to Granville:

"He was a most estimable and promising young man, (son of Dr. Gay,) and had recently opened a tobacco house under the firm name of Gay & Daniel, at Rome, Georgia. It seems consumption had marked him as its victim, and the noble spirit of Wm. M. Gay yielded to the inexorable fiat of this fatal disease."

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.—We invite special attention to the advertisement elsewhere of Messrs. S. A. Stevens & Co., of Norfolk, Va., dealers in pianos, organs, &c., of the best quality and of the most celebrated makes.

The Steiny and Chickering pianos and the George Woods organs are among their assortment. No more reliable house in the country can be found than that of Messrs. Stevens & Co.

Tweed's Escape and What is Result of it in New York.

The Herald, in commenting bitterly upon the manner of Tweed's escape from the clutches of the law and from this country at the same time, says:

The developments of yesterday would indicate that the drive from Ludlow Street Jail was simply to a rendezvous in Central Park, where, unless appearances were very deceptive, Tweed had been waiting for the great thief he was sworn to keep in custody non voyage, as the latter got into a vehicle that was to take him to the outgoing steamer for Europe, perhaps, or may be for the colored Republic of Hayti where, since the opera bouffe time of Emperor Souleuvre, they have not seen a great professor of the art of public robbery.

It was of a feeling of delicacy to the voluntary exile who in going forth to the loneliness of London or Paris might prefer to depart unaccompanied and unobserved, a ridiculous piece of self-deception. We live in the hope, however, that all the villainy which plotted the escape and connived at and assisted in its execution shall be unmasked and the responsibility put where it belongs.

To Tweed, going with the crowd of his country in his ears, we earnestly wish the pleasure of a speedy return. He will be watched and waited for. If he has fled to any country with which we hold no treaty, we hope that no effort will be left unmade to grip him and bring him back. He is one of those lowering criminals with whom untiring justice should wrestle until it pins him down.

To the Sheriff and those directly responsible for his escape we must insist that the full rigor of the law be meted out. If Sheriff Conner sits down lamenting that he is not to blame, we have only to say that we cannot under the circumstances acquit him of any portion of the responsibility. Tweed was his prisoner. He knew as all the world knew that Tweed's condition before the law was desperate; the public press had warned him of Tweed's continual trips round town and General's case before his eyes, and it was his business to see that the gorged plunderer of New York was held until legal process acquitted him of his charge.

The Protestant Episcopal Almanac for 1876 reports the following statistics of the Church for the past year: Bishops, 57; Bishops elect, 3; other clergy, 3,125; number of clergy deceased, 41; baptisms, 35,033; confirmations, 22,095; communicants, 281,003; marriages, 9,990; burials, 18,969; candidates for orders, 298; Ordinations—Deacons, 119; priests, 87; Sunday school teachers, 23,448; scholars, 235,943. Contributions, $8,889,305.64.

THE EVIL FRUITS OF WEAK DIGESTION.—There is no pathological fact more clearly ascertained than that the most formidable phlegm and mucus discharges are really traceable to imperfect digestion. Inasmuch as the brain of cerebral congestion, prostration, nervous weakness of the stomach than from any other cause. More than 100,000,000 are afflicted with nervousness, and soon cease to palliate its symptoms. The true way to a robust and vigorous system is to purify the digestive and assimilative organs upon which the nervous system and equilibrium is absolutely dependent. The daily use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will more to brace and soothe the weak and irritable nerves, and induce so-called "biliousness," and a general catarrh—than all the so-called purgatives to be found in the pharmacopoeia or a box of pills. Weaknesses of the bowels should be taken before each meal.
