THE SENTINEL.

Wednesday Evening, Aug. 8, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Jarratt's Hotel, Petersburg, well and favorably known throughout the country, has passed into the hands of Saml. Stevens & Co., who will conduct it on first-class principles.

The Secretary of State invites proposals for supplying the public offices in the Capitol, &c., with wood.

The next session of the University of Virginia will begin on the 1st. day of September, with a full Faculty, and on the same enlarged basis as before the war.

Pulliam, Jones & Co., have white corn and flour.

See musical announcement of Ditson & Co., Boston.

The Election.

The following additional returns have been received:

	Ratification.	Rejection.
Iredell	685	130
Alamance,	139	420
Robeson,	-	342
Warren	6	402
Cumberland	183	304
Cabarrus	238	198
Mecklenburg	277	144
Rowan	378	137
Lincoln	397	10
	2,274	2,032

Three precincts remain still to be heard from in this County. As far as ascertained, the vote stands: Ratification 687; Rejection 341.

We have returns from three boxes in Rutherford, as follows: Ratification 406; Rejection 2.

From the complexion of these returns, we are inclined to the opinion that the Constitution has been ratified by a small majority.

ARTIFICIAL LIMBS.—The factory in this City, for the manufacture of limbs for our disabled soldiers, is doing well. A number of our soldiers have been supplied and others are coming in daily. The State could not have performed a better deed.

EXCHANGE HOTEL.—At the invitation of the polite proprietor of this excellent Hotel, we invigorated and materially comforted the inner man, by a most capital dinner there on yesterday. We conclude that the many good things we have heard of the enterprise, politeness and skill of Mr. Blair, as a caterer and accomplished Hotel keeper, are true to the letter. Every portion of the premises is undergoing thorough renovation, and the chambers and dining room are set off in the style and with the taste, which so distinguish the Hotels in our larger cities.—We trust our host will receive ample patronage for his cheerful toil.

REV. T. E. SKINNER.—Furman University, S. C. has conferred on Rev. T. E. Skinner, of this city, the honorary title of D. D.

SPECIAL TERM.—By request of Gov. Worth, his Honor, Judge Mitchell, will hold a special Court of Oyer and Terminer for the County of Cabarrus.

MEMORIAL TO MISS LEE.—Being prevented from attending the interesting ceremonies which take place, to-day, at the Jones' Sulphur Springs, in Warren, connected with the erection of a monument to Miss Lee, daughter of Gen. Robert E. Lee, by the ladies of Warren, we hope some friend will do us the kindness to furnish us with a suitable notice of it.

KEROSENE OIL.—A subscriber wishes to know whether or not the greasy condition of glass lamps on the outside, in which Kerosene Oil is burned, is owing to the penetration of the oil through the glass. We are so rusty in scientific reading, that we are not prepared to give a scientific answer. Much of the grease on glass lamps is put upon them by careless hands and a greasy rag, yet the peculiar nature of Kerosene inclines us to believe that, while burning, it is forced through the pores of the glass.

The Hillsboro' N. C. Military Academy.

General R. E. Colston, who lost everything during the war but his ability, energy and fortitude, has revived the Hillsboro' Military Academy, in North Carolina, and seeks, as he well deserves it, the generous support of a discriminating public. This Academy, (located in one of the most beautiful and healthy regions of the old North State,) was founded by the gallant and lamented Colonel C. C. Tew, who fell fighting for the South at Sharpsburg. The buildings and grounds having been adapted originally to the purposes of a military school under competent superintendence, they will compare favorably with those of any other institution of the kind in the South; and as they are the property of the widow of the late Colonel Tew, any aid afforded the Academy in the way of patronage will benefit that lady and her family.

General Colston, at the beginning of the recent war, was Professor of Military History and Strategy and also of Political Economy in the Virginia Military Institute. He might have retained his position there had he not preferred to serve his country in the field. He was with Johnston and Magruder on the peninsula, with Lee and Jackson at Chancellorsville, and with Beauregard at Savannah and Petersburg. At the latter point he had the honor to command the local militia on the 9th of June, 1864, in one of the most gallant and desperate fights of the whole war. Throughout his service he acted with conspicuous merit, and the deeds of his brigade, under his skillful direction, will live on some of the proudest pages of our history.

The ability of General Colston in the department which he has undertaken, is undoubted; for his experience in the field has improved that theoretical knowledge for which he was noted as a Professor at the Virginia Military Institute. His private worth has endeared him to all who have come in connection with him, and youths entrusted to his care will be most kindly but firmly dealt with. Though the Southern people have not taken secret oaths to employ none in any capacity who did not serve in the Confederate army, yet it is nothing but becoming and just that those who have become poor in the common cause should be helped in their efforts to retrieve their fortunes. We hope that the Southern press will recollect to bring the Hillsboro' Military Academy to the attention of the people, so that General Colston may attain that success which he and his enterprise so well merit.—Rich. Examiner.

PENNSYLVANIA SOLDIERS.

Immense Convention at Harrisburg.

The President Fully Endorsed.—The Soldiers Declare Against Negro Suffrage,—They Demand Representation for the South,—Speeches, Resolutions, etc., etc.

At a meeting of the Pennsylvania soldiers, held at Harrisburg, on the 1st. instant, at which every county in the State was fully represented, and speeches were made by several distinguished soldiers, the policy of the President was fully endorsed, representation for the South was demanded, negro suffrage and equality was repudiated as unwise and impolitic. The meeting was immense, and it was characterized by harmony and great enthusiasm. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we hold the same belief now that we did when we took up arms in 1861, that the war was a war for the Union, and for no other purpose; that the agreement we made with the Government when we took up arms to defend her against armed rebellion, is found in the joint resolution in Congress adopted July 22d, 1861, which declares that this war is not prosecuted on our part in any spirit or oppression, nor for any purpose of conquest or subjugation, but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the several States unimpaired. This is the bond originally sealed with their lives, and many others signed in blood.

Resolved, That the failure of Congress to carry into effect this joint resolution, after the war is over, and to restore the Union with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States unimpaired, is a gross violation of a solemn compact, made with the defenders of the government at her time of greatest need and peril.

Resolved, That we repudiate the action of the Radical Congress, which is an insult to every officer, soldier and seaman who served in the Federal army during the rebellion; their policy admits that our victories accomplished what the enemy could not—divided the Union—and the fruits of our toil and blood-bought victories burn to ashes in their hands.

Resolved, That we cordially endorse the restoration policy of President Johnson, as announced in his annual, special and veto messages, and further made known to the country in his treatment to the States lately in rebellion; we believe it to be just and humane, and better adapted than any other known policy to restore those States to their Constitutional relations to the Union, and bring renewed peace, happiness and prosperity to the country.

Resolved, That the action of Congress in refusing seats to the Senators and members from the South who bear true allegiance to the Constitution and laws, while that body is engaged in changing the fundamental laws of the country in an important particular, is revolutionary in its action, while their conduct in taxing the South without her consent strikes at the vital principle of constitutional liberty—that there can be no taxation without representation.

Resolved, That we are opposed to negro suffrage, and all legislation that has for its object the raising of the negro to social or political equality with the white man, or to make him the pet of the nation, meets our unqualified disapproval.

Arrest of a Government Forger with Fifty Thousand Dollars—He Marries A Fashionable Lady of Washington and starts for a Bridal Tour to Europe—But is Watched at Philadelphia.

The Northern papers are full of the particulars of an arrest of an individual who perpetrated successfully a forgery upon the Navy and Treasury Departments, by means of which he came into the possession of $50,000 of Government money. His name is William Ringgold Cooper, an acting ensign in the Navy, and quite recently on duty in the Office of Detail, Bureau of Navigation, Navy Department. The Philadelphia papers give the following additional particulars:

Some days ago a sharper, by representing himself as A. R. Allen, a purser in the navy, succeeded in obtaining a draft on the treasury for the amount of fifty thousand dollars, to which the genuine signatures of the Secretary of the Navy, and all the officers of the Treasury Department, through whose hands such matters generally pass, were attached. The rogue then had the draft made payable at the sub-treasury at Philadelphia, and deposited it together with $2,000 in currency, in the First National Bank of Philadelphia, and on the next day checked out the whole amount and left for parts unknown. The swindle was first discovered in the office of Fourth Auditor, where Purser A. R. Allen was well known, and, it being a matter of surprise in that office that he should require so much money, he was written to, whereupon the fraud was discovered. The draft was obtained from the Navy Department by means of forged requisitions, and so well were all the minute details arranged that the officials were unable to understand how the perpetrator had obtained his knowledge of the requisite minutiæ.

For several days the detectives were at fault on the scent, but on Thursday detective Siemm "bagged the game." The offender William Ringgold Cooper, alias A. R. Allen, was arrested in the afternoon train from Baltimore, at the Baltimore depot, at Broad and Prime streets, under circumstances peculiary delicate and distressing. He had married that morning, in Washington, a young lady of highly respectable family. They were on their bridal tour, attended by a gay and happy escort of bridesmaids and groomsmen, to New York city, from whence the newly wedded pair were to sail to Europe. The startling shock to the joyous hopes of the bride may be imagined, but not described. She was committed to the care of friends in the upper section of our city, while her unworthy husband was removed by the officers of the law. Nearly all the stolen funds were recovered from his person in the form of United States five-twenty bonds.

After a private hearing before United States Commissioner Sergeant, in the Mayor's office, he was allowed a short visit to his afflicted wife. He has been held for a further hearing on Saturday. Meanwhile he is imprisoned within the ponderous walls of Moyamensing prison.

Washington News.

Mr. Charles O'Conor has arrived here. His recent visit to his client, Jefferson Davis, is understood to have reference to the late flimsy charges made by the House Judiciary Committee that Davis is guilty of complicity in the assassination plot. It is not believed that Holt will give Mr. O'Conor access to the so called evidence in his possession on which he professes to rely to sustain the charges.

It is reported from Washington that the President is only awaiting the return of Postmaster General Randall to remove a large number of postmasters.

The city of Memphis, Tenn., is rapidly recovering from the effects of the war. It is stated that over $655,000 are at present invested in putting up first-class buildings, and that there are over four hundred minor houses in the course of construction. Business of all kinds is said also to be improving.

Our Wednesday Morning Despatches.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7, P. M.

The U. S. Consul at Antwerp, under date of July 18, informs the State Department that the cholera at that place is gradually on the increase. The daily death list ranges from 60 to 95. The disease first made its appearance in an emigrant vessel, which was not ordered away in time to prevent the infection from reaching the shore. The Consul advises a strict surveillance to be kept over all vessels from that point.

Our Consul in Spain writes that a strict quarantine at Port Mahon has been ordered on all American vessels bound for Spanish ports.

Gens. Steedman and Fullerton had a long interview with the President this morning. No executive appointments made to-day.

The Secretary of the French Legation here writes to the Secretary of State, stating that the grave events transpiring in Europe will not delay the Paris Exposition. In a word, he says that everything indicates the anticipation that the Exposition will be completely ready by the 1st of April, 1867.

The Late Steamboat Disaster.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 7, P. M.

The latest accounts from the scene of the steamer Lyttle disaster report 13 killed and about 70 wounded. Most of the killed were deck hands. Ten of the wounded died at Madison, Indiana, to-day.

Radicalism in New England.

BOSTON, Aug. 7.

At a large meeting here, last night, for the purpose of raising funds for the education of the Freedmen, Senator Wilson was the principal orator. He bitterly denounced the President and his policy of reconstruction.

Our Noon Despatches.

Special to the New York Herald by the Cable.—The Seat of War, &c.

LONDON, August 8.

Before the armistice was extended to Bavaria, the Prussians had moved and secured a good footing. They are forcing a paper currency upon the people.

By agreement the Prussians are to occupy Wirzburg, and the Bavarians are to retain the Fortress of Mentz. The Baden troops left it yesterday and the Wirtemburg troops will leave it on the 9th.

The river Rhine is re-opened.

During the last three days, the Austrians have been pouring into Tyrol, via Bavaria, to the number of about 40,000.

The Italian navy is to be re-organized. A new Italian loan has been ordered since the beginning of the truce. A part of the Swiss troops, which were guarding the Italian border, have been disbanded.

The cholera is increasing in England.

European Markets and Financial.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.

Dates from London to the evening of the 6th have been received by the arrival at Halifax.

Liverpool, Aug. 6.—Cotton sales to-day 8,000 bales. Market flat, with decline of one-fourth of a penny.

Registration in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 8.

The registration of voters has commenced. It attracts considerable interest, from affects being made by many, heretofore excluded on the ground of disloyalty, to obtain registration.

The status of political parties in the City and State will depend very much on the result of the registration.

From New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.

The Tribune's Ottawa special says: Mr. Galt, Minister of Finance, has resigned on account of differences with his colleagues.

The Superintendent of Metropolitan Police has received information, leading him to believe there is complicity between the detectives and counterfeiters.

The Tribune's special Leavenworth dispatches state that Indians are making raids on the Kansas border, murdering and outraging. Troops have been sent to the rescue of the settlers.

"Pressing."

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.

The Purser of the Baltic publishes a Card, announcing that a sailor on the steamer was seized by the Prussian authorities in the port of Bremerhaven and pressed into service. The sailor was shipped in New York, but it is not known whether he was a naturalized citizen.

Mr. Fitch, late Mayor of Muscatine, Iowa, was also lately seized by the Austrian authorities, while on a pleasure tour, and forced into ranks.

A lady appeared recently at the concert in the Champs Elysee in a black and white muslin dress (the Prussian colors,) embroidered all over with needle-guns, and with Prussian soldiers mowing down Austrians with the murderous weapons; and the little cockade which now serves as a substitute for a bonnet was trimmed with aguillettes of the needle-gun pattern.

The First Dose Relieved.

Wm. Verrel, Esq., Matoaca, Va., says, "I was afflicted with the Liver complaint for two years, sometimes so bad that I could not lie upon my left side for one minute, nor could I walk but a short distance without stopping to rest. I tried several kinds of patent medicines but found no relief. I also tried the skill of the most eminent Physicians but still found no relief. I was at last induced to try your Pills [THE SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS,] and from the first dose I found relief, and continued to mend until I was perfectly cured. I am now a well man."

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
Notary Public,
L. S. Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
138 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 37 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of cancer in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

HILLSBOROUGH MILITARY ACADEMY.

The exercises of this well known institution, founded by the late Col. C. C. Tew, will be resumed on the 1st. day of October next, under the direction of Gen. R. E. COLSTON, a graduate and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a Professor of the Va. Military Institute.

The course of instruction will be such as to make the Academy a great a school of theoretical and applied science—in which languages and literature will also receive a full share of attention. The discipline and instruction will be upon a complete military basis.

Gen'l. Colston's long experience and extensive acquaintance enable him to assure the public that he will secure the services of Professors of distinguished ability as the wants of the school require them, and he confidently relies upon the liberal patronage of his old friends and companions in arms, throughout N. C. and the whole South.

Applications for admission must be made as early as practicable, to the Superintendent, and accompanied by testimonials of good moral character. Circulars containing full information will be issued in a few days. For these, and all further particulars, apply to GEN. R. E. COLSTON,

Superintendent Hillsborough Military Academy, Hillsborough N. C.
