CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—B. P. Williamson & Co., announce a most rare and attractive auction of paintings, choice wines, liquors, sugar, &c., &c., on Friday next.

Creech offers a choice lot of summer wrappings at New York cost.

See Court advertisement from Beaufort county.

Pulliam, Jones & Co., offer for sale superior Claret wine, Adamantine candles, &c.

Rufus H. Page, Esq., is agent for the Insurance and Savings Company of Virginia, Richmond. This is a reliable institution, and Mr. Page will make an active and efficient agent.

See notice of silver waiter stolen from a residence on Fayetteville street, yesterday.

MR. WHEAT'S CONCERT, last evening, was another brilliant success. The audience was, if possible, more numerous and more delighted than on the occasion of the first entertainment. Mr. Wheat surpassed himself, and the young lady and gentlemen amateurs all acquitted themselves handsomely and in a manner that reflected credit upon the musical talent of the community. Both Concerts have constituted a delightful episode in our usual City monotony.

A SWINDLER.—The Richmond papers state that a young man, calling himself Henry De Vere, has been swindling the citizens of Richmond. This is the same individual who imposed upon the good people of Fayetteville, and who was exposed, some days since, through the columns of the Sentinel. The Times says of his operations in Richmond:

"He announced that his plan was to hold musical conventions of the girls and boys, supplying them with sheets of poetry and teaching the music for 50 cents a head—after getting five or six hundred, he would have a floral procession and concert for the benefit of the school cause in Richmond. He brought a letter of introduction from Rev. A. Gordon Bakewell, of Mt. Olivet Church, Algiers, Louisiana. He wrote and circulated notices to be read in the various churches of this city on Sabbath last—many of which were read, announcing that he would commence at Virginia Hall yesterday to organize; but alas for all human hopes, Saturday's mail brought papers containing circulars from Rev. Gordon Bakewell, and Mr. T. W. Guthrie, of North Carolina, denouncing him as a swindler, impostor and humbug, and warning the public against him. Unfortunately, yesterday morning he got wind of the fact that the papers had arrived, and before the warrant, which was issued for his arrest, could be served, he had flown to other parts."

THE WILMINGTON papers state that the building formerly occupied by the Bank of North Carolina, in that city, is being re fitted for the new National Bank.

ROANOKE CROPS.—A correspondent of the Petersburg Index, writing from Halifax, says that there has been a six weeks drought on the Roanoke, and that the corn crop is very unpromising.

HON. GEO. DAVIS.—The Wilmington Journal says that this distinguished gentleman has received his pardon. It adds very justly:

"We are confident that all North Carolinians will receive the news with much gratification. Throughout the South, by all who honor devotion to principle, honesty of purpose, lofty patriotism and eminent abilities, the intelligence of the pardon of the Attorney General of the late Confederate States will be received with pleasure. Mr. Davis has shown, by his faithfulness in discharge of his duties towards the Confederate government, the best and surest evidence of his worthiness to receive the Executive pardon, having taken the oath to support the Government of the United States. Even the Northern people are beginning to learn that those who were true to their section and State, in times of danger and necessity, are now the men who can be relied on when pure patriotism and manly courage are required. We congratulate our distinguished fellow-citizen, and can assure the President that a more worthy gentlemen or useful citizen has never been the recipient of his clemency."

A NEW bridge is being built over the Cape Fear at Fayetteville, in place of the one destroyed at the time of Sherman's visit to that town. It will probably be finished by the Fall.

FOUR PRISONERS, freedmen, made their escape from Hillsboro' jail, on Wednesday and Thursday last. They were all ironed, but by some means managed to relieve themselves of the incumbrances.

On Thursday last, the Sheriff of the County, with a posse, went in pursuit of two Watsons, notorious offenders, who escaped on the 23d.—They were pursued all day, and at night the refugees were overtaken by a small squad, and as they attempted to escape they were fired into, and Wesley Watson was wounded, though not captured until the next day. He is now again in prison. The wound is very severe if not fatal. James Hawks was also captured, and sent to Alamance County, in which jail he is now confined.

BELLS.—We are sorry to see that our Presbyterian and Methodist friends in Charlotte are making quite an ado about a Bell. The clapper has made too much noise about it. If it belonged to the Confederate government, as a writer in the Charlotte Times hints, the ownership now is certainly in the U. S. government, and we should not be surprised, from the noise made over it, if it did not claim it.

Some hitherto unknown fragments of Cicero have lately been discovered in one of the libraries on the Rhine.

The bill to prevent the wearing of sheath knives by American seamen in the merchant's service was passed.

In Iowa recently two husbands traded wives, one giving the other one thousand five hundred dollars to boot. The citizens didn't like that style, and drove the husband who received the "boot" from the country, with his new wife.—The other couple yet remain.

A Great Outrage.

CHARLESTON, July 29.—The four prisoners sentenced by a military commission to be hung, and reprieved by the President, and whose attempted liberation on a writ of habeas corpus occasioned the recent conflict of authority between General Sickles and the United States District Court, were quietly removed last night by a steamer, under guard, from Castle Pinckney. The military authorities refuse any information concerning their whereabouts. The impression prevails that they were sent North out of the jurisdiction of the court.

THE CABINET.—Mr. Harlan having resigned the Secretaryship of the Interior, and Orville H. Browning, of Illinois, having been appointed in his place, the Cabinet, on the 1st. of September, when Mr. Harlan retires, will stand as follows: Secretary of State, William H. Seward; Secretary of War, Edwin M. Stanton; Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles; Secretary of the Interior, Orville H. Browning; Postmaster General, A. W. Randall; Attorney-General, Henry Stanbery.

The President has appointed General Hancock to the Major-Generalship in the regular army vacated by the promotion of Gen. Sherman, and Gen. Ord to the Brigade Generalship, vice Hancock.

Judge Stanbery, Attorney General, is 70 years of age.

General Grant has engaged rooms at the Fillmore House, Newport, R. I.

Mr. Speaker Colfax has declined being a candidate for Senator from Indiana.

[From the New York World.]

The Test-Oath.

The Daily News couples the Times with the World, and asserts of both journals that they "uphold, justify and defend" the Congressional test-oath. The World does not uphold the Congressional test-oath, never did and never will.

The Times does uphold the test-oath, in that respect differing from President Johnson, who regards it simply as an unwise law, to be obeyed so long as upon the statute book it portrays the narrow-mindedness and the intolerance of the radicals, but a law to be wiped off the statute book at the earliest possible moment. The only righteous test-oath, in his judgment as in ours, is the oath required by the Constitution, namely: "The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several State Legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States, and of the several States, shall be bound, by oath or affirmation, to support this Constitution," which oath, by the statute of 1789, has always been administered in the following form: "I, A. B., do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution of the United States."

This oath or affirmation of present and future loyalty is what the people are entitled to demand from their representatives in Congress and servants in office; they are not entitled to demand any more; and those who demand more are simply such persons in office as have power and are striving to keep it by any means whatever. The people do not demand more. Punishment for past misconduct cannot take the form of test-oath exclusion from office and representative place. Before any punishment can justly be inflicted, there must be arraignment and conviction according to the due processes of the law; and, when conviction designates the criminal, and determines the nature and extent of his crime, it determines and prescribes also the exact measure and kind of punishment.—All these conditions of punishment are violated by the test-oath exclusion.

But beyond the violations of law which these Radicals always operate in their spasms to be loyal, there is the larger question of legislative policy which should guide and modify the law, if the law were in fact the stringent and revengeful instrument of partisan malevolence, which the Radicals desire to make it. And, as matter of policy, it should seem to be clear that, for a central government, which had abundantly vindicated its authority and established its laws, to descend to persecution where it had neglected to punish, would neither comport with its dignity, nor contribute to its strength. But for an essentially representative government thus to become the instrument of unlawful punishment is a part of its people is worse than the conduct of him who should apply the boot and the thumb-screw to his own limbs, just recovered to health from temporary paralysis.

What Does it Mean?

A good deal of uneasiness exists in the public mind, here, and not without seeming cause.—The revelations made by Mr. Raymond, of the belligerent purpose of the dominant party in Congress and of the preparations they are already making for war, give greater significance to the military organization and the nightly drills of the negroes here and to any facilities afforded them for these demonstrations. We know not what it all means, but putting this and that together, proceedings which might otherwise have been regarded simply as idle, and dictated by the mere love of novelty or display, will support another construction, and one that addresses itself to the serious attention of the public. There may be a motive more potent than any we have heretofore supposed, to prompt these midnight drillings and military displays in the sweltering temperature through which we have passed.—It will do no harm to be a little suspicious, and to keep our eyes open, in times so badly out of joint as these.—Rich. Enquirer.

A SCURVY TRICK.—The Newbern (N. C.) Times quotes a part of a letter recently written by Judge Hoomes, of Indiana, to prove that none but loyal men are expected to be present at the Philadelphia Convention. As we have published the letter in full, our readers know that Judge Hoomes denounced the Convention on the ground that although such was the intention of some of the originators of the movement, the after developments had proved that the Convention would not be composed of loyal men only. The Times must be edited by a "smart Yankee." Such tricks are not common among southern men, nor considered very creditable to whom who practice them.—Richmond Dispatch.

MESSRS. Patterson and Stokes of Tennessee have both sworn in. The former held a judicial office in Confederate times, for the protection, he says, of Union men. The latter belonged to a volunteer company raised to fight the Union. They have good swearing capacities.

THE FALL ELECTIONS.—The first election this fall takes place in Kentucky, but not for members of Congress. Vermont and Maine follow in the early part of September, with Pennsylvania, Ohio and other Western States in October, the election ending with Maryland, New York and Massachusetts, in November.

There is negro in Philadelphia whose feet measure twenty-one inches in length. It is supposed they will be used as the next "Republican platform."

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

Dr. Radam's (the leader of a new Medical System) True Antidote, whose vast internal power cleanses the stomach and paralyzes the bowels, must be a blessing to the man who restores health and vigor to the weak and sickly. Those two great specifics, the Doctor says (not superseding all the standard nostrums of the day), Extraordinary Powers for Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the so called remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the pill an very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspepsia and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 41 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

No Family at the South should be Without Them.

The late Col John Wright, of Goldsboro', N. C. Aug. 14, 1862, says: "I have used the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS in my family here, and also on my plantation in Alabama, and always with success. I have a valuable servant girl who had been a long time under treatment for consumption without receiving any benefit. Almost in her extremity I was induced to try the Hepatic Pills. They were given according to directions, and she is now well, entirely restored by them. A similar case occurred among my servants in Alabama. For liver and lung diseases I have perfect confidence in them.

For sale by the Druggists. Directions accompany each box. Sent to any part of the United States for $1 per dozen. Address,

A SOON TO THE SICK AND THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

LIFE-GIVING PILLS!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A VERY FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the wasting energies to their pristine state.—To the young and middle-aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific, and sterling medicine, for such a dream realized, that Ponce-de-Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to vigor and make youth over.

An Eternal Spring!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show in one glorious fact, that magic, that made it fair.

THESE FAMOUS REMEDIES

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity the offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILLIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this great disfiguring disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS,

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect to prescribed dose to the youngest babe.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching efforts to the very root of the evil!

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS.

Invariably cure the following Diseases.

Asthma,
